The days are slipping softly by and our beautiful May is about to say farewell. How much gladness she has brought this year, and last year, and all the years before! Even before the name of May was given her, May, the warm hearted, sympathetic month that brings flowers for all. If you but take the time to stroll through the shaded woodlands and commune with nature and with nature's God, who is not overwhelmed with the presence of a Supreme Omnipotence? Can the grandest edifice that even human hands created or the greatest sermon conceived in the mind of man point with a more direct finger than does the thrill of the bird or the blooming of the wild flower to an ever loving God. Those who have been so unfortunate as to have lived in crowded cities all their lives have not had the pleasures and blessings derived from a quiet stroll through the woods in the lovely month of May, especially in a retrospective mood when all nature seems to be in time with the Infinite, when the very soul seems almost to burst its prison house of clay and ascend to its Maker. I have in mind one such day years ago in another state, after a downpour of rain one Sunday morning. The afternoon brought a cessation, but not sunshine, when several who were bound together by ties of love motored to a church far removed from the hustle and bustle of a noisy city, and behind the church was the silent city of the dead, where a new made mound of an infant pointed with mute finger the road to the higher and better life. Greater than any sermon preached from any pulpit was the one the primitive surroundings of that place bore in its message to the awakened soul. All within and around seemed to proclaim the presence of God, for "Your voiceless lips, O flower, are living preachers. Each cup a pulpit, and each leaf a book, Supplying to my fancy numerous teachers, From loneliest nook, and it was May." Miss Jenyl Dunbar of St. Jo, Tex., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. O. W. Wood. Miss Helen Walcott has returned from Birmingham, Ala., where she attended the Confederate Reunion. Miss Anne Anderson, a student at Norman, is at home for the week-end with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Cox. Miss Clara Mansfield, who has been teaching here, left yesterday for her home in Oklahoma City. The Carter Avenue Missionary Society will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. James Britton, C street. Miss Foy Whitehurst has gone to Sherman, Texas, to be present at the marriage of Miss Una May Dial to Mr. John Kinkade of Madill. The ladies of the Broadway Methodist church will take Tuesday for visiting day, instead of the regular meeting. Miss Mabel Marlow of Birmingham, Ala., will arrive today to be the guest of her cousins, Misses Marie and Corinne West. The Baptist Young Ladies' Aid Society will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Campbell, 25 Fourth avenue, northwest. Division of the Broadway Baptist church will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. B. Horton, G street, northwest. The children's auxiliary of the Carter avenue church will hold a parcel post sale Monday evening at the church. Everyone cordially invited. Miss Marie West is expected home on Tuesday from Tuskaoma, where she has been visiting for several weeks. Miss Mattie Clare Gano will leave this week for her home in Guthrie. Miss Gano spent the winter with her sister, Mrs. Fred Tucker, and taught in the Second ward school. Mrs. R. Helbach of 514 McLish avenue will be hostess for the Thursday Forty-Two Club this week. Members are requested to telephone the hostess. One of the pre-nuptial events for

Miss Beatrice von Keller will be the early part of this week, when Mrs. B. A. Simpson and Mrs. R. P. Poland will give a garden party at the home of the latter.

Mr. G. W. Tallaferro is here visiting his brother, W. D. Tallaferro. He will return home in a few days accompanied by his two daughters, Misses Thelma and Mary. Miss Thelma has spent the winter here attending high school.

A number of Ladies of the Leaf, a former club, have been considering the organization of a study club, and all members of same and the Browning Club, who would be interested in a study class, are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. H. C. Potter, 328 G street, Friday afternoon, to organize such a class.

On Wednesday, May 31, St. Agnes convent pupils will give an operetta on the lawn of the convent, which promises to be very entertaining from every standpoint. The following is a partial program of the entertainment: Comic Duet; Fairy Play; Solo and Operetta.

A merry crowd of young people took dinner at the Rod and Gun Club Friday evening and enjoyed the beautiful surroundings of the club house. In the party were: Messrs. Lacy, Dillingham, King, Spragins, Schoonmaker, and Misses Anne Thompson, Ruby Randol, Mary Jarrett, Mattie Clare Gano, and Helen Walcott.

Mrs. L. W. Cruce was hostess on Friday to a number of friends at the Dornick Hills Country Club, honoring Mrs. A. F. Jones of Phoenix, Ariz. A huge bouquet of sweet peas adorned the table from which a lovely one o'clock luncheon was served. The ladies enjoyed the day with needlework, and such amusement as the surroundings afforded.

Mrs. C. P. Houck entertained the United Daughters of the Confederacy Monday afternoon from 3 to 5, in honor of Mrs. J. F. McKelvey, an honored club member who is moving to Ardmore next month. The house was beautifully decorated in cut flowers and ferns. The afternoon was delightfully spent in playing progressive forty-two. Two beautiful handmade pieces were given as prizes.—Shawnee News-Democrat.

The Presbyterian Missionary Society will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Geo. Ramsey, who will be leader of the meeting. The program will be as follows: Music. Devotional exercises led by Mrs. Ramsey. Subject: Japan, "Japanese Immigration and Our Relations With Japan," Mrs. Burnitt; "Is Japan Achieving Righteousness? Some of the Helpers in the Work," Mrs. E. B. Pugh. Mrs. Homer Adams will render a solo. "Social Service in Japan," Miss Mollie Peel; "Orientals in the United States—(a) Transformation of Japanese Women; (b) Children of the Orient in Occidental Schools," Mrs. Sam Noble.

Among the pleasures of the past week was the luncheon given Tuesday by the retiring officers of the Second Ward Mothers' club to the teachers. The silver tea given at the home of Mrs. Robert Gillam Wednesday, the loving cup presented by Mrs. Julius Kahn to the Third ward school; the ladies of the Episcopal church gave a picture show party for convocation delegates; the Ferndale Review Club met with Mrs. F. E. Watson for an instructive study on "Our American Woman"; The Philharmonic Club held a meeting at the home of Mrs. J. R. Pennington and closed a contract for two well known singers to come to Ardmore the coming season.—Royal Dadmun and May Peterson, both famous in their line; on Thursday Mrs. J. M. Baird entertained the Wednesday and Thursday Forty-Two Clubs; Friday Miss Hal Fraley entertained with a progressive bridge luncheon of beautiful appointments for Miss von Keller; Mmes. Wirt Franklin and J. S. Downard entertained with a dinner at Chickasaw lake for Bishop Brooke and Rev. F. P. Keicher.

One of the most enjoyable events of the week among the young set was the bridge luncheon given Friday by Miss Hal Fraley at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lee Tyler, complimenting Miss Beatrice von Keller, a bride-elect. The luncheon was a progressive one, consisting of four courses. Four tables, representing the four seasons of the year, were effectively used in the arrangements. The first table, representing June, was artistically decorated with a diminutive bride, surrounded with roses, where the first course was served. Then followed autumn, with a huge bowl of fruit. Winter was represented with a tiny Christmas tree, and spring with lovely daisies and other lovely spring flowers. The afternoon was spent in playing bridge

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, South Bend, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child—the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.
