If Taffa's name is presented to the Republican national convention, will it be as a "favorite son" of Michigan or Connecticut... So far as we know, nobody has yet charged it was Mexican habits that fed up and roiled that Missouri, Kansas & Texas train...

Lord Charles Balfour throws this at the British government: "We blundered before the war and have been blundering ever since... In spite of the cabinet's celebration of his fifty-seventh birthday, his enemies insist he hasn't reached the age of discretion...

The czar must have given for all his soldiers now if it be true that Japan has supplied him with three million rifles lately... Few married men will be allowed to go to Cincinnati without their wives, now that they are giving pretty girls for guides...

That certified check for $100,000 from Dallas, Texas, is doing some loud talking for the Democratic national convention... Its churches are making an organized effort to evangelize Washington, but the papers report no Billy Sunday crowds...

Without meaning to knock a prophet, we sincerely hope and believe former Senator Bourne is wrong about those winter soup houses... Not even the "killed by idle gossip" verdict of an Illinois coroner's jury will stop the clacking tongues, we fear...

Uncle Wiggily and the Sand Crane.

By HOWARD R. GARIS. (Copyright, 1915, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.) "Well, Uncle Wiggily, where are you going today?" asked Uncle Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy... "Well, Uncle Wiggily, where are you going today?" asked Uncle Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy...

Uncle Wiggily hopped along the boardwalk and soon down on the sand, he saw Susie Littlebird, the rabbit girl... Uncle Wiggily hopped along the boardwalk and soon down on the sand, he saw Susie Littlebird, the rabbit girl...

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily," cried Susie, as she saw her uncle... "Oh, Uncle Wiggily," cried Susie, as she saw her uncle...

"Well, I wonder if I shall have an adventure today?" thought Uncle Wiggily as he hopped along... "Well, I wonder if I shall have an adventure today?" thought Uncle Wiggily as he hopped along...

"Here I am," was the answer, "right behind this bunch of seaweed... Here I am," was the answer, "right behind this bunch of seaweed..."

"What is the trouble?" asked Uncle Wiggily... "What is the trouble?" asked Uncle Wiggily...

"Oh, my legs are buried in the sand," was the bird's answer... "Oh, my legs are buried in the sand," was the bird's answer...

"How?" asked the bird... "How?" asked the bird...

"Why, I will dig your legs out of the sand with the beach shovel... Why, I will dig your legs out of the sand with the beach shovel..."

"I'm sure you are," said the sand-crane, politely... "I'm sure you are," said the sand-crane, politely...

Then Uncle Wiggily dug down still further... Then Uncle Wiggily dug down still further...

"Now you can pull out your legs," said Uncle Wiggily... "Now you can pull out your legs," said Uncle Wiggily...

"I understand that all the warring nations find that women are perfectly able to make shrapnel... I understand that all the warring nations find that women are perfectly able to make shrapnel..."

BITS BETWEEN BITES

Hot... Conversations... Great game next Saturday... Mexicans are ignoring the dead line...

Was Asquith's move to save neck from the noose?... Jess Willard seems to be getting ready to lose the title... English women who would divorce soldier husbands are in hard luck...

Won't the Chicago blue Sundays be the cause of Monday's being carmine?... Nowata is no place for mere man this week... Fair sex members threw the key into the river...

Now that he's been recognized, will Carranza next touch Uncle Sam for a loan?... Although the franchises of the allies are a low water mark from hell, they're close enough for the majority in them... What's the use of a drawbridge when the bridge is raised and you are sufficiently high to permit the passing of a dreadnaught...

It can't be figured exactly how long the Arabs and the Saxons need to harness Great Britain neatly as severely... There's a young man in Tulsa who is so excited over his approaching wedding that he actually bought a watch instead of a wedding ring...

Joseph Sheehan's proportions have increased so rapidly that he'd make a better favor than most "band-aids"... When "Damaged Goods" was advertised to appear at the theatre, the other day, a newspaper wondered why the opera house had been engaged for such a sale...

If there are six or seven war songs being composed on the various fronts, it's probably because the world's composers feel their efforts couldn't be heard above the cannonading... Yesterday the suffragists of many other states were quite as confident of victory as were those of New Jersey, and today tells the sequel to that story... "Just Before the Ballot, Mother..."

Now that the Chamber of Commerce membership has been more than doubled, there should be no trouble holding it, because they've been in the habit of being coaxed... Mexico's war probably is subsiding for the reason that the peons haven't received their promised "six cents a hand, and even though they had irrigation of land has been made possible only by stable governments...

THREE WAR-TIME CAPITALS OF SERBIAN GOVERNMENT

(1) Belgrade, the normal seat of the Serbian government; (2) Nish, to which the court retired upon the first Austrian invasion, more than a year ago; (3) Prizren, remote from a railway, to which the governmental archives have now been moved, following the Bulgarian invasion.
