Contenders for the Heavy-weight Championship of the Southwest

JACK HEMPEL

TEXAS TATE

Texas Tate will have the battle of his gay young career when he hooks up with Jack Hempel of California at Ardmore August 1.

This sturdy ringster from the golden west is rapidly rounding into such form as will enable him to step ten rounds on high. He has made many friends among the fans who witness his daily workouts, by his apparent sincerity of purpose, for notwithstanding the terrific heat, he carries his sparring partners along without let-up.

Many who have seen Hempel work do not hesitate to express the opinion that he will come very near stopping anyone if he lands his left on the spot. Champion Willard declares that Hempel carries one of the most dangerous southpaws he has ever seen in action; therefore Mr. Tate should be prepared, as he undoubtedly will be. Tate arrived in Ardmore Friday and went into training at the Ardmore Athletic Club rooms.

On account of a bad arm, Frankie Manilla will be unable to go on in the prelims, and Manager Edwards has secured Otto Wallace to box with Frankie Sanders.

Johnny's Manners.

Where the carefully trained child learn bad manners is a standing mystery to its watchful parents. These anxious rearers of the young are often heard pronouncing this query, but generally without result. Once in a while, however, out of the deep silence comes an illuminating answer.

Johnny furnished one just the other day. He had just finished a particularly toothsome dish of apple pudding, which he ate to the last morsel. Then, despite the fact that there was company at the table, he deliberately picked up his saucer and licked it

SPEED WORSHIP IS A DISEASE.

Like Booze Habit, Craving for Fast Driving Grows on Victim.

The reckless speeder responsible for the San Bruno motor car tragedy in which four persons were killed has gone to his account. Having paid his penalty in full, it is not fitting to add anything in the way of rebuking criticism, and yet the incident serves to raise the question as to whether the law should prohibit confirmed speed maniacs from taking charge of a machine.

It is certainly not enough to fine men guilty of furious driving. In most cases they are in a position to pay the assessment and give the matter no further thought. Speed worship is as much a disease as alcoholomania, with which it is very often linked, and just as the confirmed drunkard cannot be cured by fines, so is the confirmed speeder as little affected by similar punishment. The only thing to be done with the habitual racer is to make it a criminal offense for him to drive a car.

If the speeders only killed themselves the law should endeavor to prevent their suicide, but when, as so often happens, they kill the innocent, it is the duty of society to see that they are suitably restrained.

Instead of being a pleasure to drive out on a Sunday it has become a hazardous adventure, from which the cautious are inclined to withdraw.

One would imagine that the ever increasing list of tragedies would serve as a warning to the reckless, but when the speed fiend is at the wheel away go experience, common sense and every other restraint. Like excessive drinking, the speed craving grows by what it feeds on, and from the mania for passing other motor cars it extends to madness of challenging locomotives even on their own rails.—San Francisco Chronicle.

The Risorgimento.
 The Italian word, "risorgimento" means literally "rising again." In some of its verb forms the word is seen to be cognate with our "resurrect." In Italian history the meaning of the word, for which you especially require, is the rebirth or remaking of the Italian nation. It thus covers the period of revolt from Austrian domination and establishment of the present kingdom—the risorgimento was the formation of united Italy. It began in 1831, when Mazzini founded "young Italy." The influential paper which Cavour edited in the stirring mid-century was called Il Risorgimento.

FATIMA
 A Sensible Cigarette

Here's cigarette-comfort

FATIMA may never become the only cigarette smoked by keen, substantial men of this type. But Fatima has already become more popular with such men than almost any other cigarette.

This is because men who smoke wisely want a SENSIBLE cigarette—a cigarette that is comfortable to the tongue and throat and that leaves a man feeling "fit" and clear-headed even after smoking more often than usual. You should try Fatimas.
