HASH.

N. R. Graham arrived in this city Saturday.

Lieut. Bell returned from St. Louis Thursday night.

"Sut" Winston returns to Fort Stevenson in the morning.

E. D. Baker and wife, of Salem, O., were in the city last week.

D. C. Tytler, of San Francisco, Cal., visited Bismarck last week.

L. W. Valentine, of Crook City, passed through the city Wednesday.

J. W. Cushing, a Chicago traveling man, called on Bismarck's merchants last week.

Vermillion has erected a town pump, which dignifies with the name of "water works."

H. E. Metcalf, of the St. Paul Dispatch, was in the city last week in the interest of his paper.

Mr. John A. McLean left for St. Paul Friday morning, where he will remain a few days.

Rev. Geo. W. Barnett will preach at Fort Lincoln on Sunday, the 10th inst., morning and evening.

Mrs. John Carland, Mrs. Badger and Miss Hall, of Fort Lincoln, spent Friday afternoon in this city.

No man is so color-blind but that he can't tell water from whisky.—Dan Scott in the Black Hills Times.

M. L. Marsh has purchased the sample room of J. A. Emmons, where he will be rejoiced to see all of his old friends.

The government telegraph line is now completed to Fort Ellis, and the first congratulatory message was sent to that point last week.

J. W. Dorsey, of the firm of Dorsey & Co., Bismarck & Fort Keogh U. S. mail agents, left for his home in Middleburg, Vt., on Friday's train.

Mr. E. H. Bly, the genial proprietor of the Sheridan house, arrived in the city with his family Friday night. He will hereafter make Bismarck his home.

W. B. Bell, cashier of the Bank of Bismarck, left for a short visit to St. Paul Thursday morning. He will return with his wife, who has been spending the past two months east.

P. J. Callaghan, of Minneapolis, is in the city. He will run the boarding house for the employees of the Northern Pacific extension, the building to be erected on the west side immediately.

Dr. H. R. Porter, who has been absent a few weeks testifying before the Reno investigation at Chicago, returned to this city Wednesday. Mr. Porter's testimony was straightforward and unchanged by cross-questioning.

Rev. J. B. Starkey, presiding elder of the Red River district of the Methodist Episcopal church, will preach at the Presbyterian church to-morrow morning and evening it being the occasion of the second quarterly meeting for the Bismarck charge.

No doubts can now be entertained as to the work on the Northern Pacific going on, as it is generally rumored that W. B. Shaw will take charge of a gang of 23 men, besides himself, and commence "tracking" the prairie to the Yellowstone.

A series of private theatricals has been inaugurated at St. Louis, with Miss Ella Turgis as the star. They have some very clever amateurs down in that suburb of Bismarck, but it is questionable if they can equal the excellent impersonations of Miss Sturges.

The Enterprise of this morning states that Miss Mollie Johnson has rented the premises of Miss Carrie Howard, and would take possession on the 10th proximo. This is a mistake, both as to the renting and occupancy—neither of which is a fact.—Dan Scott in the Black Hills Times.

Capt. Thibault, of the Sixth Infantry, is command of a detachment of soldiers from Fort Buford, arrived in Bismarck yesterday with Smith, the man who is charged with the murder of Corporal Schaeffer in December last. Smith will be tried by the court now sitting at Fort Lincoln.

Mr. L. N. Griffin, formerly of the Merchants hotel has now purchased and taken charge of the Capitol, where he will dish up the hash with his usual dexterity to his numerous friends. Mr. Marsh has moved up on Third street, where he will continue keeping boarders.

Mr. Frank Moore, of the Eclipse, who has been spending a few weeks at his home in Pittsburgh, Pa., returned to this city last week. The attractions at the opera house are not so interesting to him as they were previous to his eastern trip, but his associates will see that he wants for nothing if he will only put away that narrow-rimmed hat for the season.

Rev. Father J. Chrysoptom, of the Catholic church at Bismarck, paid Jamestown a visit this week, and service was held in the Klaus House on Tuesday morning, which was well attended. We learn that a project for building a Catholic Church at Jamestown, next summer, is being agitated by Father Chrysoptom, but no definite action has as yet been taken in the matter. Mass was also held this morning in the Klaus House.—Jamestown Alert.

MCLEAN & MACNIDER.

A Sick Senator.

The excessive corpulency of a certain United States Senator has long been the butt of editorial wit and sly bon mots from the pens of Washington correspondents. Few persons have suspected that his obesity was a disease, and liable to prove fatal. Yet this is the sad fact. Excessive fatness is not only a disease in itself, but one liable to generate other and more serious ones. Chemistry has at last revealed a safe, sure, and reliable remedy for this abnormal condition of the system in Allan's Anti-Fat. Distinguished chemists have pronounced it not only harmless but very beneficial to the system, while remedying the diseased condition. Sold by druggists.

To be or not to be, that is the great problem before the people of Bismarck, and when in future years the self-made men now struggling along unnoticed by the outside world, are asked what gave them the strength and courage to persevere and win, it will be in the early and candid use of the Belle of Moorhead Flour. For sale by all grocers. 88
