"YOU'RE A LIAR," PREACHER SHOUTS

Muskogee Minister Dares Presiding Eldere to Go Outside of Church

REV. BROOKS CLEARED

"I'm Mad as the Devil," Carpenter Yells Before Quiet is Restored.

SPECIAL TO THE WORLD. MUSKOGEE, Nov. 13.—The Rev. C. L. Brooks, presiding elder of the Muskogee district in the Eastern Oklahoma Methodist conference, was cleared today of all charges brought against him by the Rev. A. M. Brannon.

For a time after the decision of the committee of investigation had been made public, scenes approaching disorder reigned in the conference meeting immediately after the report of Bishop Mouzon to appoint a committee to see to the personal safety of Brooks.

"This is not a matter for the church," the bishop replied. "If you wish protection, appeal to the civil authorities."

At once Rev. J. E. Carpenter of Muskogee, who has represented Brannon in the church proceedings, tapped Brooks on the shoulder. "If you will step outside," he said to Brooks, "we will end this matter right now."

"Brooks is a liar," It is said Carpenter believed Reverend Brooks had accused him of preparing the formal charges which were made before the committee.

"Brooks lied—he is a liar, and I told him so this morning," shouted Carpenter.

This is no way for a minister to adjust his frivancies," cautioned the Reverend Cooper, who was standing near.

"But I'm mad as the devil," declared Carpenter. "I'm a Kentucky gentleman, and I mean what I say."

The Reverend Carpenter approached a newspaper reporter, "if there is a word about me in your paper," he shouted, "I'll resent it with every drop of Kentucky blood in my body."

Former Austrian in Consular Service Offered to "Sell Out" for Sum of $20 or $30 a Month, So He States

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Baron Erich Zwickel, charge of the Austro-Hungarian embassy, called at the state department today and denied in person for his government the published charges of Doctor Gorlick, formerly of the Austrian consular service, that Austrian consulates in the United States were "hotbeds of propaganda" for fomenting strikes in munition plants.

BURNS TO CONTEST CASE AGAINST HIM

Sergeants Whitford and Fields Performing His Duties.

PATTON IS MENTIONED

Detective May be Slated For Office of Chief of Police.

"It is Mr. Burns' intention to either prove himself innocent or guilty of the charges preferred against him before the grand jury," said Police Commissioner T. J. Quinn yesterday.

Commissioner Quinn and Sergeants Whitford and Fields were caring for the duties in the office of the chief yesterday, and probably will continue to do so until Burns is exonerated or his successor appointed.

Burns was at his office only yesterday morning and then did not attempt to perform any of his duties, notwithstanding that he previously had announced his intention of "sitting tight" until he was either proved guilty or innocent.

Burns was allowed five days in which to make his plea to the district court which ousted him. He is known to have appeared before Judge Conn Lynn soon after he was served with the papers declaring his office vacant, but whether he pleaded at that time has not yet been learned.

MISSOURI ROADS INCREASE RATES

Public Service Commission Rules Favorably to the Railroads.

2 1-2 CENT FARE NOW

Better Price For Handling Freight Tonnage Also is Granted.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 13.—The Missouri public service commission today granted the railroads of Missouri partial increases in freight and passenger rates.

The commission granted increases of 5 per cent in freight rates and granted the railroads permission to charge a passenger fare of 2 1/2 cents a mile on one-way tickets; 2 1-4 cents a mile on round trip tickets and fixed a rate of two cents a mile on mileage books for five hundred or one thousand miles.

The new rates are to be effective January 1, 1916. The railroads asked for a three-cent passenger rate. The present passenger rate is two cents a mile.

The railroads asked for increases in freight rates, ranging from 5 to 200 per cent. The 5 per cent increase granted is an average advance but this advance is not uniform.

The commission issued the following statement: "The commission finds from the testimony that a minimum passenger rate of two cents per mile does not give the carrier two cents per mile because of the necessity of the carriers to constantly meet each other's short line rates."

The commission finds that the reduction in passenger rates from three cents a mile to two cents a mile was not offset by the increase in revenue from passenger traffic for the year 1914 as compared to the year 1913 indicates:

St. Louis and San Francisco, $34,688; Missouri, Kansas & Texas, $60,555; Missouri Pacific & Iron Mountain, $185,077; Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, $109,737.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 13.—An order issued in the federal district court here today permits the consolidation of the two receivership suits against the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway.

Among the Tulsa men who are scheduled to speak at the laying of the cornerstone of the new state capitol at Oklahoma City next Tuesday is Woodson E. Norvell, whose subject will be "Foundations of Freedom."

NOTABLE WEEK IN MUSICAL CIRCLES

Charles W. Clark Recital is Scheduled For Friday.

EXCELLENT PROGRAM A NOVEL GATHERING

Noted Artists Congratulate Tulsa People on Good Fortune.

The event of the present week being most talked about and what promises to be one of the largest and most enjoyable things musical of the 1915-16 season, is the Charles W. Clark recital dated for Friday evening, November 19, at Convention hall.

That Mr. Clark is America's greatest baritone as well as one of the country's foremost titans of voice has long been recognized, and Tulsa is fortunate in having an opportunity to hear a singer so well known and universally liked in the music world.

Not only is the Clark concert of interest from these facts but for the reason that the young pianist who is with the singer on his tour is a member of a well known Tulsa family, Gordon Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Campbell of 119 West Golden street.

Seats Tuesday. The seat sale opens Tuesday morning at the Rexall drug store and indications are that a majority of the four thousand tickets sent out to interested persons and music lovers will be returned.

