

THE CAPITAL CITY.

Old books rebound at the Tribune bindery. Work progresses on the high school building. The capitol foundations are being laid day and night.

imposing, and a town of 50,000 inhabitants would be proud of such a building. Steele will have the finest brick hotel on the North Pacific line west of and including Fargo.

work as any institution of the kind in the northwest. The citizens of the town are consequently happy, as their daily bread is given unto them in abundance. The elevator is also in operation and wheat from the fertile farms of McLean county is pouring in at a tremendous rate.

THE RAILWAY AGE.

Its Dawning in the Capital City, where Mr. Talbott Visits and is Visited.

The Newspaper Man who Rides in His Private Car, the Finest in the World.

The handsomest, most complete, costliest and altogether loveliest coach in the world was pulled into Bismarck last evening at the rear of the west bound passenger train. It is the property of Mr. E. H. Talbott, editor of the Railway Age, a weekly illustrated journal, devoted to the elegantly designed cover proclaims, to railway intelligence, construction, operation and management.
