STILL A CANDIDATE.
J. B. Champion Says Committee Did Not Take Action.

"Where did that idea come from," said J. B. Champion who has returned from Oklahoma City, "that members of the campaign committee are to be offered themselves for office?"

The impression was gathered here from reports of the proceedings of the state committee that members of the committee were not to become candidates for office, but they were expected to devote their time to the interests of the party. When that impression was gathered some little time ago, it was indeed in whether Mr. Champion would remain in the race for county judge. Mr. Champion said no such action was taken, that some one member made such a suggestion but no attention was paid to it and no action was taken on the question.

Top Notch on Hogs.
H. Davidson, the well known livestock dealer, bought a load of hogs yesterday for which he paid the highest price that has ever been paid for hogs in Ardmore. Mr. Davidson states that hogs are higher in the markets now than he has ever known before and that the owner of hogs doesn't have to dispose of many good hogs before he has as much money as if he had near a good average cotton crop.

WHOLESALE BUGGY COMPANY.

Sims Brothers Will Open Big House Here During Month of March.

P. C. Sims, formerly of Sulphur Springs, Texas, who arrived in Ardmore some days ago for the purpose of establishing a retail and wholesale buggy business, has been joined by his brother, C. G. Sims of Wichita, Kansas. C. G. Sims will leave here Monday for the markets to make purchases for the company and in the early part of March the company will be ready for business.

These young men have been in the business for the past nine years. They have been operating in different cities and they will combine their interests in Ardmore and place a large house here than either has carried heretofore. They have not leased a building yet but think they will succeed tomorrow in closing a lease on a building on Main street.

CROSS EXAMINATION OF GLAVIS.
Bullinger's Counsel Scores in Cross Questioning of Glavis.

Washington D. C., Feb. 18.—Continuing his cross examination of Glavis today, counsel for Bullinger drew out the witness the fact that up to the time that Bullinger went out of office as land commissioner, no evidence of fraud in the Alaska coal mines had been presented to the department.

Of Bullinger's participation in the Wilson coal company cases, Glavis admitted, he had no first-hand knowledge.

Oebra House Matinee and Night.
At the Robison opera house Saturday, Feb. 19th, will be a company of first class artists in the well-known comedy drama, "Ole Olson," the only Swedish dialect character that has stood the test of time.

"Ole Olson" is now in its eighteenth year of continued success, and bids fair for many years to come to hold its own in the esteem of the public. It is bright and clean in its comedy, thrilling in its drama and full of pathos. Special matinee at 3 p. m.
