

IN SOCIETY

By Jeanette H. Poland - Telephone 361
Hours 6:30 to 8:30 a. m. 6:30 to 9:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Conlee have returned from Sulphur.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Poland and son left yesterday for Colorado.

Miss Ruby Randol will return from Chicago the first week in September and resume her music classes.

Baptist Young Ladies.
The Baptist Young Ladies' Aid society will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Henderson.

Auction Forty-Two Party.
Mrs. C. C. Lynch will entertain Friday morning with an auction forty-two party from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m.

For Miss Benfer.
Mrs. Carl von Nordheim is entertaining informally this afternoon for her house guest, Miss Benfer of Raton, New Mexico.

For Mrs. Nalley.
A congenial number of friends enjoyed a picnic party last evening at the Rod and Gun club lake, complimentary to Mrs. Nalley of Muskogee, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gillam.

After a refreshing swim in the lake, a picnic was enjoyed on the lawn. The party included: Messrs. and Mrs. Wm. Morgan, Krueger, Robert Gillam, Davison, Whittington, J. A. Morgan, W. N. Morgan, Mrs. Nalley, Miss Ezell and Robert and Frank Gillam.

At the Chickasaw Lake.
A merry party enjoyed last evening at the Chickasaw Lake club. Motoring out soon after luncheon, a few games of auction bridge, boating and dancing was enjoyed before Mrs. Wymore announced supper, and it proved to be one of the kind for which she is famous, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the guests.

The party included Mrs. Jack Fowlkes of Dallas, Charles Dobbins, Harold Young of Denison, Myers, Riggin, Lucien Hoard, W. L. Kearney, Tom Frame, Roy Johnson; Misses Amelia Hunter and Thompson of Clinton, Mo.

Five Hundred Party.
Mrs. H. H. Sayre, ever a most charming hostess, entertained delightfully yesterday afternoon complimenting Miss Benfer of Raton, N. M. and Mrs. Clinton O. Burn of Oklahoma City.

Mrs. L. W. Burrow made top score in the interesting series of five hundred games, and Mrs. J. Shelby Downard was awarded the favor for low score.

Dainty refreshments were enjoyed after the games by Mrs. C. O. Bunn, Mrs. J. S. Downard, Wil Poland, B. A. Simpson, Champion, Anderson, H. L. Crockett, Carl von Nordheim, J. S. Berkshire, J. B. Moore, J. W. Newcomb, N. C. Wood, John Teer, H. A. Ledbetter, N. B. Feagin, T. Y. Morgan, J. L. Wilson and L. W. Burrow.

A HEALTHY, HAPPY WIFE is the greatest inspiration a man can have and the life of the family, yet how many homes in this fair land are blighted by the ill health of wife and mother!

It may be backaches, headaches, the tortures of a displacement, or some ailment peculiar to her sex which makes life a burden. Every woman in this condition should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, to restore her to health and happiness.

ACTIVITIES OF WOMEN

Interesting Notes of the Feminine Sex the World Over.

Oregon has one woman asbestos worker.

London has twenty-four exclusive women's clubs.

Calgary, Canada, has two women judges.

Syracuse has a female stenographers' union.

Pennsylvania has nearly one thousand eight hundred women physicians and clergymen.

Forty out of every 100 women in Massachusetts work for a living.

Women can now vote at all municipal elections in Fellsmeier, Fla.

The rates of pay for women as a whole in Oregon have been increased.

Weddings in London have increased 50 per cent since the war began.

Telephone companies in Turkey are now employing girls at the switchboards.

St. Louis has over thirteen hundred union women employed in the boot and shoe industry.

Women in France expect to receive the vote after the present war is over.

Germany's women spies are playing an important part in the present war.

About 90 per cent of the workers in Philadelphia's educational system are women.

Bachelor maids in Reichenbach, Germany, are taxed for the privilege of being unmarried.

There is only one Russian decoration for women—the Order of St. Catherine.

In nearly all the French ammunition factories the majority of workers are women.

Philadelphia's municipal playgrounds are supervised by a woman, Miss Elizabeth O'Neill.

Only 5 per cent of the female population in the United States has high school education.

One of the safety razor companies has invented and put on the market a safety razor for women.

Clarry Marshall, a New York boxer, is managed and seconded in all his fights by his sister.

Germany was the first country to experiment with vocational training for girls in public schools.

Statistics show that a woman with an endowment policy outlives the woman with the straight-life policy.

More than one-fourth of the women of voting age in the United States are wage-earners outside their homes.

The only woman physician in Turkey is Dr. Mary Eddy, whose fitness was passed upon by a dozen physicians.

