THE BANNER CITY

Don't forget that entertainment this evening at the reading room.

The directors of the First National bank have determined to go ahead and erect their building without reference to adjoining property.

The plasterers have commenced operations in the second story of the Central block.

S. B. Lawrence received yesterday morning, two thoroughbred horses from the east.

J. P. Hoagland has sold within the last three days eight car loads of lumber to settlers.

Mr. Wilcox, of Elmira, N. Y., is now in the city in the interest of a large colony in Elmira.

The majority of Bellows over Selmes for mayor of Mandan, was 45—the vote being 189 to 14.

They are still drilling through a sort of soap stone at the artesian well, at the depth of 1,000 feet.

Mr. Hyman, the tailor, will occupy the store room next door to W. B. Watson, with D. L. Bailey.

Last night's train had in tow seven coaches, loaded down with passengers, three baggage and one express car.

Religious services, conducted by the Rev. L. E. Hanna, will be held at Mencken next Sunday, forenoon and evening.

About 200 German people were aboard last night's train, about forty stopping here, the remainder going farther west.

Capt. J. A. Brown, of Quincy, Ohio, has purchased through E. N. Carey two lots in the N. P. addition, block 44, for $950.

F. P. Benjamin, of the Portland stage line, arriving last evening and will pass over the line causing the hearts of all to rejoice.

The proprietors of the Merchants hotel have leased the Franklund house, which gives them sleeping accommodations for thirty additional guests.

The dance at the International hotel last night was a very pleasant affair—over twenty-five enjoying themselves greatly. About forty-five numbers were sold.

W. H. Bratton, who is in charge of the Lewistown colony, has made arrangements to go into the lumber business at Sterling. He now has a large stock in transit.

The name of the postoffice at Clarke farm has been changed to Mencken. If business men will bear this in mind it will save confusion, as there is a Clarke postoffice in Clarke county, Dakota.

Hon. J. C. Nickens, of Jamestown, will arrive at Bismarck this evening. He was a true friend of Bismarck during the recent session of the legislature and is a genial and excellent gentleman.

Mr. A. T. Sherwood, of the military telegraph office, has 160 acres of land within one mile of town that he offers to sell in lots of from one to five acres, or in larger quantities if desired. See ad. on first page.

W. B. Shultz, the brick-brewer, copper-typer, down-right, self-adjunct, and promoter for St. Paul, came up from his hacienda yesterday afternoon to mingle for a brief season in the dazzling whirl of city life.

Sioux City Journal: The steamer Keokuk, the first of the season, arrived at Dubuque on the 29th. In her cargo was a consignment of 500 barrels of whisky for Bismarck. It (the whisky) was forwarded by rail.

McLean & Macneir have erected a new awning in front of their store and have moved their dry goods stock into the upper story to give room for building new shelving with a view of doing an exclusive grocery business.

Miss Mary Taylor, daughter of the Methodist parsonage at Bismarck, Michigan, district, was in Bismarck yesterday for the purpose of entering a homestead claim at Dawson, Dakota, where her brother, Frank Taylor, now resides.

Mr. Alex. Mills has resigned a position in the Mandan freight office in order to engage in the drive-wheel business in Bismarck, in connection with duties in the railway office of this city. The Pioneer speaks of Mr. Mills in very complimentary terms.

In order to keep their promise to "turn no one away," Messrs. Emerson & Wakeman, of the Mechanics hotel, have rented Union hall for meetings and dances. The rent is $100 per week, and will be able to accommodate there between fifty and sixty people.

The man arrested by Officer McEneaney Wednesday night on suspicion of being the individual who attempted to break into the Branch residence, was Fred F. 63 yesterday for being drunk and disorderly. He was not prosecuted for housebreaking, as the evidence against him was insufficient.

whatever, and that such shipments are for the personal use of consignees and not for commercial purposes. It is the desire of the management to have this announcement come under the notice of every settler in the prairie country.

