

When You Think

Of the pain which many women experience with every month it makes the gentleness and kindness always associated with womanhood seem to be almost a miracle. While in general no woman rebels against what she regards as a natural necessity there is no woman who would not gladly be free from this recurring period of pain.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, and gives them freedom from pain. It establishes regularity, subdues inflammation, heals ulceration and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private and absolutely confidential. Write without fear and without fee to World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you want a book that tells all about women's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers. In handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps.

MONKEY AS A TARGET

ARDMORE SPORTS DIDN'T THINK IT CRUELTY, BECAUSE THEY COULDN'T HIT HIM.

Persons who visited the Lachman Hippodrome Shows which gave a week's entertainment here a few weeks ago under the auspices of the fire department, will remember, some of them, having "taken a shot" at a monkey chained in one of the side show tents, and for every "hit" that was scored a cigar was given.

At Enid the other day where the same show was giving an entertainment, the Enid News says:

Is it cruelty to animals to put up a monkey as a target and give every man who hits him with a baseball a cigar?

When County Attorney McKeever witnessed this attraction at the Lachman Hippodrome Show it did not take him long to arrive at an affirmative answer and he straightway issued a warrant for the arrest of the person who was conducting the affair. The man was brought before Judge Asher last evening and that judicial officer was of the same opinion as the county attorney. The man who conducted the concession was undoubtedly of the same opinion for he pleaded guilty to the charge and paid a fine of $16.50.

CURES OLD SORES

We want to show you in this short, but honest and reasonable talk, how and why S. S. S. cures Old Sores. We do not claim that S. S. S. works wonders, but we do know it will cure sores and ulcers, and its record of forty years past abundantly justifies this confidence.

Any old sore shows an unhealthy and impure condition of the blood. It is a diseased condition of the flesh at that particular spot, caused and kept inflamed and irritated by a continual discharge into it of unhealthy matter from the circulation. In various ways the blood becomes contaminated and polluted. A long spell of fever, or other sickness, breeds disease germs in the system; the failure of nature's eliminative members to remove the waste and refuse matters of the body, the excessive use of minerals in certain diseases, infected wounds, bites and stings of insects, etc., all contaminate the blood with morbid matter and germs which sooner or later manifest their presence by a sore or ulcer which refuses to heal under the ordinary treatment of local applications.

External treatment can never cure a chronic sore or ulcer, because it does not reach the blood. The place will remain open as long as it is used as a drainage for the impurity which is in the blood, and in addition to the worry and anxiety caused by an old sore, there is always danger of its becoming cancerous, if a cure is not effected. Purify the blood, and nourish the flesh with a rich, healthy circulation, and then the place will heal of its own accord.

S. S. S. cures old sores by removing the causes which produce them. It goes down into the circulation, drives out all impurities and poisons, and by nourishing the flesh with rich, pure blood causes the place to heal naturally and permanently. S. S. S. does not make a surface cure, but, being the greatest of all blood purifiers, it begins at the bottom and by rebuilding broken down tissue, and supplying healthful, healing qualities to the circulation, causes the place to fill in with firm, healthy flesh, while it steadily but surely removes the cause and effects a permanent cure. The sore cannot remain when the blood is pure, and S. S. S. will thoroughly purify the blood. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free to all who write.

S. S. S. is for sale at all drug stores.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

BAD SORE FROM AN OLD WOUND.

I want to recommend S. S. S. to any who are in need of a blood purifier, and especially as a remedy for sores and ulcers. In 1887 I had my leg badly cut on the sharp edge of a barrel and having on a blue woollen stocking, the place was badly poisoned from the dye. A great sore formed and for years no one knows what I suffered with the place. I tried, it seemed to me, everything I had ever heard of but I got no relief and I thought I would have to go through life with an angry, discharging sore on my leg. At last I began the use of S. S. S., and it was but a short time until I saw that the place was improving. I continued it until it removed all the poison from my blood and made a complete and permanent cure of the sore. 216 Mary St., Brooklyn, N. Y. JNO. ELLIS.

A CANCEROUS ULCER.

I had a large sore or ulcer on my face and nothing I tried would benefit me. It began with shooting pains and soon the itching was terrible. At first it discharged a watery fluid which soon changed to one of thicker composition and the pain became very severe. It was nearly as large as a dollar and terribly inflamed in all the surrounding parts. It had been there no long and growing worse all the time. I became very much discouraged and alarmed. At last I began the use of S. S. S. At first the ulcer seemed to get worse, but I soon found that the poison was being removed from the blood and I continued to take S. S. S. It was not long before I noted a decided improvement and I kept up the use of the medicine until I was entirely cured of this cancerous ulcer. This has been some time ago and there is no sign of a return of the trouble. GARY, Fla. MRS. W. A. WRIGHT.

POISONED FROM INSECT BITE.

From the bite of an insect I was poisoned and had a dreadful sore on my ankle and took different treatments with no benefit. I was induced to try S. S. S., and after a few bottles it cleared my system and cleansed my blood and cured the sore. My mother took it for rheumatism, with success. I cheerfully recommend S. S. S. where a blood purifier is needed. 199 South First St. CHAS. S. FRIDGEN.

A REFORMED GAMBLER

"ADAM GOD" THE RELIGIOUS FANATIC HAS INTERESTING OKLAHOMA HISTORY.

HAD ACCUMULATED WEALTH

Was Found of His Family—Became Absorbed in Bible Reading and Made Literal Interpretation—Was Fascinated By Its Poetry.