Women receive 2c a pound for picking bay berries around Cape Cod, from which are made artistic candles.

Governor Carlson of Colorado has appointed Mrs. Imogene Clark as a member of the civil service commission of that state.

Topeka, Kan., has two women in official positions—Miss Alberta Hale, city treasurer, and Miss Etta Covell, city clerk.

Signora Bianca Badoli of Bologna, Italy, has invented a gas-mask to neutralize the effect of asphyxiating gases.

Miss Theresa Blum of Philadelphia has the distinction of being the youngest manager of a ladies' wear specialty shop in the country.

The women's section of the navy league is planning a nation-wide movement to impress upon congress the need of improved defenses.

Mrs. Austin Gray, one of the leading hostesses of Newport, R. I., and Mrs. J. Fred Pierson Jr., have united in a New York concern for the manufacture of cigarettes.

Mrs. Belva Lockwood, who is 85 years of age, has been placed upon the pension list of Andrew Carnegie for her work in advancing peace between warring nations.

It is claimed that women are superior to men in the making of certain parts of a shell because their fingers are more supple than men's as a result of long hours with the needle.

The Upholsterers' and Trimmers' International Union of North America is in favor of enrolling the 7,000 women in their industries in the union on an equal footing with the men.

Mrs. John Jacob Astor is among the women at Bar Harbor who have pledged themselves to sew for at least one hour a week for the allies, including shirts, surgical bandages and other things.

Miss Nina Lindley, the only woman member of the law class recently graduated from the Indiana university, has been admitted to partnership in the law firm of which she was formerly stenographer.

Miss Rose Dougan, a young Richmond (Ind.) society girl, finds aeroplaning the greatest sport, although she is an expert rider of horses and elephants, mountain climber, daring autoist and many other outdoor sports.

In view of the excessive drinking among English women of the working class, the Birmingham licensed trade has issued a circular asking for the assistance of women customers to prevent the evil by not remaining on the premises longer than is necessary for the obtaining of reasonable refreshment.

Carroll, Iowa, has the distinction of having the only woman director in the Northwestern Saengerbund. She is Miss Beatrice Stephens, and is being director of the Carroll Maen merchor, which is composed entirely of men, she is a singer of some note, having taken the medal last year at Chicago because of her rendition of a difficult aria.

For a Sprained Ankle.
If you will get a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment and observe the directions given therewith, faithfully, you will recover in much less time than is usually required. Obtainable everywhere.

A Year of Disillusionment.
The world has suffered disillusionment. That has been, perhaps, the most striking and significant feature of "the great war," which began a year ago with Austria's declaration of war against Serbia. Belligerents and neutrals alike have been surprised and disappointed. On every hand the unexpected has occurred, or the confidently expected has failed to occur. Almost every surprise has been unwelcome. And of such surprises, "the end is not yet."

The whole world has been surprised and disappointed in that there was a great war at all. It had largely been persuaded to accept as convincing three primary reasons why there should and would be none. Armaments had become so gigantic that the nations would not dare to use them; but while they have, in fact, proved to be greater and more destructive than any one imagined, the nations have not hesitated to set them loose in their lethal and devastating fury. The money kings of the world would prevent a war by withholding the needed pecuniary means; but they have, in fact, promoted and encouraged the war and have made haste to provide its fiscal stewards on a scale never dreamed of before. The great industrial and mercantile nations, Great Britain and Germany, would not engage in nor permit a war which would destroy their commerce; but they are in fact the chief belligerents.

Two other illusions were cherished concerning the war as a whole. One was that the great powers would never permit themselves to be plunged into a general European war over the affairs of any of the minor states; yet this anniversary reminds us that it was over Serbia the war was begun. The other was that if a war did occur it would of necessity be very brief, probably confined to only one or two great battles. But this war has lasted for a year without seeming now to be any nearer its close than it was at the beginning and its methods of campaign are those of

CALOMEL SALIVATES AND MAKES YOU SICK

ACTS LIKE DYNAMITE ON A SLUGGISH LIVER AND YOU LOSE A DAY'S WORK.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening salivating calomel when 50 cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel, your money is waiting for you.

ing shirts, surgical bandages and other things.

Miss Nina Lindley, the only woman member of the law class recently graduated from the Indiana university, has been admitted to partnership in the law firm of which she was formerly stenographer.

Miss Rose Dougan, a young Richmond (Ind.) society girl, finds aeroplaning the greatest sport, although she is an expert rider of horses and elephants, mountain climber, daring autoist and many other outdoor sports.

