

TELEGRAPHIC

Guiteau.

Special Dispatch to the Daily Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—On entering the court this morning, Guiteau remarked that he had had a happy New Year, and hoped all others had the same. Dr. Gray took the stand, and was subjected to a long cross-examination by Scoville without effect. The cross-examination closed before recess. After recess Dr. Bowker, of Kansas City, was called by Scoville. The witness met Mrs. Dunmore at Leadville, Colorado, and conversed with her. She said she had entertained great doubts as to the mental condition of Guiteau at the time she obtained the divorce, and thought at the time she had betwixt divorce proceedings and await some further development in the mental condition of her husband.

CLARK MILLS, THE SCULPTOR, was called, for the purpose of identifying plaster cast of Guiteau's head. First question—"Did you make the cast of the prisoner's head?" Davidge objected to any reopening of the question of insanity, such as would be involved by identifying the cast by this witness. The question of insanity had been gone over direct in the rebuttal.

After further arguments the court ruled against Scoville and the witness was withdrawn.

The prisoner undertook to read a letter as he claimed from an old friend of President Garfield in Ohio, showing that public opinion was turning in this favor. Judge Cox ordered him to be silent.

Guiteau—"It shows the state of public opinion outside of this court room."

Judge Cox—"Be silent; public opinion has nothing to do with this case."

A LARGE CONGREGATION.

Guiteau—"When I speak, I speak to 50,000, not to this little crowd in this court room."

Marshal Henry, rising and moving toward the dock, "Keep quiet, sir."

Guiteau—"I've got through."

The marshal whispered some instruction to the bailiff sitting in the dock, and a moment later the prisoner started upon another harangue, and the bailiff put his hand upon his shoulder and tried to quiet him.

Guiteau—"Get away from me, or I'll slap your mouth."

With this outburst he subsided, however, and turned his attention to writing autographs.

JOHN W. GUITEAU

was again put on the stand and questioned in relation to Guiteau's letter to Senator Don Cameron.

Davidge—"I object, your honor, to any attempt to introduce what has a prima facie appearance of manufactured testimony."

Guiteau—"And so do I."

After argument on the question the court again ruled against the defense, and the witness was withdrawn. Scoville again brought up the question, introducing new witnesses, and after argument was made by the defense to submit the motion in writing tomorrow, giving names of witnesses and facts to be testified to and supported by affidavit, giving the reason why such witnesses were not introduced before, and the court adjourned until to-morrow.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The funeral of Col. Henry S. McComb took place this afternoon and was largely attended. Senator Bayard was present.

Gen. Kilpatrick.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Some meagre statements respecting the death of Gen. Judson Kilpatrick, United States minister at Santiago de Chili, have been received by the department of state. For five months prior to his death Gen. Kilpatrick had suffered intensely from Bright's disease to such an extent as to incapacitate him almost completely from official duties. In his responsible position this preyed greatly upon his mind. For days before the end he rallied somewhat, the pain diminished and he seemed more cheerful and active on the very day of his death.

A Fast Girl.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Chloe Ann Violet died to-day after a fast of forty-three days. Her delusion was that God commanded her to commit suicide by fasting.

Washington Waifs.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—The treasury department to-day purchased 340,000 ounces of fine silver for San Francisco, Philadelphia and New Orleans mints. The offerings to-day was unusually large and prices very high.

Commissioner of Indian Affairs Price, returned this morning from New York where he went to attend the funeral of his daughter.

The secretary of the treasury has decided to ask congress for an appropriation for additional vault room at the sub-treasury at San Francisco, Cal. There was so much silver in the vault that the assistant treasurer declined to receive any more from the collector on the ground that he had no proper place to store it. Secretary Folger has telegraphed the assistant treasurer he must receive the money and take such additional precaution to guard it as might be necessary until authority could be obtained from congress for the construction of another vault.

Small-Pox Spreading.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Reports at the post-office department indicate that small-pox is spreading throughout the country. A postmaster in Pennsylvania writes that the disease has appeared in his town, and a doctor treating a number of cases persists in calling at the office for his mail. Many citizens have notified the postmaster that they will refuse their mail if these visits are allowed, and the official is in a quandary and asks for advice. He has been informed he has no power to prevent persons from calling for their mail, and under these circumstances the matter must be mutually arranged between the citizens and the doctor.

Mississippi River Improvement.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Immediately after the adjournment of the house Speaker Keefer called a meeting of the committee on rules. Representative Gibson of Louisiana, and other gentlemen interested in the improvement of the Mississippi river appeared before the committee in adversary, adopting Gibson's resolution, which proposal all legislation relating to the improvement of the Mississippi river shall be referred to the committee on Mississippi levees and that the powers of the committee be enlarged accordingly. Representative Orth of Indiana, who is a member of the committee on rules and who to-day entered his protest against the formation of the committee and withdrew from those upon which he was appointed, did not appear in his seat. The protest made in the house by Orth was not alluded to in the committee.

