

Mrs. John Henderson and Miss Maye Gaines of Berwyn, were Ardmore visitors Friday on a shopping tour.

The Rev. F. Golden-Howes and wife have returned from a trip of six weeks, of which some time was spent in Arizona. En route home they visited in Chicago and Kansas City.

Mrs. A. J. Wolverton, accompanied by Misses Faye and Mabel Williams and Mr. S. Williams, left yesterday noon for Gainesville in response to a message notifying them of the death of their cousin and aunt, Mrs. Witherpoon, which occurred Friday. They will remain there to attend the funeral which will be held Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Felix King, his guest, Mr. Stone of Tennessee, the Misses Margaret and Florence Redfield, Minnie Stone, Mabel, Kate and Ruth Warren, Marie, Clemye and Christine King spent Thursday on Mr. King's Plainview farm, where fishing, swimming and boating were enjoyed on Mr. King's private lake. At the noon hour a big fish dinner was prepared camp style and in the late afternoon iced watermelons and other refreshments were served.

Miss Lucile Butler returned yesterday from Marietta, where she and Miss Nannie Mae Pace were guests of Miss Helen Keller. They were extended a number of interesting courtesies during their stay in the city. Among them were the Misses Zula Mae Davis and Helen Keller's 12 o'clock luncheon Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. J. Renfro's swimming party at the Rod and Gun Club Lake Thursday night, and a dance last night was in their honor, for which Miss Pace remained. She will return this noon.

The Elks gave an informal dance Friday evening at their home on Broadway and North Washington streets. Among those who attended were the Misses Jinks Ikard, Georgia Simpson, Marie West, Gladys Scivally, Charlotte Wall, Hal Fraley, Helen Walcott, Mary Boone, Jeanette Moore, Louise Love, Mary Jarrett, Lotie Bond, Eugenia Nivouche, Bunk Fraley, Italy Carter, Annie Anderson, Mrs. Pruitt, Messrs. Wagoner, Gene Cruce, McClain, Egan, Stone, Suggs, Porter, Drew, Hendon, Chadwick, Lane, Harreld, Mahoney, Griffith, Felker and Whitehurst.

Announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Miss Bertha Forbes, to Mr. W. Fain Freeman of Tulsa, Mrs. B. C. Forbes entertained Thursday with an afternoon party at her home on F street, southeast. The home was decorated with small sunflowers and ferns and at luncheon, which followed an afternoon spent informally, a yellow and white color scheme was carried out in the table decorations and appointments. Miss Forbes wore a beautiful dress of pink taffeta. Covers were laid for the hostess, honor guest, and the Misses Bessie Nichols, Ruth Parks, Jeanette Barringer, Grace Jones, Lucy Jones, Effie Pritchard of Duncan, Eula Roland, Grace Gilliam, Carrie Roland, Pearl Stearns, May Lebo and Willis Forbes. The marriage will be solemnized the afternoon of September 20 at the First Christian church.

ALBERTA S. MARONEY CHINA STUDIOS Teaching and Order Work With Miss Ryburn's Millinery Store

EATS-

We Serve What You Want When You Want 'Em.

California Cafe 15 East Main Street

The "Amoma" class of the South Ardmore Baptist Sunday School gave an all-day picnic Thursday at Hickory. Misses A. B. Hays and T. L. Holland were chaperons of the occasion. Members of the class who attended were the Misses Thelma and Vera Holland, Opal Berry, Belle Scott, Rachael Tillman. Additional guests were Mrs. Nell Robnett and Aylmer Hayes. On Friday evening at the home of their teacher, Mrs. A. B. Hays, 515 Carter Ave., the "Amoma" class gave a party at which time each member was permitted the privilege of inviting as their guest one friend. The home was attractively decorated with the class colors, gold and blue, and sun flowers were used as floral decorations in the dining room. In here the Misses Raebael Tillman and Lucile McCoy presided at the register book. An ice course was served to the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hays, the Misses Ala Mae Wilkes, Vera Holland, Thelma Holland, Gladys Gilliam, Belle Scott, Opal Berry, Esther Bishop, Ruby McNeil, Reta and Ruby Henson, Maggie Bishop, Eva Putnam, Nellie Mae Tillman, Pansy Petty, Vera Murphy, Jewel Parks, Thelma Starke, Bessie Nichols, Mattie Hays, Messrs Murphy, Criner, Thomas Weaver, and Aylmer Hays.

CHURCH SOCIETIES.

Circle No. 3 of the Broadway Methodist Church will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. Dean at the residence of Mrs. A. J. Wolverton, 813 Wolverton Street Northwest. All members are urgently requested to be present.

The Aid Society of Lawrence Chapel held a very interesting meeting with Mrs. W. M. Brown Tuesday afternoon. This society meets every two weeks and notice of next meeting will be announced later.

There will be a called meeting of the Jewish Ladies' Aid Society Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. William Newman, 410 West Main Street. This will be an important business meeting and every member is requested to be present.

The South Ardmore Baptist Aid Society held a most interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. T. L. Holland Tuesday afternoon. Their next meeting will be held at the church Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at which time business of importance will be discussed and all members are expected to be present.

