

THE RESULTS OF A STATE FAIR are better horses, better cattle, better hogs, finer fruits, finer corn and finer cotton. Then it goes without saying that the greater results of these fairs are in favor of the farmer. Every farmer should take an active interest in the Oklahoma State Fair. Begin now to arrange your exhibits. Carter county will have an exhibit at the Oklahoma State Fair and it is important that the finest products of the county be on exhibition. The commercial interests of the county ask for the hearty cooperation of the agricultural interests. If both interests work in harmony Carter county can have the best display of any county in the state. We have the products. Let us put them on display. The Oklahoma State Fair will be the means of bringing many practical farmers into this county. We need them. Let's get them.
