WHO HANDLED THAT DAILY MAIL BOODLE?

BANKS UNDER PROBE—NO OTHER N. Y. PAPERS ARE INVOLVED

Washington, July 10.—Several banks and brokers are under investigation by the alien property custodian in an effort to trace the origin and handling of more than a million dollars paid the New York Evening Mail. All persons who participated in the transaction will be asked to tell what they know about it.

It is alleged that the German government became owner of the paper through Dr. Edward A. Rumely, now under arrest in New York on charges of perjury in connection with the statement made to the alien property custodian. Under the law the money involved in the sale can be seized by this government, if transfer was made after the United States went to war even though the money is now held by Americans.

Department of justice officials who directed the investigation which led to Dr. Rumely's arrest, said today they had found no evidence of a reported thirty million dollar German fund to buy American newspapers, and that so far as they know the Mail was the only paper the Germans took over.

PENROSE BALKS U. S. CONTROL OF TELEGRAPH AND PHONE SYSTEMS

Washington, July 10.—The house resolution authorizing the president to take over telegraph, telephone, cable and radio services during the war was formally reported to the senate today by Chairman Smith of the commerce committee, with the committee's favorable recommendation.

Senator Smith asked immediate consideration, but Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania objected and the resolution went to the calendar, with administration leaders considering an effort later to force it before the senate.

LAST HONORS PAID TO FORMER MAYOR JOHN PURROY MITCHELL

New York, July 10.—The gates of the city hall rotunda will swing open late this afternoon to New York citizens eager to pay homage to the late John Purroy Mitchell.

Throughout the night thousands are expected to file past the casket in which lies the body of their former mayor, killed while flying in army service.

The gates will be closed again tomorrow morning, and in the forenoon a civil and military procession containing many noted men will accompany the body to St. Patrick's cathedral for the funeral services.

Additional honorary pall bearers announced today included Col. Edward M. House.

DEAD IN WRECK NOW TOTAL 115

MORE THAN ONE HUNDRED HURT—INJURED SOLDIER SHOWS HEROISM

Nashville, Tenn., July 10.—At noon today the death list as a result of the collision yesterday of two Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis passenger trains in the outskirts of this city, stood at 115—fifty white persons and sixty-five negroes—and more than one hundred others were being cared for in hospitals here. It is feared that a number of the injured are fatally hurt.

Pending an inquiry which is to be conducted by a representative of the railroad administration, no official announcement has been made as to the cause of the accident. Rescue parties continued to search the wreckage today for victims of the disaster, the worst in the history of the railroad.

Two soldiers were among those killed, while another escaped with only slight injuries. The latter, however, was pinned under the wreckage for three hours, refusing rescuers to cut away the timbers which held him a prisoner until others, more seriously hurt, were taken out. "There are other poor devils dying right here beside me and need help worse than I do," he told a rescuer. "Get them out first."

Every energy was being put forth today to alleviate the sufferings of the injured, civilian relief organizations joining with the Red Cross in that work.

IF HE HAD TO BE 18 THEN HE WAS THAT OLD

A boy was canvassing the recruiting stations today, trying to get in the service. When asked his age, he inquired how old he must be to get in the navy. When informed that 18 years was the minimum, he laughed and said: "I am 18." He said he had been in school eleven years, entering school when he was five. This would make him 16, and that, apparently, is about his age. He said he ran away from his home in Wyoming nearly three years ago, and lived for a time at Sayre, where he was shot and slightly injured when getting on a freight train. He has been in Wichita Falls, Texas, since that time, and came here yesterday. He says he has a step-father who is in the army.

NO ARDMORE PEOPLE IN NASHVILLE WRECK

Jos. Fronterhouse, in charge of the federal-state employment office, was awakened several times last night to answer inquiries about the railway wreck yesterday near Nashville, Tenn. Friends and relatives of the men who left Ardmore Sunday morning for Nashville were anxious to know if any of the Ardmore men were in the wreck. Mr. Fronterhouse told them that the men who went from Ardmore, had arrived safely and had been put to work. He had calls from Marietta, Wilson, Healdton, and most every town in Carter County, and the callers seemed much relieved when they found that the Ardmore men were safe.

FINLAND IS REFUSED FOOD BY AMERICA

Stockholm, July 10.—General Mannerheim, commander of the Finnish government forces, today visited Mr. Morris, American minister to Sweden and asked what chance there was of Finland getting food from the entente powers.

The general painted Finland's food situation in darkest colors. Mr. Morris, told him there was little chance of Finland getting supplies while controlled by Germany.

Capture Armed Hun Prisoners.

Washington, July 10.—The first definite news of an armed body of German and Hungarian prisoners in Siberia was contained in a report received today at the state department from the United States consul at Vladivostok, telling of the capture by Czech-Slovak forces of six hundred prisoners and the town of Nikosk, about eighty miles northwest of Vladivostok.

The Czech-Slovaks lost 40 killed and 200 wounded. They were opposed by a large force of bolshevik Red Guards and armed German and Hungarian prisoners. The defeated Red Guards and prisoners took armored trains and retreated toward Haborak on the Amu river, filling eight trains. They took all the rolling stock at Nikosk, and did some damage to the roadbed.

The population of Nikosk was reported very friendly to the Czech-Slovaks, and aided in repairing the road. The prisoners taken are being held and examined in an effort to learn where they got their arms. The consul reported that the bolsheviks hanged several members of the Nikosk city officials and a number of railroad employees.

Japanese Says Nippon Must Intervene to "Save" Russia

London, July 10.—Dr. Sakue Takahashi, professor of international law at the Tokio University, arguing in ex-premier Okuma's new magazine Taikwan for Japanese intervention in Siberia, is quoted by the Times as saying:

"Japan's defeat of Russia exposed Russia's weakness especially to the Kaiser; hence Japan is probably responsible for Russia's collapse, and it is Japan's duty to save her. I think President Wilson errs in placing bolshevik professions on a plane comparable with the democracy of the United States.

"When we think of the danger to Siberia which threatens the future of Japan, a danger from a nation far more efficient and more to be dreaded than ever was Russia in the old regime, it becomes our right to intervene in Siberia."

Prof. Takahashi says Siberia should be aided by supplying the people with necessities and by conserving the means of transportation. Japan, he says, must send an army strong enough to gain the confidence of the anti-bolshevik and to protect the men, material and railways. He proposes to make Siberia a buffer state to counteract German penetration in the far east.

Major Waldorf Astor was born in the United States in 1879 and his wife was the former Miss Nancy Langhorne of Virginia. He became a British citizen at about the same time as his father in 1899. In January, 1917, Major Astor became one of the secretaries of Prime Minister Lloyd George.

By Twelve Bottles of PERUNA

Greatest Human Vitalizer

"During the winters of 1897 and 1898, I was so badly afflicted with catarrh of the head and thought I must surely die from it. After trying many doctors and all other recommended remedies made known to me, I was induced to use Peruna. I was cured entirely by using twelve bottles of Peruna and one bottle of Manalin.

Since that time, I have never been without Peruna. I use it for colds and as a general tonic during Spring and Fall months and find it the greatest human vitalizer."