In view of the excessive drinking among English women of the working class, the Birmingham licensed trade has issued a circular asking for the assistance of women customers to prevent the evil by not remaining on the premises longer than is necessary for the obtaining of reasonable refreshment.

Carroll, Iowa, has the distinction of having the only woman director in the Northwestern Saengerbund. She is Miss Beatrice Stephens, and is being director of the Carroll Maen merchor, which is composed entirely of men, she is a singer of some note, having taken the medal last year at Chicago because of her rendition of a difficult aria.

For a Sprained Ankle.
If you will get a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment and observe the directions given therewith, faithfully, you will recover in much less time than is usually required. Obtainable everywhere.

A Year of Disillusionment.
The world has suffered disillusionment. That has been, perhaps, the most striking and significant feature of "the great war," which began a year ago with Austria's declaration of war against Serbia. Belligerents and neutrals alike have been surprised and disappointed. On every hand the unexpected has occurred, or the confidently expected has failed to occur. Almost every surprise has been unwelcome. And of such surprises, "the end is not yet."

The whole world has been surprised and disappointed in that there was a great war at all. It had largely been persuaded to accept as convincing three primary reasons why there should and would be none. Armaments had become so gigantic that the nations would not dare to use them; but while they have, in fact, proved to be greater and more destructive than any one imagined, the nations have not hesitated to set them loose in their lethal and devastating fury. The money kings of the world would prevent a war by withholding the needed pecuniary means; but they have, in fact, promoted and encouraged the war and have made haste to provide its fiscal stewards on a scale never dreamed of before. The great industrial and mercantile nations, Great Britain and Germany, would not engage in nor permit a war which would destroy their commerce; but they are in fact the chief belligerents.

Two other illusions were cherished concerning the war as a whole. One was that the great powers would never permit themselves to be plunged into a general European war over the affairs of any of the minor states; yet this anniversary reminds us that it was over Serbia the war was begun. The other was that if a war did occur it would of necessity be very brief, probably confined to only one or two great battles. But this war has lasted for a year without seeming now to be any nearer its close than it was at the beginning and its methods of campaign are those of a long and tedious struggle to exhaustion.

The belligerents have been surprised. Germany expected Belgium to yield either to temptation to menace, and to permit an instantaneous and unopposed attack upon an undefended French frontier. She expected thus to crush France before Russia could move; then to shatter Russia before Great Britain could act effectively, except at sea; and finally to dispose of Great Britain at her leisure. But Belgium brought disappointment to every one of these expectations. The allies on the other hand expected to bring Germany to her knees within a short time; but after a year of strenuous struggles, Germany, far from being beaten or even put upon the defensive, is still the aggressor and the invader.

The neutral nations have been surprised and disappointed. They had counted upon some practical and potent results from the Hague congress and conventions and from years of irenic and judicial effort. They expected that treaties would be kept, that the prescriptions of international law would be observed, and that the war would be conducted on more humane principles and with more regard for the rights of neutrals and non-combatants than ever before. But a treaty has been flouted with a wanton cynicism and contempt unmatched in history, the rules of international law have been ignored, and the war has largely been conducted with a ruthlessness and a lawless savagery such as the world had not seen for more than a hundred years.

The United States has had its own special and peculiar awakening from dreams of peace. It had expected that its remote situation and its benevolent neutrality would assure it exemption from the pains and penalties of whatever war the European powers might wage. But it has discovered that it enjoys no such immunity, but that it can not escape grave concern, even to the menace of actual embroilment in the war.

Some of this disillusionment may be permanent. It may be well for it to be so. The world may never again imagine that man has ceased to become a fighting animal and that wars have, therefore, become impossible. The United States may—it certainly should—abandon the foolish notion that weakness is a source of security, and may turn back to the saner ideals of the founders of the republic by developing a suitable degree of preparedness, not for the wanton staging of aggressive war, but for the strong preservation of peace through the maintenance of those rights and those principles of justice which should form the only possible basis of enduring peace.

But there are other surprises of the war which the world will not accept as irrevocable. It will not adopt as a precedent the "scrap of paper" estimate of a sacred treaty. It will not assent to the practice of murder, loot and rapine, as methods of civilized warfare. International law will probably be much revised as a result of the war of the nations.

If Your Hair is Falling Out we know of no better remedy than Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. A preparation which we gladly recommend to you. 50c a bottle. Ringer Drug Co.

But it will be revised in the direction of preventing more efficaciously the brutalities which have marked our year of disillusionment.—Boston Transcript.

