The Austrians made a counter attack, but Petrograd asserts that they were repulsed with a loss of sixteen hundred prisoners.

On the Somme front, Paris says, there have been only local operations in progress, although the French took one trench and some prisoners there.

BEGINNING FOR THE NEXT STATE FAIR

COUNTY AGENT SAYS THAT HE HAS LEARNED BY HIS FIRST EXPERIENCE WHAT IT TAKES TO BRING HOME THE PRIZES.

Carl Russell, county demonstration agent, who had charge of the Carter County exhibit at the state fair, returned this morning and reports a splendid fair. This was Mr. Russell's first experience in charge of an exhibit at the state fair and he says he has a full idea of just what this county must do to get the prize next year, and that he will begin early and work to that end. "We did not have enough stuff," said Mr. Russell, "otherwise we would have reached a higher mark. The quality of Carter County product ranked high and for general appearance of our exhibit we were only a few points behind the prize winner. We must make the state and county fair two separate issues next year, and I think that if we are all living and on the job, that Carter County will not have any apology to make. As it is, when we consider how much of our time was necessary to line up the first county fair, I think we did well and as I said, only lacked quantity, as the quality was there."

P. C. DINGS REMOVED TO TEMPLE TEX.

DR. A. C. SCOTT CALLED HERE IN CONFERENCE YESTERDAY. DENNY FITZGERALD ACCOMPANIED MR. DINGS.

The friends of P. C. Dings will regret that he is not doing as nicely as they hoped for. Mr. Dings was ill last winter and he and Mr. Simpson spent several weeks on the coast of Texas. During the summer they were in Michigan together and Mr. Dings was very sick there for several days. After returning here he resumed business at his office but became ill again. Dr. A. C. Scott, of Temple, Texas, was called in consultation here yesterday and he directed that Mr. Dings be taken to his hospital in Temple. Dr. Scott and D. C. Fitzgerald accompanied Mr. Dings from here. Dr. Scott has a private hospital at Temple that has every equipment and he is one of the most noted physicians and surgeons of the south. Mr. Dings' friends are very hopeful that with complete rest at Temple he will soon be restored to perfect health. Mr. Dings has been a very busy man. His bank has grown in deposits from a small sum to more than a million. He has been very active in the oil business and has kept in close touch with every phase of the situation. The work has been too much for one man to do. He has been depended upon for too much and his kindness and his desire to accommodate other men has led him to do more than he had strength to perform without injury to himself. In addition to his work as president of the Guaranty State Bank he is also an active member of the state banking board.

HARDWARE MEN WAGER

John B. Alexander of Marietta Must Vote for Woodrow Wilson
W. W. Clemens, hardware merchant and democrat of Ardmore, and John B. Alexander, hardware merchant and republican of Marietta, were state fair visitors last week. Incidentally they met and made the rounds together. They sat in the grandstand during the best race period of the fair. Both of them love good horses and both are pretty fair judges of fleet animals. In one of the big races each man picked his pony and the next thing was a banter for a wager. It was finally agreed that if Alexander's horse won, Clemens' choice of ponies won Alexander was to vote for Wilson.

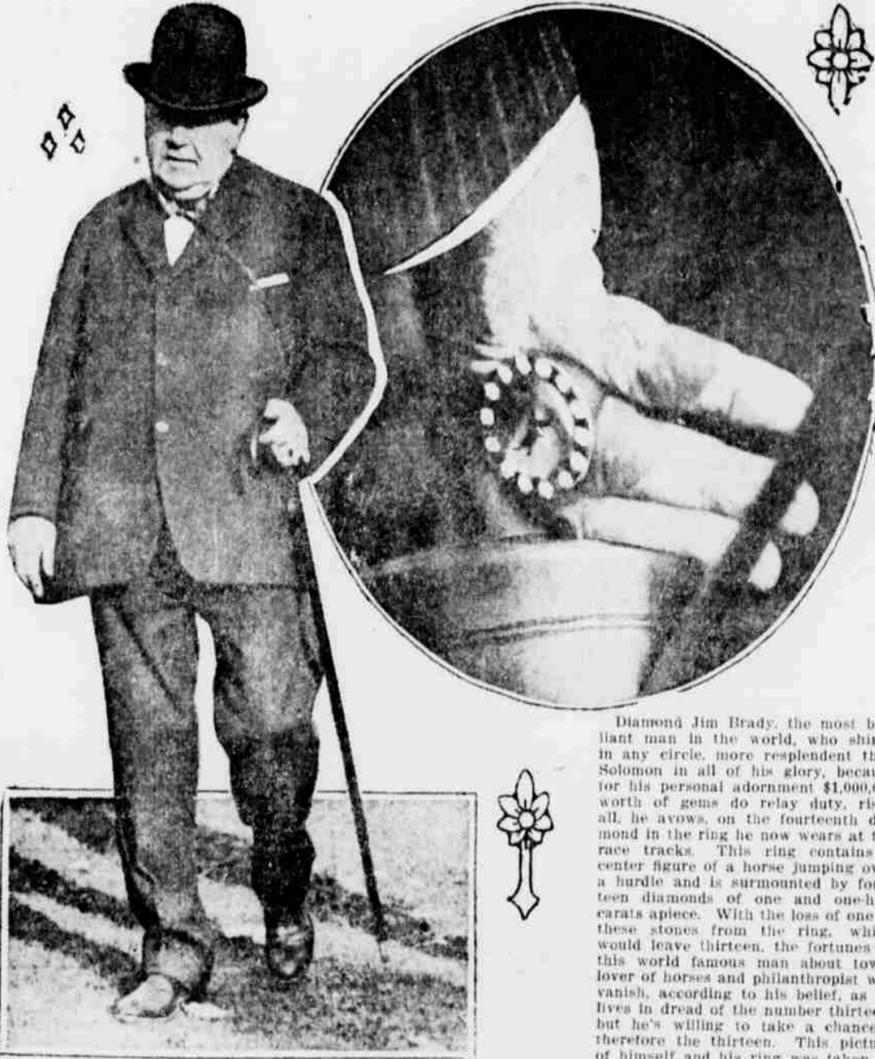

The result:
Clemens' horse won. Alexander is pledged to vote for Woodrow Wilson.