The Woman's Missionary Society of Carter Avenue Church will meet at the home of Miss Ruth Parks, on D Street Southeast, at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Christian Church, Circle Number One, will meet at the home of Mrs. Rosa McLish, Fourth and I Southwest, next Tuesday afternoon. Following a business session of the society a social hour will be spent.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Christian Church, Circle Number Two, known as the Young Ladies' Aid, will be entertained by Mrs. Dr. H. S. Cox and Mrs. Paul Moehlmann next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dr. Cox.

Circle No. 4 of the Broadway Methodist Church will hold a meeting Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. R. W. Radol, 105 C Southwest. This will be the first meeting of the fall season and business of importance will be discussed. Every member is urged to be present.

Every member is urged to be present.

AT THE CHURCHES

Christian Science. Sunday service 11 a. m. Subject "Substance." Golden text, proverbs 22:4. Sunday school, 10 a. m. Wednesday evening testimonials, 8 p. m. Our church is on D and Broadway, N. W. All are invited to attend the services.

East Ardmore Presbyterian. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 8:15 p. m. At that time I will deliver my farewell address. Young peoples' meeting at 7:15 p. m. We expect everyone in vicinity to come for a great meeting. Sunday school at 10 a. m.

T. A. LAMPTON, Pastor. St. Philip's Episcopal Church. With the return of the rector the services will be resumed as usual. Holy communion will be celebrated on Sunday at 7:30 and morning prayer and bible class will be resumed, commencing promptly at 9:45. All children are urged to be present.

F. W. GOLDEN-HOWES, Rector. First Christian Church. Bible school, communion and preaching service 10:00 a. m. Subject of morning sermon, "Brotherly Love." Praise and preaching service 7:30 p. m. Subject of evening sermon, "What Must I Do to Be Saved?" Christian endeavor 6:30 p. m. All other regular services and engagements during the week. The music will consist of solos and anthems at both services. Our music alone is well worth your coming. Our house was almost full last Sunday but a still larger attendance is expected to hear the sermons on the above topics. Everybody welcome.

J. W. BUINS, Minister.

The Broadway Baptist Church. After an absence of six weeks during which he visited 8 states and Ontario, Canada, the pastor resumes his school meets at 9:30 a. m. The young people hold their meeting at 7 p. m. Public worship, conducted by the pastor, will be held at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. The subject of the morning sermon will be "A Timely Petition." The evening subject will be "The Peril of Privilege." There will be a reception of members both morning and evening. Sunday, Sept. 24, will be Rally Day in all departments of our church work. By unanimous vote last Wednesday night the church decided to conduct a two weeks' evangelistic campaign within the near future, the exact time to be announced later. Please remember that we are "The Church of the Warm Welcome" and give to all a most cordial greeting who desire to worship with us.

Broadway Methodist Church. Last Sunday was a banner day at Broadway. Large audiences increased attendance at Sunday school, much interest. But we want next Sunday to be better still. Our motto is: "better and better." Let the membership all try to attend. Subject of morning sermon, "The Dignity and Royalty of Manhood." Subject of evening sermon, "Left Handed Men." This sermon lecture should be of interest to both lefthanded and righthanded folks, especially the young men and women of the city. From this on the Sunday evening subjects will be of special interest. We hope for large audiences. However we can not complain for our audiences have held up remarkably well. Broadway specializes in good music. Our choir is reorganizing for the best work ever. Everybody wanted at Broadway.

The First Presbyterian Church. Public worship will be held at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. Meeting of session at 10:45 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Come and worship with us. CHAS. C. WEITH, Pastor.

Carter Avenue Methodist. Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. Epworth League at 7 p. m. Preaching by the pastor at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

We are expecting the largest Sunday School attendance of the year today, also large congregations at both the preaching services. The attendance at these services will furnish some evidence of the results of the revival which closed last Sunday night.

