St. Paul Notes.

ST. PAUL, June 9.—[Special]—It is rumored here to-day that Col. O'Connor has gone east with his family, and will not return to Bismarck. The cause is not known.

T. C. Power left to-night for Bismarck with his mother and sister.

Sheriff McKenzie and John Satterland left to-night, the latter having purchased a considerable quantity of railroad land, for a steam boat landing and townsite about forty miles north of Bismarck.

Villard and party leave to-night for the east. Arrangements have been fully completed for extensive railroad operations at Bismarck which will be made public in a few days.

Postmaster Grant and Allen, of St. Paul, left to-day for Washington on star route business.

Young Tibbetts' Fate.

PERHAM, Minn., June 9.—John Tibbetts, the boy who murdered Washington and Feherbach a few days since, was brought here yesterday and was examined before Justice Rothplez. Towards night the propriety of lynching him was freely discussed, but nothing was done. About 1 o'clock this morning, however, twenty resolute men broke into the jail and with difficulty broke open his cell, and grasped him. He said, "Don't, boys; this is too rough." The lynchers then carried him to the railroad, a few rods away, rested a ladder against a telegraph pole, looped one end of a rope around his neck, and throwing it over a round of the ladder, hoisted away. He was dead in a few moments. The lynchers kept the crowd back with drawn revolvers, and as soon as the work was done, scattered in all directions. Tibbetts, who was only 17 years old, made a full confession last night. He laughed at the crowd that met him yesterday morning, but became depressed at night. The lynchers will probably not suffer for their crime.

A Terrible Tragedy in Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 10.—Casper Syebolt is a baker and works at night. When he left home last evening his wife began the preparations for a horrible deed. They had four children, aged 12, 7, 2 years and 6 months, and a baby of 4 months. She dressed them in fresh white clothes with bright ribbons, gave them strychnine, and when they died laid them out carefully with flowers in their hands, and all the surroundings were made as beautiful as possible. Then she took a dose of poison herself, having also put on a fresh white chemise with ribbons in it. This was just before the return of her husband at 8 o'clock in the morning. When he appeared at the door she met him and told him to come in and see the children, all dead and gone to heaven, saying, "See how pretty they are, with white flowers for the angels." One of the children was then alive, but has since died. Mrs. Syebolt died about 7 o'clock this morning.

Those Stolen Treasury Plates.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—J. B. Doyle, convicted in Chicago of having in his possession counterfeit bonds, offers through counsel to prove conclusively the genuineness of the $1,000 bond, and to explain how it was obtained, and all about it, provided the government will release him from confinement. The present investigation at the treasury is for the purpose of ascertaining the character of this plate, whether it is good transfer work, or merely counterfeit, and if the former, to ascertain how it was obtained, and to place the responsibility where it properly belongs. Secretary Folger and other treasury officials deny in the most positive terms that there are any spurious bonds in circulation.

Graduation Day at Annapolis.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 9.—Senator Jones, of Florida, delivered an address to the graduates of the naval academy. Secretary Chandler followed with a short address and presented the diploma. As he gave Cadet Nixon the first honor the secretary said: "I know this young man's family. His is an honest number one." (Applause.) After the diplomas were presented the battalion marched out of the chapel and formed three sides of a hollow square, the graduates taking positions in front. Then Cadet Midshipman Nixon presented cadet midshipmen with their detaching orders, and Cadet Engineer Theiss presented the cadet engineers with theirs. The battalion disbanded, and the ceremonies of graduation day were over.

The Crows on the Warpath.

CHEYENNE, June 10.—Governor Hoyt received a telegram to-day from Fort Kinney stating that the Crow Indians were scattered all over the country, killing cattle and stealing horses; and that the Crows should be ordered back to their reservation or trouble would result. The Crows were supposed to be peaceable, but are stealing from settlers continually.

Sick, But Popular.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 9.—There was an immense crowd of people at the depot to welcome Ben Hill. Owing to the critical condition of the senator, the only demonstration was the uncovering of heads as the carriage passed.

Those Thumpers.

PITTSBURGH, June 9.—Weeden and Maloney, the pugilists who were to fight near the line on an island on Wind river, next Monday, announce a postponement of the fight until some future date, on account of the threatened arrest by the West Virginia authorities. It is thought this is only a ruse, however, and that the encounter will take place as arranged.

He Tells Them to go to Work.

CINCINNATI, June 9.—President Jarret, of the amalgamated union of iron and steel workers, met the striking workmen of this city, at Covington to-night, and after a patient hearing of the case presented by the men, gave the opinion that their strike was not justifiable, and that they were bound to continue at work under the terms of their contract of last year with the manufacturers. The meeting agreed with Mr. Jarret's views.

Assassinated on the Street.

SAN JOSE, Cal., June 9.—A despatch from New Guadalupe says Mrs. Aloes assassinated on the street at Los Galos last night. Her former husband, John Warningsley, recently released from the penitentiary, is supposed to be the murderer, in revenge for her having obtained a divorce and remarried during his incarceration.

