SENATE BILL NO. ONE

"JIM CROW" MEASURE AS PASSED BY LEGISLATURE.

EFFECTIVE IN SIXTY DAYS

Railroads Must Keep Law Posted in Conspicuous Place in Depots and Coaches—Authority is Given to Conductors.

The following is Senate Bill No. 1, as passed by both branches of the Oklahoma legislature and approved by Governor Haskell, Dec. 18:

"Section I That every railway company, street car or suburban car company, street car or interurban car or railway company, lessee, manager or receiver thereof, doing business in this State, as a common carrier of passengers for hire, shall provide separate coaches or compartments, as hereinafter provided, for the accommodation of the white and negro races, which separate coaches or cars shall be equal in all points of comfort and convenience.

"Section II. Every railroad company, street car company, urban, suburban or interurban car company shall provide for and maintain separate waiting rooms at all their passenger depots for the accommodation of the white and negro races, which separate waiting rooms shall be equal in all points of comfort and convenience. Each waiting room shall bear in a conspicuous place words in plain letters indicating the race for which it is set apart. It shall be unlawful for any person to use, occupy or remain in any waiting room, toilet room or at any water tank in any passenger depot in this State, set apart to a race to which he does not belong.

"Section III. The term NEGRO, as used herein includes every person of African descent, as defined by the Constitution.

"Section IV. Each compartment of a railway coach, divided by a good and substantial wooden partition with a door therein shall be deemed a separate coach within the meaning of this Act, and each separate coach shall bear in some conspicuous place appropriate words in plain letters indicating the race for which it is set apart; and each compartment of an urban or suburban car company, interurban car or railway company or street car company divided by a board or marker, placed in a conspicuous place, bearing appropriate words in plain letters, indicating the race for which it is set apart shall be sufficient as a separate compartment within the meaning of this act.

"Section V. Any railway company, street car company, urban or suburban car company, or interurban car or railway company, lessee, manager or receiver thereof, which shall fail to provide its cars, bearing passengers with separate coaches or compartments as above provided, or fail to provide and maintain separate waiting rooms as provided herein, shall be liable for each and every failure to a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, to be recovered by suit in the name of the State, in any court of competent jurisdiction, and each trip run with such railway train, street car, urban, suburban or interurban car without such separate coach or compartment, shall be deemed a separate offense.

"Section VI. If any passenger upon a railway train, street car, urban, suburban or interurban car provided with separate coaches or compartments, as above provided, shall ride in any coach or compartment not designated for his race, after having been forbidden to do so by the conductor in charge of the train or car, or shall remain in any waiting room not set apart for the race to which he belongs, he shall be guilty of misdemeanor, and, upon conviction shall be fined not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars. Should any passenger refuse to occupy the coach or compartment or room to which he or she is assigned by the officer of such railway company, said officer shall have the power to refuse to carry such passenger on his train, and should any passenger or any other person not passenger, for the purpose of occupying or waiting in such sitting or waiting room not assigned to his or her race, enter said room, said agent shall have the power and it is made his duty to eject such person from such room, and for such act neither they nor the railway company which they represent, shall be liable for damages in any of the Courts of this State.

"Section VII. The provisions of this Act shall not be so construed as to prohibit officers having in custody any person or persons or employees upon the trains or cars in the discharge of their duties, nor shall it be construed to apply to such freight trains as carry passengers in cabooses, provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent railway companies in this State from having sleeping cars, dining or chair cars attached to their trains to be used exclusively by either white or negro passenger separately but not jointly.

"Section VIII. Every railway company carrying passengers in this State shall keep this law posted in a conspicuous place in each passenger depot, and in each passenger coach provided in this law.

"Section XI. That nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent the running of extra or special trains or cars for the exclusive accommodation of either white or negro passengers, if the regular trains or cars are operated as required by this Act and upon regular schedule.

"Section X. Conductors of passenger trains, street cars, urban, suburban or interurban lines, provided with separate coaches or compartments shall have the authority to refuse any passenger admittance to any coach or compartment in which they are not entitled to ride under the provisions of this Act, and the conductor in charge of the train, street car, urban, suburban or interurban car shall have authority, and it shall be his duty to remove from the train, coach, street car, urban, suburban or interurban car any passenger not entitled to ride therein under the provisions of this Act; upon his refusal to do so knowingly shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum of not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and the company, manager, conductor, agent, receiver or other officer shall not be held for damages of any lawful removal of a passenger as provided herein.

"Section XI. All fines collected under the provisions of this law shall go to the available common school fund of the county in which conviction is had. Prosecutions under the provisions of this law may be instituted in any court of competent jurisdiction in any county through or into which said railroad, urban, suburban, interurban, railway may be run or have an office.

"Section XII. An emergency exists for the preservation of the public safety, by reason whereof this Act shall take effect sixty days from and after its passage and approval."