Follow the crowds to Berry's Bakery and Confectionery. 617

AUGUST 17 IN HISTORY

- 1829—The state of Delaware fully abolished its militia system.
- 1850—Ashtabula county court house, Ohio, with all its archives and records, destroyed by fire.
- 1854—Russian gunboats fired on English men of war near Abo, with no fatalities.
- 1910—John B. Moisant, with a passenger in a monoplane, flew from Paris to Amiens; thence to Calais; thence across Dover Straits to Deal on the English coast.
- 1911—The wool bill was vetoed by President Taft. Its passage over the veto by congress failed.
- 1914—Ship registry bill passed the senate 40 to 20.

You Feel Clean and Refreshed!
after a bath with KIRK'S JAP ROSE Soap
because its "bubbly" lather has opened and thoroughly cleansed the pores, leaving only a "tingle" of perfect cleanliness.
A daily morning bath with this pure soap is a joy and makes the day's work easier.
YOUR DEALER SELLS IT
KIRK

A CLERGYMAN'S STORY

Came Near Losing His Life—How He Escaped

The following letter was received by The Peruna Co. from Rev. G. W. Roberts, R. R. 2, Box 27, Hartsell, Alabama, under date of April 2, 1904, which is exactly nine years ago. He says: "I take pleasure in informing you of what your Peruna has done for me after three years of suffering. I had tried the treatments of several doctors, also home remedies, but they failed and all hope had gone. My friends, like myself, thought I was in the last stages of consumption."

REV. G. W. ROBERTS, R. R. 2, Box 27, Hartsell, Ala.

"My daughter brought me a bottle of Peruna and plead with me to try it. I had got so weak I had lost my voice, and I thought it no use. That was in May, 1902. I began to take it, according to directions. I wrote to you, and you gave me your kind advice. "I soon felt better, my cough began to give way, and the expectation lessened. I have taken fourteen bottles. I feel well, eat hearty, sleep soundly, weigh as much as I ever did, do considerable work on my farm, and attend to my other business. My friends seem astonished at my recovery."

"I wish to thank you for your kind advice and the books you have sent me. I shall ever praise your medicine and hope that you may enjoy a long life."

It will be observed that Rev. Roberts waited two years after he began to use Peruna, before he wrote the above letter to The Peruna Co. So that his apparent recovery could not possibly have been temporary relief.

In a later letter to The Peruna Co., dated September 22, 1909, Rev. Roberts says: "I am a great friend of Peruna. By the use of Dr. Hartman's advice I am here to-day, able to be with my family and attend to my business."

We quote from another letter, dated December 10, 1906: "I praise Peruna to all the sick! The people know my case, and they praise it also."

In a letter dated November 22, 1909, we quote Rev. Roberts: "Peruna gave me back my life ten years ago. All my acquaintances know that. I am certainly thankful to you for your kindness."

In a later letter, dated January 13, 1910, he says: "I shall ever in the future, as in the past, be ready to speak in praise of Peruna to all sufferers. I believe my miraculous cure has been the means of many others being cured in this county."

From a letter of September 5, 1911, we quote a few words: "I am still among the living. As to Peruna, I do not feel that I have words to express the faith I have in its merits. I feel that Peruna has been the means, through the kind providence of God, of prolonging my life for more than ten years."

We quote a still later letter, October 31, 1912. He says: "I took a severe cold three weeks ago. I at once sent for Peruna. Have been taking it two weeks. I am now better. I consider that Peruna has carried me over a dozen years of life. I always stand ready to answer any question in reference to Peruna."

We quote from his last letter, dated January 2, 1913: "Dear Friends: I wish this bright New Year to express my thanks to you for your kindness. Trusting that you may have a successful and happy year, and that your medicine may prove a blessing to many as it has to me, I am yours as ever, G. W. Roberts, Hartsell, Alabama, R. F. D. 2, Box 27."

It is not necessary for us to add any words to this story. The eloquence and pathos of these letters are more convincing than arguments or affidavits. Who can doubt the clergyman's story? Who can doubt that Peruna saved his life?

Every home should be provided with the first edition of the "Ils of Life," sent free by the Peruna Co., Columbus, Ohio.

Any Time—Post Toasties

These Superior Corn Flakes are not only a delicious breakfast food—they make an appetizing lunch at any hour of the day.

And how the kiddies do enjoy them! After play time—for lunch or supper—the crinkly brown flakes just hit the spot.

Post Toasties are made of choicest selected Indian Corn; steam-cooked, daintily seasoned, rolled and toasted to a delicate golden-brown.

Post Toasties reach you all ready to serve—just add cream or milk. Little or no sugar is required as pure sugar is cooked in. Also mighty good with any kind of fruit. Ask your Grocer.

Post Toasties—the Superior Corn Flakes