Chairman.

Miss Estelle Torbett Wins Prize.

The one dollar prize offered by the Ada Fair Association to the party who first sent in a correct list of the misspelled words in their large page circular which has been run in the News, was won by Miss Estelle Torbett, she having corrected twenty-two out of the twenty-five. The offer reads for the first correct list but the Fair Association has decided to award to the one who came nearest, as no one has sent in a full list of the misspelled words. We congratulate Miss Estelle.—Ada News.

The Ardmoreite is also proud of Miss Estelle for until the arrival of her parents in Ada she was one of Ardmore's public school most intelligent pupils.

Nichols Whiteman Nuptials.

Mr. John Nichols and Miss Mary Whiteman were quietly married last evening at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Esther Whiteman, 214 West Broadway street, where they will be home to their friends. The affair was a very quiet one, there being only a few of the personal friends of the contracting parties present. Rev. C. Weitz officiated.

Negro Crushed to Death.

Ed Hall, colored, was instantly killed at the canyon last Monday. With other workmen he was engaged in hollowing some heavy timber when it slipped and fell to the ground. Hall was crushed beneath it. He formerly lived at Guthrie.

Jim Johnson, who formerly drove the sprinkler, has taken Will Hard's place as driver of the hose wagon. Mr. Hard is now on the police force.

South McAlester Eagles.

The Ardmore Eagles returned this afternoon from South McAlester, where a new corps of Eagles was instituted last night with sixty-one charter members. The local Eagles speak very complimentary of the membership of the new corps, which is composed of the leading citizens and business men of that city.
