Ardmore, Wednesday, June 21, 1916

Profits come only to the man who has courage to invest.

Ardmore has an opportunity now to consider the proposition made by former Mayor R. W. Dick.

What effect an ignorant prejudiced press can have upon a country, is being demonstrated now in Mexico.

A company has been organized to build country roads with Ardmore asphalt. That will call for a state speed law.

One hundred thousand dollars' worth of Ardmore property changed hands in three days. Somebody is making money out of city realty.

If you can imagine how a Zeppelin would look to a Southsea Island, you will have an idea of how an armored motor car will look to the peons of Mexico.

The Gypsy fortune-teller who entered the Express office lost Col. Wyatt's trade when she approached him and said, "Show me your hand, Papa." Package, in Chickasha Express.

When the Mexicans girls who are armed for defense, set eyes on these Oklahoma National Guards, they will want to fall into the hands of the invading hosts from the north.

Mexico could in all probability be conquered without the loss of an American and without staining Old Glory in Mexican blood, by shutting out food and ammunition.

"I take orders only from my government," were Pershing's words when he was ordered to move in no other direction except north. That sentence may live along with the words of Lawrence, "Don't Give Up the Ship."

Leading Progressives in Grady county announce publicly their intention to support Woodrow Wilson. As the Palmer-Buckner bunch never returned to democracy, so will the progressives never return to the republicans.

Ansel Earp has been appointed by Gov. Williams as adjutant general of the state. Ansel is a good boy, and the home folks are all for him. It is evident that the governor is making preparations for war.

Luther Harrison, editor of the We-woka Democrat is left alone with the devil. He had three men helping him publish his paper, but they were all members of the National Guard, and have been called to the colors.

The Strong Withstand the Heat of Summer Better Than the Weak

SUNDAY GETS $32,000 FROM KANSAS CITY

BIG REVIVAL CLOSES — EIGHTY THOUSAND GO TO TABERNACLE FOR FAREWELL — DOES NOT ASK FOR MONEY.

Attendance at each of the four meetings yesterday and last night, 29,000. Total for the day, 80,000.

Converts—Morning 447; 1 p. m., 450; 3 p. m., 352; last night, 861; total for day, 2,110; grand total, 20,635. Money raised during the campaign for current expenses, $43,000; money raised yesterday as free will offering for Billy Sunday, $32,000. A check for that amount was presented to the evangelist at the close of last night's meeting by Colonel Fred Fleming, chairman of the finance committee.

The cash collection dropped into the basins at the tabernacle during the four meetings broke all records. It amounted approximately to $19,000. The largest previous collection was at Pittsburgh, Pa., which was $9,000 on the last day.

With sobs and cheers the greatest religious revival Kansas City has ever known was brought to a close last night. During the day 80,000 persons at different times had packed the tabernacle.

At each gathering there was constantly increasing evidence of heart strings straining under the pressure of the impending parting. Here and there in the immense throngs women and men pressed handkerchiefs to their eyes.

For Kansas City has been stirred to its depths by the seven weeks of talking and thinking about Billy and Ma, Rody and the other members of the Sunday party. The Sunday farewell was as characteristic as the Sunday sermons. Billy delivered the benediction mounted on the stand over which he had been shooting his verbal line drives.

"Goodby," he shouted. "Don't any of you write a letter to me, for I'm not going to see a letter this summer. I'm going to rest."

The announcement was met by a tremendous shout and the waving of a wilderness of handkerchiefs. Sobs mingled with other sounds uttered by a multitude making its final indorsement of a work it considered well done.

The entire Sunday party stood together on the platform during the last minutes of the revival. The audience sang, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and the Sunday party returned with "When, at Last, We Say Goodby." Then they joined in "The Old Time Religion."

Did Not Ask For Money.

Contrary to the underground rumors originating no one knows where, Sunday made no personal appeal for generosity yesterday. Instead he repeatedly told his congregations that they did not owe him a cent.

"Whatever you give," he declared, "will be free will. But remember—there is no debt—none whatever. I want you to understand that thoroughly."

