to go to Denver. But they found the roads so dusty and so full of cars that the trip was robbed of all its promised pleasure, and they came back several days before they expected to. They came by way of Sulphur and enjoyed a visit there.

Nat Curtis, who is employed as a druggist in Davis, was here yesterday visiting with his mother. Mr. Curtis is pleased with his new town, and says business is very good there.

A number of local Odd Fellows will go to Marietta this afternoon for a special meeting of the lodge there tonight. Among them will be Colonel Gregory of the Ardmore Statesman, who will deliver an address.

Mrs. Towell, who has been with Mrs. J. W. Potter in Colorado, has returned here. She left immediately for Monroe, La., in response to a message announcing the serious illness of her mother.

Max Westheimer and Sam Daube of this city and Simon Westheimer of Marietta have returned from a visit of about a month spent in the markets. These men were on their semi-annual purchasing trip for the Ardmore and Marietta stores.

J. R. Lickson is at home from a stay of two weeks in Denver, Colo. He reports a most pleasant trip. The Misses Dickson, who are spending the summer in Michigan, are expected to return home about the middle of September.

O. L. Dennes left here Sunday for the markets to make purchases for his fall and winter trade. Mr. Dennes says he has had the best year since he has been in Ardmore, and will purchase a big stock for the coming season.

Col. Graves Leeper returned here yesterday from Sulphur, where he has been spending several days. He reports that Sulphur has been crowded this year with summer guests, and that a delightful time was enjoyed by all of them.

Judge Tom Champion has contracted for repairs on his house necessitated by the recent fire. The judge says that his most serious loss was not covered by insurance, but he is thankful that his home was spared from the flames.

The county central committee will meet probably some day this week to plan for the coming campaign. Chairman Apple has not fixed a definite date yet, but will do so immediately and issue the call for the committeemen to gather here.

Jim Smith caught a six and one-half pound bass from the city lake yesterday afternoon, but he was aided and abetted by Monte Dillingham, who had to make a deep dive for the fish after the line became entangled near the bottom of the lake.

The Knights of Pythias Saxophone Sextette went to Fort Worth today to take part in a big booster smoker, which is being staged by the lodge there. Several local members will accompany the musicians on this trip.

Calvin Luther Herbert preached and sang at the Confederate Home Sunday evening. The veterans appreciated the interest taken in them by the young man and his words were received with close attention.

Prof. Reynolds returned this morning to Glenn, where he has one more week of summer school. He and his wife will spend the fall months here with Mrs. Herbert and will return to Glenn when the winter term opens.

Dr. H. A. Morgan is here from Antlers for treatment at the Hardy hospital. Dr. Morgan underwent an operation some time ago for appendicitis and left for Antlers, but the wound necessitated his return for a few days' treatment.

Fount Duston and wife and two daughters, Vivian and Doris, have returned from Regan, on the Pennington, where they visited the family of W. F. Freeman. While there they had a most delightful time and caught lots of fish out of the classic Pennington.

"Liberty" Scores at Theatorium.

Large crowds saw the first two episodes of "Liberty" which were shown at the Theatorium Saturday and yesterday. The opinion of those who saw it was that it is the best serial picture ever shown at this house. The picture abounds with thrilling action and the "stunts" pulled off by Marie Walcamp "daredevil of the films" and the star in this production, were little short of marvelous. A chapter of "Liberty" will be shown here each week on Sunday and Monday. The second chapter is shown again today and those who didn't have the opportunity to see it yesterday should do so today. Marie Walcamp will no doubt grow in popularity with "movie" fans as each chapter is shown for she is cast in this picture in a part just to her liking.

A College With a Motive

This is a day when those who attend school have some purpose. Do you look toward the professions?—A four-year classical course so closely affiliated with the great schools of theology, law, medicine, etc., that you may have one year can be had at Kendall. Do you look toward handicrafts?—Intensely practical courses in manual training, domestic science and arts, printing, type-writing, drawing, mechanical drawing, etc., can be had at Kendall. Do you look toward teaching?—Every course with every state certificate found in any state normal school will be given by Kendall. All credits made here good on county certificates. Two-year state certificate given after one year residence, after high school three and four-year course. Teachers normal college for degree in teaching demanded by most all high schools. Correspondence courses for teachers, reducing residence work and expenses to a minimum. Do you look toward specializing?—Specialization in primary, kindergarten, ministerial and community center work, in oil geology and petroleum industry, grammar grades, domestic science supervision, piano, voice, pipe organ, high school supervision, journalism, plays and games, agriculture, expression, oratory, public school, music supervision, hand work for primary bookkeeping, typewriting stenography, etc., offered under specialists at Kendall. Do you look toward the Arts?—This college leads in masterful instruction in piano, voice, violin, pipe organ, expression, oratory, debate, drawing, painting, public school music, domestic arts, etc. Expenses as low as anywhere in the state. The only school in Oklahoma with a loan fund for needy young men and women, and an education for a postage stamp. Use it in writing to Charles Evans, L.L. D., Tulsa, Okla.
