A NEW KIND OF CIGAR FOR YOUR NICKEL

The "Anna Held" quality, such as you expect only in a three-for-quarter cigar, is developed through skillful selection, curing, grading, fermenting and blending of the tobacco leaf before it reaches the factory.

"Anna Held" Cigar

The different varieties of leaf required to produce such a perfect, well-balanced smoke are packed and fermented together for two years in immense "stemmeries" erected especially for this purpose at a cost of over a million dollars. This exclusive preparatory system produces a real blend, combining the characteristic flavor and goodness of each grade, and insuring the rich, smooth, uniform flavor you'll find in the "Anna Held." One trial will prove it!

WIDOWS READ LITTLE.

Too Busy Enjoying Themselves to Give Time to Books.

After dinner the woman called on two friends. They were a married couple. They had not been married so very long.

The wife, who was suffering from a slight cold, lay on the couch among the pillows. She had on a red kimono. She was very pretty, with the red to match in her cheeks. In her hands was a book. It happened to be of the same color as her kimono, which was also pretty. Attached to her book was a tiny little electric light, with a shade. The battery lay by her side.

The husband resented himself at the center table. By his side was an open book with a paper knife keeping the place for him. It was under the reading lamp.

"How long have you been married now?" asked the woman as she took her seat in a big armchair.

"About six months," said they simultaneously.

The woman, who had just come from a gay dinner party where she had laughed for two hours with a lot of friends, glanced quickly from one to the other, taking in the books, the lamps, their attitudes of repose, the quiet of the room, the air of having finished with fun altogether.

"I see," said she. "I know how it is, used to be married. I read then, and read and read. I nearly put my eyes out reading. I read sometimes till 3 o'clock in the morning and after."

"I do that now," smiled the wife.

"Really?" went on the woman. "I think there wasn't a book that came out then I didn't read. I devoured them omnivorously."

"And now?" said they.

The woman smiled serenely at them from the recess of her big armchair.

"Now," said she, "I never read a single book that's come out. I don't now what's come out, and I don't care. I go by bookstands from one end of the room to the other and never think of them."

"Why?" asked they.

"I'm no longer married," explained the woman. "I no longer vegetate and read and read and vegetate. I live now," she added. —New York Press.

King of All Cough Medicines.

Mr. E. G. Case, a mail carrier of Canton Center, Conn., who has been in the U. S. service for about sixteen years, says: "We have tried many cough medicines for croup, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is king of all and one to be relied on every time. We also find it the best remedy for coughs and colds, giving certain results and leaving no bad after effects." For sale by J. J. Ramsey, W. B. Frame, Ardmore Drug Co., Bonner & Bonner.

A Thousand Dollars Worth of Good.

A. H. Thurnes, a well known coal operator of Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney or bladder trouble for years, passing gravel and stones with excruciating pain. I got no relief from medicine until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure, then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust like fine stones and now I have no pain across my kidneys and feel like a new man. It has done me $1000 worth of good." City Drug Store.

Croup is quickly relieved, and whooping cough will not "run its course" if you use the original Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar. This cough syrup is different from all others because it acts on the bowels. You can not cure croup and whooping cough until you rid the system of all congestion, by working off the cold through a copious action of the bowels. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar does this, and cures all coughs, croup, whooping cough, etc. No opiates. Sold by City Drug Store.

After a woman has had to cut her husband's finger nails on the right hand for him she begins to talk a great deal of the helplessness of men.

"Here lies my babe, as dead as nits. When Gott has killed mit ager fits. He would not let him live mit me. So took him up to live mit He." The child would have lived had he been given Dr. Mendenhall's Chills and Fever Cure. Sold by City Drug Store.