A telegram of congratulation from Miss Louise Homer, the contralto who sang for the Hyecikka club in Tulsa last season and who appeared in recital at Cincinnati yesterday, was received by Mrs. O. L. Frost, who is acting as Mr. Clark's Oklahoma representative. The endorsement will be of interest to persons who contemplate attending and was as follows:

"My Dear Mrs. Frost: Have just heard that you are having with you this week Charles W. Clark. I wish to congratulate you. He is a splendid artist and a fine man. I wish I could be there to enjoy his concert with you. I remember my Tulsa concert and friends there with greatest pleasure."

"Sincerely yours, "CHRISTINE MILLER." Christine Miller, the charming singer who appeared in Tulsa last spring under the auspices of the Hyecikka club, writes of Mr. Clark as follows:

"My Dear Mrs. Frost: I cannot resist sending my congratulations to you on the engagement of my friend, Charles W. Clark, to present one of his delightful recitals. You will hear one of the greatest artists America has ever produced—an interpreter with few equals—and a singer of charm. It was my privilege to do some work with Mr. Clark when he was in Paris and so you see I know whereof I speak. Wish you success in your undertaking, I am, "Most sincerely yours, "CHRISTINE MILLER."

SEASON FOR QUAIL OPENS NOVEMBER 30

Continues Until January 1, and Not January 15, Remember.

The quail hunting season in Oklahoma opens November 30 and continues until January 1, and not January 15, as some nimrods erroneously are under the impression. A typographical error in printing the original bill made it appear as though the season had been extended to January 15, but Gov. R. L. Williams, as chairman of the state fish and game commission, issued a statement recently that the original bill shall govern.

The typographical error was noticed by sportsmen throughout the state, since when there has been considerable speculation on which should govern, the published session law or the original bill.

Tulsa has many sportsmen, the majority of whom are partial to quail, but not necessarily anxious to make themselves subjects of the law for violations. In fact most of this city's nimrods are inclined to preserve the quail rather than destroy them unnecessarily.

CHARGES FILED AGAINST JUDGE

Special to The World. OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 13.—A special grand jury was drawn today to investigate charges preferred by Midget Ross, aged 18, against L. C. McNabb, who Thursday resigned as county judge. Gov. Robert L. Williams has assigned the state attorney general to investigate the case. It is understood this step was taken upon request of the state humane society. The girl's father circulated a petition for signatures asking for the special term of court.

TOWN PARTY TO BE SOME AFFAIR

Convention Hall the Place and Tuesday Night Will Be the Time.

EVERYTHING WILL BE FREE

Whether Club Members or Otherwise.

"Town Meeting" of the Chamber of Commerce is scheduled for Convention hall next Tuesday night, November 16. Don't forget the date. Everybody is going, including you, of course, and everybody's going to have the time of his life. Although the Chamber of Commerce originally intended this affair for the acquaintance of old members of the organization with the hundreds of new members recently acquired through the medium of a city-wide campaign, it since has developed into what undoubtedly will be the greatest meeting of its kind ever held in Tulsa, and which will long be remembered by all who attend it.

The committee in charge of the arrangements has been admonished against sparing any expense to make the meeting successful, and the committee is carrying out its instructions to the letter. There will be something doing all the time and that something is being designed particularly for the pleasure of human beings, men and women and the little folk.

And the evening will be absolutely free. Remember that. There will be free entertainment, free speeches, but few of them; free dancing, free music, free edibles and free refreshments of the liquid variety.

Somewhat Different. In ye olden times town meetings were held for the purpose of transacting business for the good of the town. The business of the Tulsa town meeting will be to give everybody a good time in a way which will suit individual taste.

There will be funny dolines by funny people, while there also will be some serious forms of entertainment, of which the pipe organ will be evidence, and the orchestra particularly for the occasion, while ice cream and all its fixings will be served abundantly.

There will be a dance, too, and such a dance! Just the kind that will satisfy the demands of all who enjoy the light fantastic as it was indulged in before the "woggly bug" and other contentions came into style. It will be a whoop-er-up good time that will take the old folk back to their youth and afford all kinds of opportunity for the young people to enjoy themselves likewise.

And it won't cost anybody a copper—that is anybody but the Chamber of Commerce, and that organization has the demands of all who want it thoroughly understood that it recognizes the social side of the organization as important as the commercial side.

First Big Fall Event. The town meeting will be the first really big social undertaking of the fall and winter seasons. Paul M. Galloway, chairman of the entertainment, is exerting himself to make this one of the really big events of this city's history. He says he will have something considerably out of the ordinary to exhibit during the meeting, and Glenn Cannon and Burr Gibbons, others of the committee, are working with Mr. Galloway to bring about just such a result.

Talent for the vaudeville will be furnished by W. H. Gulberson, whose many talents for the occasion and every-thing of any kind, is sufficient to insure its success from a laughter standpoint, as Mr. Gulberson is a past master in the art of funmaking.

So, on this night of nights get the girl or the wife and the kids and the old folks and attend the meeting. Afterwards you will be one of the happiest individuals in the city, and all because you participated in a really worth while event and had the best time of your life.

Convention hall will be specially arranged for the occasion and everybody will be expected to conduct himself as though he owned the building and everybody in it. It is the intention to have the get-acquainted meeting first, after which the hall will be cleared, the orchestra take its place, the many square dance sets formed and the "caller" take his position—then, well, then "dance ye triers, dance" to your heart's content until far into the morning.

Oh, but it'll be a great time, will that of the night of November 16. Everybody be there. If you have an engagement to make that night, make for Convention hall. Everybody is going—going to have a good time, mind you, and if you're not there—then you'll be mighty lonesome wherever you are.

Begin now to make your arrangements for the "Town Meeting."