Stillwater, Okla., June 8.—James Sharp, the religious fanatic who styles himself "Adam God" and who was responsible for the killing of a Kansas City policeman and several other persons in a riot last fall, for which he was found guilty by a jury and sentenced to a term in the penitentiary, came from Oklahoma. Several years ago he and his wife were arrested for parading the streets of Oklahoma in a nude condition. It may not be generally known, or it probably has been forgotten, that five or six years ago Sharp was for a time a well known figure in Stillwater.

Capt. Robert A. Lowry remembers Sharp and his wife well, and tells an interesting story about them. He says Sharp formerly was a professional gambler, of the crookedest sort; a "holdout man," than whom there probably was not a more skillful one in the United States. It is said that the ease and nonchalance with which Sharp could extract a "cold deck" from his handkerchief and make the warm deck disappear would have done credit to Hermann the Great or any other prestidigitator of note, and by his smoothness he was able to accumulate a good deal of coin—money which came easily and must have looked good to a man devoid of scruples.

Sharp's appearance in court in Kansas City, has awkward, buccolic ways and his apparent unsophistication, would hardly have indicated that he once had been a capper and a smooth worker in gambling games, but, according to those who knew him some years ago, that was his reputation. He had worked in Stillwater, when gambling was wide open in this then frontier town, and was well known among the older element of sporting men.

Unlike some gamblers, however, Sharp did not "blow" all his money over another man's table. He was thrifty, fond of his family, and ambitious to have a home. At the time he was traveling through the west, practicing his skill as a "holdout man," he owned a farm in Oklahoma, and there his family lived.

At one time Sharp came home for a rest. He had accumulated considerable money, and thought he was entitled to a vacation, which he meant to spend at home. He announced this to his wife, and the first day, on settling down in the house, he asked her what there was about which he might read.

Mrs. Sharp replied that there was nothing much which would interest him; "but," said she, half jokingly, "there's the Bible. You might read that."

So Sharp took up the Bible, and began to read. He never had read the book before, and it did not take him long to become interested in it. He read it through, became absorbed in it, and would hardly eat his meals, so fascinated was he with its grandeur, poetry, history, commands, revelations, mysteries and truths. When he had finished the book, he said to his wife: "Have you ever read this book?" And she replied that she never had read it through; that she had read parts of it, and heard it read. Then Sharp persuaded his wife to sit down and read the Bible through with him. They read it attentively together, discussing it, wondering at it, and becoming convinced that their former mode of life had been full of sin. It was not a matter of man's persuasion, argument or eloquence; James Sharp and wife were converted by what they found in God's holy word. They made their own interpretation, and they took it literally. They voluntarily became members of that primitive church of which Ananias and Sapphira were the first backsliders; they gave away their farm and all that they had and, without scrip in their purse, started out on foot to preach the gospel according to their own interpretation of it.

"Krank Corless told me of Sharp's history," said Capt. Lowry, and when he and Mrs. Sharp began to talk on the streets of Stillwater, naturally I was somewhat interested. It could not be called preaching Sharp did not preach; he just talked. For days he stood down there on the corner by Ed Kesler's saloon, Bible in hand. He would begin to talk in an ordinary conversational tone. Soon a little crowd would gather. He was earnest, but at that time there were no signs of that fanaticism or insanity about him which later developed. He was very much in earnest, and veritably believed he had a call from God, to preach. He asked for no money, but always said the Lord would provide. Sometimes people would give them a little money, but if they were starving they never complained. They had a little son with them, a boy apparently about twelve years old. One morning I met Sharp and he said: "Well, Mr. Lowry, my boy's left me."

"That so?" said I. "Where's he gone?"

"God called him last night," was the answer, "and he has gone forth to do his work."

"A short time after that," continued Capt. Lowry, "Mrs. Sharp got the call. I met her in the morning going to the depot, and she bade me good bye. I asked her where she was going, and she said wherever God should lead, as far as 35 cents would take her. I gave her a half dollar and told her that would bring her back, but she never came back, and I never saw her again."

"Soon after Sharp disappeared, and the next I heard of these strange people was their arrest in Oklahoma City. Their fanaticism had been progressive. When they were here they were at least harmless, and I thought their quiet, earnest, sincere and devout ways would do some good."

"Every newspaper reader knows of what happened in Kansas City, after Sharp had gone completely crazy, and his followers were as fanatical as he. I notice that in the trial, however, he showed some signs of the native shrewdness and experience which he had developed in the earlier days."

An Indigestion Remedy Free

Many people who are otherwise healthy suffer from indigestion, or dyspepsia. When you consider that the stomach and allied digestive organs are the most important organs of the body, it would seem that a disorder there is to be taken very seriously.

Dyspeptics cannot eat the things they like; food sours in the stomach; then chronic constipation begins, or, as is often the case, you have been constipated all along, and the stools are forced and irregular.

But there is no use letting indigestion go until it becomes chronic and undermines your health. It is good advice to suggest to you that you go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the wonderful cure for stomach, liver and bowel troubles. That is what C. Fowler, of Carson City, Mich., did and he is well today. Others who did the same and are cured are Ida A. Fortune, of Grand Junction, Tenn.; B. F. Thompson, of Shenandoah, Ia., who actually considers that it saved his life. You can obtain a 50-cent or $1 bottle of the druggist, and, taken according to directions, it will probably be all you need. It is a liquid, is easily assimilated, and besides the laxative effect, contains exceptional tonic properties which tone the stomach, and that is what is especially needed in indigestion.

All sufferers from indigestion who have never used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can obtain a free test bottle by writing the doctor. It will be sent direct to your home without any charge. In this way thousands have proven to their own satisfaction Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the very remedy they needed to cure indigestion. When once you use this grand remedy you will throw violent cathartics, tablets, salts, etc., away.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 311 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.