Fishermen are taking large numbers of perch and sturgeon from the city lake with almost any kind of tackle and bait. The fish seem to be hungry, and are willing biters.

WEATHER FORECAST

DIAMOND JIM BRADY RISKS ALL ON ONE STONE; LUCK GOES WITH SPARKLER FOURTEEN IN RING

DIAMOND JIM BRADY AND HIS RING

Diamond Jim Brady, the most brilliant man in the world, who shines in any circle, more resplendent than Solomon in all of his glory, because for his personal adornment $1,000,000 worth of gems do relay duty, risks all he avows, on the fourteenth diamond in the ring he now wears at the race tracks. This ring contains a center figure of a horse jumping over a hurdle and is surmounted by fourteen diamonds of one and one-half carats apiece. With the loss of one of these stones from the ring, which would leave thirteen, the fortunes of this world famous man about town, lover of horses and philanthropist will vanish, according to his belief, as he lives in dread of the number thirteen, but he's willing to take a chance—therefore the thirteen. This picture of himself and his ring was taken at the United Hunts meet at Belmont Park race track.

GREAT SHOW BEGINS THIS AFTERNOON

SCHOOLS DISMISS AT 2:30 AND THE CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS MARCH IN BODY, "BATTLE CRY OF PEACE" AT THE PALACE.

"The Battle Cry of Peace" is here today. The show began at 2:00 o'clock this afternoon at the Palace. Supt. C. W. Richards dismissed the schools at 2:30 to give the children an opportunity to see this wonderful picture. Its influence is for peace and not for war. It is a wholesome picture and a very timely picture at this time in the United States.

The confederate soldiers who are inmates of the state home will meet in front of the Ardmore office at 2:45 this afternoon and will march in a body to the Palace Theater where they will see the show as the guests of the Ardmoreites.

"The Battle Cry of Peace" is heralded as a call to arms—not for war but for peace. It is designed to arouse in the heart of every American citizen a realization of his strict accountability to his country in time of need.

Scores of prominent Americans—in army, navy and administrative circles of the United States government have contributed to this great production. Notable among the sponsors and indorsers of the film are Dr. Lyman Abbott, former Secretary of War Garrison, Major General Leonard Wood and Admiral George Dewey.

In producing this picture the directors made use of a cast of 33,000 people, including principals, national guardsmen, etc. There are also 5,000 horses in the production, being the largest number ever used in a motion picture. Thousands of men, women and children are shown in the great panic which follows the bombardment of New York City by the enemy. A fleet of seventeen aeroplanes, a large

COTTON TAKES BIGGEST JUMP

OPENING GAME TO BE PLAYED IN BOSTON

NATIONAL LEAGUE WINNER IS STILL UNDECIDED BETWEEN THE BROOKLYN AND PHILADELPHIA TEAMS.

New York, Oct. 2.—It appears almost certain that the opening game of the world's series will be played in Boston on October 6 or 7, as the field is all ready.

Neither Philadelphia nor Brooklyn is justified, it is said, in building additional stands, in view of the closeness of the national league race.

VILLA TROOPS SUCCESSFUL LAST WEEK

IN BATTLE AT CUSHUIRIACIC, VILLA'S TROOPS WERE SUCCESSFUL AGAINST CARRANZA SOLDIERS.

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 2.—The Villistas were successful in their recent fight with the Carranza troops at Cushuiriacic last week, according to a report of General Bell at El Paso to the department headquarters here. Bell got his information from recent arrivals from the interior, whom he considered reliable.

HENRY FORD TELLS WILSON HE'S FOR HIM

AUTOMOBILE MANUFACTURER, ALTHOUGH LIFE LONG REPUBLICAN, WILL SUPPORT WILSON FOR RE-ELECTION.

Long Branch, N. J., Oct. 2.—Henry Ford, while lunching with President Wilson today, reiterated that he would support the president for reelection, although he has been a republican in the past.

number of armored motors, dreadnaughts, submarines, torpedo boats, etc. are used in this wonderful scene. It has been said by leading motion picture critics that the bombardment of New York is one of the most sensational scenes ever filmed. The heart of New York is shown at one of the city's busiest periods. Wall street is encrossed in the quotations of the day, great railway yards are crowded with the freight of a prosperous country, newsboys are yelling baseball extras and—

There is a flash from one of the coast defense disappearing guns. There is a reply from a battleship far out in the horizon and right in the middle of the Singer building is blown to pieces and crashes to the pavement.

Like so much sugar the most beautiful skyline in the world crumbles before the firing of a powerful enemy. Running through the film is a plot of exceptional worth and the various parts of the play are interpreted by a number of freedom's most noted stars. In building this massive play, the author has not overlooked a dash of comedy here and there. He plays a joke on the audience when he takes them for a trip down the chute-the-chute at Coney Island. The picture was taken from the front of the boat as it goes down the incline and when the water is struck the audience is bounced high into the air three times.

So realistic is this little joke of the author's that in many instances persons in the audience have been known to grab their seats to keep from being bounced into the water.