Washington in Brief.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Senator David Davis is ill with sore throat, the result of a cold contracted at the president's New Year's reception. His physician has advised him to remain in doors for several days.

A gentleman said to-night he had it from excellent authority that ex-Senator Sargent, of Colorado, is to succeed Secretary Kirkwood.

Ex-Gov. Overton is here for the purpose of protesting against the ratification of the act of the Choctaw general council of 1881, granting the right of way and other privileges to the St. Louis & Santa Fee Railroad company. He called upon the secretary of the interior to-day and made a brief argument and filed a formal protest. Overton says to-day's interview with the secretary was but a preliminary one, and that the subject will be further argued by himself and the other delegates who have arrived in the city.

A meeting of the representatives of the Cherokee, Creek, Choctaws and Cheek-saw nations was held to-night, at which the whole matter was discussed and a practical agreement reached as to the manner in which they will proceed to oppose the act above referred to. The delegates intend to visit Secretary Kirkwood in a body and endeavor to convince him the grant was secured by means of irregular practices. Representatives of the Choctaw nation, who arrived to-day, are said to be prepared to establish this fact. The matter will be formally presented to President Arthur by the delegation.

A Fatal Blow-up.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 3.—A special to the Constitution says that a freight engine on the Savannah, Florida and Western road blew up to-day, killing the engineer and scalding the firemen.

A Thrust at Sherman.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The senate contingent fund investigating committee re-assembled to-day. W. P. Brown, foreman of the treasury department cabinet workshop, presented a memorandum in which it is said he gave dates of time occupied and character of work done by him upon Secretary Sherman's new house and stable, and also showing this work, or some of it, had been charged to different bureaus.

Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 3.—Samuel Josephs, a well known politician, who was shot in the railroad cars while the delegates were returning from the democratic state convention, September 29, has made affidavit against another well known politician, Robert Lester, charging him with aggravating the assault and shooting with intent to kill. Smith was held in $5,000 bail for hearing to-morrow.

The report that President Rober's contemplated retiring from the management of the Pennsylvania Railroad company is officially denied.

A New Deal.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Jan. 4.—The legislature was organized in the senate. George H. Williams (dem.) was elected president, and in the house O. Keilhalt (dem.) for speaker. In both houses there was an entire change of officials.

The Boom for Steele

[Cedar Falls, Ia., Gazette.]

Only a short time has elapsed since Fargo, D. T., was regarded as the frontier; now the Northern Pacific railroad has extended its rails to Fort Keogh, and beyond—fully 500 miles west of the Red river of the North, and made Fargo a jobbing centre; at the same time springing into existence towns along its line, as outlets for the wonderful agricultural resources of the country, are trading points in which small fortunes have been made by appreciation of values in the past year or two. We hear that Steele, the county seat of Kidder county, Dakota, laid out last fall, is a place of special promise, and in which unusual attention and interest will be devoted this coming spring to adornment by the employment of a professional landscape gardener, in the improvement of two beautiful parks, centrally located, and the setting of trees around every lot in the town. They are now giving away lots until the first of May, 1882, for actual settlement and improvement, that, from the experience of other towns, will be selling in a couple of years for $300 to $500, and the necessity and inducement for mercantile and industrial pursuits, will doubtless draw many there this winter and next spring.

What's Your Hand.

[Texas Siftings.]

An Austin clergyman, whose name we suppress on account of his sacred calling, was absorbed in thought a few days ago, just before divine service began, when he was approached by the organist, who asked, referring to the opening hymn: "What shall I play?" "What kind of a hand have you got?" responded the absent-minded clergyman.

Let's Laugh.

Smith—"The river raised one foot." Jones—"What became of the other?" Smith—"Tide, of course."

A man in Omaha is named Redheffer. His father must have been a bully man.

Speaking of an officer of the militia who appeared on parade, a young lady said: "He is a living chromo."

Fanny Mills, of Sandusky, O., has a foot twenty-two and three-quarter inches long. If three such feet make a yard in Sandusky, that's the place to buy dry goods.

The Man is Bow-legged. But he Cannot Help it, and You Must not Laugh at Him. He got Bow-legged plunging on a Side Hill when he was a Boy. The Tailor has to Cut out His Pants with a Circular Saw.—Denver Tribune Primer.

Do You Want Trees.

H. H. Hanes wishes to announce that the partnership heretofore existing between himself and Mr. Davis has been dissolved, and that hereafter he will be pleased to attend the wishes of those desiring trees of any kind set out.