The Land Scrip Cases.

YANKTON, June 9.—It has been decided not to try the Santa Fe scrip cases at this term of the United States court. Cameron is in jail, Carpenter sick at his hotel and Russell out on bail.

Northwestern Crops.

ST. PAUL, June 9.—Crop reports from all points of the northwest received to-night, are more favorable than for two or three weeks.

Fire at Fargo.

FARGO, June 9.—A fire this morning nearly destroyed O. E. Henderson's hardware store. Loss $10,000; fully insured.

They Were Bound Over.

Geo. Howard and Henry Walker, the alleged cracksmen, have become very notorious during their short residence in Bismarck. Not being in the city a week they have been twice arrested for burglary, and the second time held to the grand jury in the sum of $500 each. Their first exploit was to "roll" Chas. H. Vail for $350. This job they did successfully, in that they got away with the "bottle" and out of the hands of the law, but their second job got them in hock. Their preliminary hearing for entering the room of Wm. Little, at the Merchants on the night of the very day of their liberation from the county bastille, was had yesterday before Judge Hare, when they were put under $500 bail each to appear before the grand jury. Being unable to produce the wealth, and having no friends to go their bonds, they were remanded to jail. It is evident that they expect bail, as Howard, who seems to be spokesman for the brace, remarked upon hearing the sentence of the court that they could endure it for a couple of weeks. We infer from this that they either expect financial help, or to help themselves out of the jug. It is thought they are the owners of the burglars' kit recently found cached a short distance down the track from this city, and that the tall young fellow who was seen to go to the cache, and who has since skipped, was an accomplice of Howard and Walker. It is also thought they are the parties who committed a number of robberies at Butte recently, as the burglar's kit found was wrapped in a Butte newspaper, dated May, 17th ult. Between that date and the day of their arrival here by the Josephine from Benton they had ample time to make the trip—by coach to Benton, and by steamer to Bismarck.

A Live Immigration Agent.

It is to be hoped that the North Pacific company will set Ole J. Johnson, now in the real estate business at Minneapolis, at work again in the land department. Mr. Johnson was with the company several years, and did excellent service. He is familiar with the work, and has an extensive acquaintance with the Scandinavians of the country, and has traveled so much and so long in the interest of the North Pacific that he knows just where and how to strike to gain the greatest results. He ought to be set to work by the company. He is doing much for the country now. Several of those coming to Bismarck to locate have brought letters from him.

Another Distinguished Party.

A party of distinguished railroad men and capitalists passed quietly through the city yesterday evening. They traveled by special train, composed of three sleepers and a baggage car. Owing to the early hour of their passage only Commodore Maratta happened to be present at the depot to point out to them the features of the city and explain the resources of the country. After remaining an hour they went on west. Among the party were H. H. Porter, president of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha railroad, David Dows, New York; Dr. Isham, Chicago; Mr. Bishop and others. The object of this visit is not known, but it is surmised they are looking the country over with a view of tapping the North Pacific at this place.

The Medical Association Excursion.

The medical association which has been holding a session at St. Paul for the past few days, will reach Bismarck this evening, probably, on its way to the Yellowstone. It is composed of several hundred physicians. They are men of heart and brains, and many of them of means, who have gathered from all portions of the Union. Every possible attention should be paid them, and all attainable information should be placed within their reach.

Continues to Confess.

As young Trevitt (heretofore spelled Tibbetts by the Times), the Perham murderer, progressed on his way home he kept leaking details regarding the crime for which he was arrested in Bismarck last Tuesday. The latest that comes to our table is the following from the Valley City Times:

"At Valley City the murderer acknowledged to the Times reporter that he had done the killing, and the sheriff related the story of the tragedy, as told him by the culprit, in such a way as to make even the repertorial hair stand on end. Trevitt stated that the surveyor and the Gorman boy, Fritz, were sitting together on a log. The surveyor had a paper in his hand, from which he was pointing out matters for the boy to attend to. Trevitt crawled up and fired at short range, killing the surveyor instantly. At this, Fritz sprang at him, and fought with a billet of wood until the murderer cleaned him out with the butt end of a shotgun he had borrowed from a neighboring farmer."

Business at the Bismarck Land Office.

There were twenty-nine claims taken at the U. S. Land Office at Bismarck yesterday morning before 10 a. m. The locaters were Scandinavians from Wisconsin and say the country is the best they ever saw. They are men of means, men of families, the class that give a background that makes the picture of future prosperity for Bismarck prominent.

What It Indicates.

The best evidence in the world that a country is attracting general public interest is to be found in excursion parties. The 150 doctors who visited Bismarck last Saturday and the 500 who came in last evening by the train from St. Paul, would never have come here had it not been for the fact that a deep interest is felt, throughout the east, in this country. It will not be long until home-seekers will flock in here by the train loads.