Billy Gets $32,000 Check.

The finance committee, however, had been busy circulating envelopes for more than a week and these came fluttering in by thousands when the little tin collection pans were passed. At each service a gunny sack was filled to the brim with them. The check for $32,000, which finally was handed to the evangelist, was entirely satisfactory, exceeding the amount anticipated. It was a much bigger sum, in proportion to the population, than was given Sunday by the people of Baltimore last spring.

"Farewell, people of Kansas City," he concluded, "I am free from your blood. I have done all I could but I could not compel you to accept Jesus. What happens now is up to you." Local Church Members Slow.

"If you church people had helped several weeks ago as you have the last week we would have done even better," he said. "In most cities it has been hard to wake up the church members to a realization of the necessity of their help, but it has been particularly hard in Kansas City."

"Jesus," he prayed, "I am all through. We have come to the time we dreamed and we must part with much ground remaining to be covered. Many men and women in this crowd tonight are putting off what they should do tonight—accept Christ for their Savior and guide. But, Jesus, I can do no more. It is for them to say now."

Why are SWEET CAPS smoked in every civilized country on the globe? BY JUPITER You'll be interested in the actual burning tests by which our demonstrators are proving the purity of SWEET CAPORAL Cigarettes. SWEET CAPORAL

Then there are the big crowds which have come to this tabernacle day after day. We thank Thee for that, too. There are countless other blessings that Thou hast given us, and for all these we are deeply grateful. Now, Jesus, I've done all I can, Amen."

When all the ceremonies and farewells were over, Sunday walked unsteadily from the platform with tears streaming from his eyes and was assisted out of the building.—Kansas City Journal.

Forethought.

People are learning that a little forethought often saves them a big expense. Here is an instance: E. W. Archer, Caldwell, Ohio, writes: "I do not believe that our family has been without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since we commenced keeping house years ago. When we go on an extended visit we take it with us." Obtainable everywhere.

Church of Christ.

In apostolic days people were interested in the question, "What must I do to be saved?" Tonight, Mr. Armstrong will answer that question purely from a bible viewpoint. Thursday evening he will speak on the theme "Missionary Work" and when you shall have heard him, you will know he believes in this work.

Last evening two queries were asked him: "If you speak where the bible speaks, and there is nothing said about instrumental music, why do you condemn it?" "Is it not a fact that the only difference in the first Christian church and your teaching is instrumental music?" These questions will be answered Friday evening.

Three noble young hearts obeyed their Lord in Baptism yesterday. Why not hear these vital subjects? We will appreciate our presence at each. Everybody welcome. REPORTER.

ANCEL EARP OF ARDMORE ADJT. GENERAL OF OKLAHOMA

Oklahoma City, June 20.—Preparation of the mobilization camp at the fair grounds here occupied attention of local militiamen today. Orders were sent by the chief of staff to all companies to mobilize here as soon as they are recruited to strength, and transportation supplied by the headquarters officers, movement may begin tomorrow.

Governor Williams today announced the appointment of Major Ansel Earp of Ardmore to be adjutant general, effective July 1.

If all the companies secure needed recruits the mobilization camp will contain 1,000 men. It is expected that they will remain in camp from one to three months.

Employers generally in Oklahoma have agreed to hold their places open for members of the militia and some are intending to pay the men all or part of their wages while they are with the colors. The Magnolia Petroleum company gave out that positions vacated by enlistments would be open at all times for enlisted employees. It is said the Magnolia company has directed that every employe going with the guard or enlisting in defense of his country shall be paid during his absence and that his position shall be given him on his return.

ORDER RELEASE OF GERMAN

The Charges of Neutrality Violation Are Dropped. Washington, June 21.—Chief Beilski of the department of justice bureau of investigation, telegraphed the El Paso agent to drop charges against Frederick Giese, the German banker of Mexico City, who was detained for alleged attempts to violate the neutrality laws. An investigation convinced the officials that there has been no violations. It was said that he had been connected with the spreading of anti-American propaganda throughout Mexico.
