PARTY TOGS.

Not for just plain school days, but for festivals, is this garment so becoming to the growing girl. King's blue velvet buttoned on the left side and demi-belted, with skunk bands on the collar and cuffs, is what gives the result. The hat is also blue velvet with a silver buttonball and a sprig of leaves squarely in front.

day and will have charge of the millinery department at Madden's this season.

Miss Helen Sayre had as luncheon guests at the Country Club Saturday noon Mrs. John Nichols, the Misses Elise Potterf, Georgia Simpson, Mary Jarrett. Before luncheon was served the party enjoyed a swim.

Little Miss Katherine Louise Poland was hostess to about twelve friends last evening when she celebrated her fifth birthday from 5 to 7 o'clock at her home, 218 D, southwest.

The Woman's Missionary Society of Carter Avenue church will meet with Mrs. Bob Rogers, at her home, 225 E, southeast, Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Cards have been received announcing the birth of a little girl to Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Daly of Dallas, Tex. Mrs. Daly will be remembered as Miss Madge Roberts, who resided here at one time, and hosts of friends join in the congratulations being sent.

Mrs. F. Larsen and daughters, Misses Susie and Lulu, of Galveston, are spending a few days here with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fink, 152 A, northwest. Mrs. Larsen and daughters are en route home from Denver, Colo., where they spent several months.

Guests at the Chickasaw Lake Friday evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Max Whittington and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hamilton. Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Alf Wolverton, children, and Mrs. Wolverton's mother, Mrs. Whaley of Gainesville were guests at six o'clock dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Donnes, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Pauline, left yesterday for the eastern markets, where they will purchase fall goods. They will make stops in Chicago, New York City, Washington and other places of interest in the east.

Mr. Charles Anderson entertained Friday evening at the Country Club with a swimming party the Misses Anne Thompson, Elizabeth Myers, Sadie Hard, Messrs. Gordon Gano and Bert Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scott and daughter Bessie of Paoli passed through here Friday en route to Woodford, where they will visit some time with Mr. and Mrs. Eow Taylor and family. While here they were guests of Mrs. J. A. Bivens, and upon their return home they will spend several days with her.

Mr. Earl Q. Gray had as guests at the Country Club Friday night Mr. and Mrs. Eaton of Lincoln, Neb., Mr. R. A. Conkling, the Roxana's geologist of Tulsa, and Mr. E. C. Gray of Higgins, Texas. The party remained at the club Friday night and were served with breakfast Saturday morning.

Mrs. C. Nichols of Austin, Texas, left for her home yesterday noon, after spending some time here the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Nichols. While here Mrs. Nichols was entertained with several affairs given in her honor. En route home she will visit with friends in Fort Worth, Texas.

Mrs. W. F. Warren and children have returned from a visit of five days at Oil Springs, where they camped, and thoroughly enjoyed an old-time outing. Many tender memories cling about the springs for Mrs. Warren. She was reared there, and she and Mr. Warren were married there, and the early part of their married life was spent in that locality.

Mmes. A. J. Wolverton, Dean and Salter entertained informally Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Wolverton, complimentary to Mrs. I. C. Graham, wife of Rev. I. C.