The Emerald (Pa.) Vindicator, of the 1st inst., Lewistown, Pa., with a large colony of settlers of Mifflin county, leave for Bismarck, Dakota, the 21st inst., for permanent settlement in the "Golden Northwest." We congratulate the people of Burleigh county and of the territory upon this important acquisition to their ranks.

Thomas W. Casby, formerly a clerk in the quartermaster's department, U. S. Army, and who has lived in Dakota for many years, has connected himself with the real estate firm of Harmon, Harasta & McLean, of this city, for the purpose of selling lots and lands at public auction.

The directors of the First National bank have determined to go ahead and erect their building without reference to adjoining property, as it seems impossible after several months negotiations to make arrangements for a first-class building.

Glendive Times, March 31. Mr. N. C. Lawrence closed his business yesterday in connection with the Yellowstone Land and Colonization company, by commencing a sale of his own lots in Glendive, to McGee, Flannery, Geo. H. Fairchild, Dr. Porter, and H. F. Douglas, of Bismarck, D. T., amounting to $10,000.

And now Mandan has a morning as well as an evening daily, the Times having commenced a regular morning issue on April 1. The editor says: "This is no April fool or election-day joke, but an out-and-out bantam fighting cock, ready to do his feathers, if need be, run out its toe nails, and fight against oppression and for the right."

White Sulphur Springs, M. T., has a debating club, which has adopted the unique name of "Tackle Anything Society."

Miss Jennie Corson owns several ranches in Meagher county, a large herd of sheep, and is in a fair way to become Montana's sheep queen.

White Sulphur Springs is easily satisfied. The husbandman says that among other evidences of prosperity noticed there the past week, was a dog fight.

At Regina, M. T., last month, the mounted police had to melt snow to supply themselves and their horses with water. The usual water supply was frozen solid.

The citizens of Northern Montana want a military post established nearer the boundary line, to provide for such contingencies as arose recently when the Crees raided the Marias.

Helena Independent: The mounted police stationed at Fort Macleod, have organized a base ball club. They ought to come down into Montana, and see how the flower of American muscle and skill handle themselves on the diamond field.

A petition has been circulated and numerous signed at Fort Macleod, asking the postmaster general of Canada to continue the mail route between there and Benton, even after the Canadian Pacific has passed Calgary.

The tunnel on the Queen of Hills and Homestake lodes Montana district, has been run in on the vein 150 feet, and a point ninety feet beneath the surface, the ore body is five feet thick. The ore is rich in iron, brittle, and sulphide of silver, and it also shows some ruby silver.

The following item from a northwest territory paper gives a hint of the way they manipulate booms up in that country. It is rumored that a certain grain man has sold out his interest in section twenty-six, so we expect to see the seat of government moved to the Bell farm, as this great man has an interest in it.

The "Big Billy," which in a few days, will send its mighty torrent of muddy water from the upper country, and make glad the hearts of the river navigators, is still locked solidly in the embrace of winter. The boats in at the wharf awaiting the break-up, "idle as a painted ship upon a painted ocean."

The Sioux City Journal says the figures of Ed. Conings and T. C. Power, in the recent bids for the river business between Sioux City and Bismarck were so close—the difference being but about $8 on the whole contract—that the award has long remained in doubt.

The New Postmaster General. INDIANAPOLIS, April 4.—The agent of the Associated Press here received the following this afternoon: EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 4.—Judge Gresham has just been notified by the secretary of state of his appointment as postmaster general, and that his commission was signed yesterday by the president.

A STAR PERFORMER.

Neotunes of the Silver-Voiced Son of a Denver Man.

"I may not be educated way up to the top notch in musical matters," remarked Col. G. H. Toll yesterday, "but I have strong convictions, and I fully express them when I say I do not consider Mrs. Nilsson the greatest vocalist. The fact that is," continued the colonel, "I have heard all the great singers from Patti down to Alice Oates."