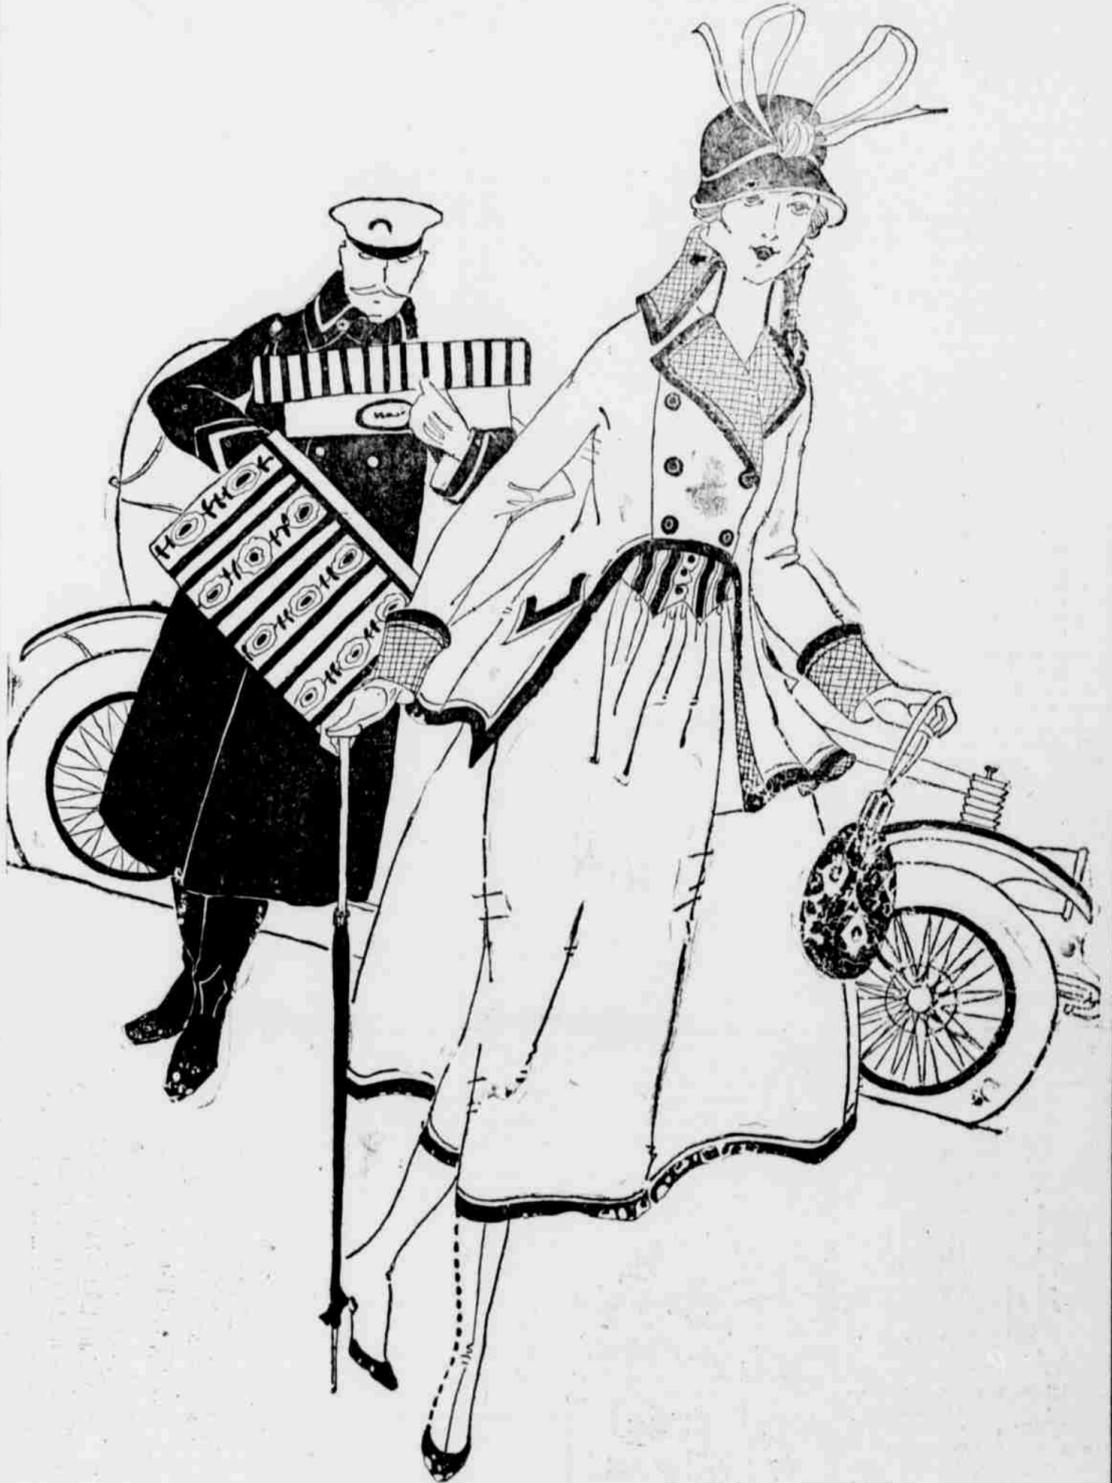

Every member of the church who can possibly do so, should be present and the public is cordially invited to worship with us.

W. T. FREEMAN, Pastor.

Announcement.

Miss Anne D. Thompson announces her fall term of piano teaching. Phone 314.

FALL SHOWING

Presenting the Premier Modes In Coats, Suits, Costumes, Dresses and Blouses

New models, copies of imported designs, including leading American ideas, the acme of smartness, with a variety of the conservative models, offers a most interesting showing. A number of new garments are expected for our special STYLE SHOW WEDNESDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER THIRTEEN.

You are invited to view the season's offering, as we will have displayed on living models some of our smartest designs and most interesting garments. We promise a very interesting collection of smart ideas.

OPEN HOUSE FROM SEVEN-THIRTY TO TEN

Make engagements to meet your friends here Wednesday evening.

G. M. Henley SMART WEAR FOR WOMEN