THE CHILDREN VOTING.

Are Holding Interesting Election With the Civic Committee.

An interest has now been aroused through the persevering work of the members of the civic committee which is bound to result in much good to the city at large.

A dozen Ardmore women, a healthful and greater Ardmore. The children are now selecting judges who will pass upon the general goodness of the parks and flower gardens at their respective homes. And while the pleasure attached to this work is of itself worth all the time and trouble expended it is further enhanced by the prospect of a cash remuneration. There are two ten-dollar prizes—one for the children who live in rented houses, the other for those who own their own homes. Ten dollars in gold awaits the winner of the first prize; five dollars in gold, the second in both classes.

More than 120 packages of flower seeds each package containing from two to seven varieties, are awaiting for you after you cast your vote. These seeds will be divided among the children of the four wards and beautiful beds of flowers are more to be done than in the past and ribbon given. The civic committee asks the cooperation of every mother and child in Ardmore, for these workers are in earnest. While you have until the 25th of the month to vote for judges, they much prefer that you begin now.

As an incentive to the young people who desire to enter the contest we give below the names of those who have already voted, also the judges voted for. Those who have voted are Jack Snyder, Alvin Carter, Rada Snyder, Beatrice Butler, Grace Johnson, Ouida Falson, Elmer Snyder, May Melvin, Gail Cross, Georgia Simpson, Andrew Baker, Walter Drew, Daisy Maule Webb, Adah Drew, Fred Smith, Ruth Baker, Charles Anderson, Fico Alexander, Harry Taylor, Edgar Son, Gerie Cannavan, Bertha Kenna, Gladys Hoff.

The judges with their respective votes to the present time are Leo Cross 12, E. E. Gulliver 5, Fred Beck 3, Mrs. Cross 4, Miss Bennett 4, Miss Townsend 4, Miss Pool 4.
