PIONEER ARDMORE CITIZEN

Jos. S. Moody is Stricken With Death Without a Moment's Warning.
At 5:30 o'clock Friday evening, Jos. S. Moody, while engaged in repairing a buggy shaft at the blacksmith shop of N. E. Little on North Commerce street, was stricken with heart failure and died instantly.
The deceased had been a sufferer from heart disease for some years, but recently had not been bothered seriously with that affliction, and some days ago he had engaged in the blacksmithing work with Mr. Little, and seemingly was enjoying the work most agreeably, and was apparently regaining his former strength.
The deceased was born in Monroe county, Kentucky, July 29, 1846, and moved to Texas when 16 years old and settled in McKinney, where he married in 1865. He resided also in Sherman, Abilene, Gainesville, and moved to Ardmore, Oklahoma, when that town was first started, residing there many years. For some time past he had been making his home in this city with his son, Lee Moody, at 1102 East Pocom street. His wife died in this city several months ago, and he is survived by three children, son Lee M. Moody, and daughters, Mrs. W. E. McLamore and Mrs. W. B. Kinne, all of this city.
The funeral was held this afternoon from the residence of Mr. Lee M. Moody, Rev. Holmes, pastor of the Denton Street Christian church officiating, and Geo. J. Carroll, funeral director. The pallbearers were: Dr. C. R. Johnson, Louis House, D. C. Tranter, Tom Cheaney, J. L. Simpson and Edgar Turner. The interment took place in Fairview cemetery.
The deceased is survived by two brothers, Frank Moody of Douglas, Arizona, older than the deceased, and E. C. Moody of Hewitt, Okla.
Capt. Jos. S. Moody had many friends in Gainesville and elsewhere, many of whom had known him since the early pioneer days of Texas. He was a loyal friend and most companionable fellow citizen, liberal-minded, and an honest, upright man, worthy the respect and admiration of his fellow men wherever he chanced to meet them. The bereaved son, daughters and grandchildren and other relatives have the loyal sympathy of their hosts of friends and neighbors in this their hour of sadness and deep grief over the loss of their loving parent and devoted kinsman.—Gainesville Register.

SEES MUCH WORK AHEAD FOR COMING CONGRESS
Washington, Nov. 15.—On December 6 congress will be reconvened in what promises to be one of the most important and interesting sessions ever held. The stand taken by William Jennings Bryan in opposition to the plans of the administration for national preparedness, it is expected, will add zest to the proceedings, as will the fight for cloture in the senate, which is being led by Senator Owen of Oklahoma. Unless cloture is adopted, congress will likely be in continuous session during the sixty-fourth congress. Rural credits, the repeal of the seaman's law, river and harbor improvements, and many matters of country-wide importance will be discussed at the coming session of congress.
Indian matters, it is also expected, will take up much of the time of congress. Efforts will be made to change the department regulations to govern the releasing of the Osage nation for oil and gas purposes, attempts will be made to have congress permit the leasing of restricted Indian oil lands without reference to the 4,800-acre limitations, controversies over oil allotments in the Creek nation will be aired, and a reorganization of the Indian bureau by the creation of a non-partisan commission, may be provided for.
The Choctaw and Chickasaw per capita payment fights will be renewed and will still be opposed by members of the Mississippi congressional delegation, who are still insisting upon the recognition of several thousand Mississippi Choctaws, who failed to participate in the division of lands and monies belonging to the Oklahoma Choctaws. A per capita payment of $200 to the Choctaws and $100 to the Chickasaws will be asked, and it is almost certain to precipitate another long, bitter fight in both the senate and house, and may again end in the failure to pass an Indian appropriation bill, as last year, when Senator Gronna of North Dakota talked the measure to death in the closing hours of the sixty-third session of congress.

Beware of Cheap Substitutes
In these days of keen competition it is important that the public should see that they get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and not take substitutes sold for the sake of extra profit. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has stood the test and been approved for more than forty years. Obtainable everywhere.

A number of French cities, owing to the scarcity of coin, have, with the sanction of the government, issued bank notes for a franc (20 cents) and half a franc. Now the town of Epernay, in the Champagne district, has issued a note of 25 centimes, or 5 cents.
Governor Strong of Alaska reports that the white population of the territory is estimated at 29,000, an increase of 3,000 over last year's estimate. The area is 590,884 square miles, and the density of the population at the last federal census was one inhabitant to ten square miles of area.
Policemen of Berkeley, Cal., are to be required to attend the University of California. This will be the first college-bred police department in the country. The course of study is in the relation of mental disease to criminology, which study, it is thought will aid the policeman in sizing up his man.

TAKE THIS MAN'S ADVICE
Try the Great Kidney Remedy
It always gives me pleasure to recommend anything that is right and so I feel it my duty to herald the praises of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.
For years I was troubled with kidney disease and it was so intense that I was bedridden for days at a time. I gave up all hope and doctors for miles around gave me no help. Incidentally I tried several patent remedies and at last tried Swamp-Root. From the first it gave me relief and it was no time before I was able to be up and around and now I am perfectly well and able to work as I used to before my terrible sickness.
So now let me thank you for your wonderful discovery and take this opportunity to recommend it to all who suffer from kidney troubles.
Yours very truly,
WALTER SHIVER,
217 N. Main St. Hope, Ark.
