JITNEYS LOSE SUIT AGAINST CITY FATHERS

Judge Clay Orders Temporary Injunction Granted Them Vacated.

WILL CARRY CASE TO THE SUPREME COURT

Four of Traffic Cars Are Now Running in Violation of Ordinance.

The jitney owners lost their injunction suit in district court yesterday. Judge T. P. Clay ordered that the temporary restraining order against the city which was granted by Judge Breckinridge of the superior court last week be vacated and denied the application for a permanent injunction. The injunction suit was brought to prevent the city from enforcing the new jitney ordinance.

The city men announced that they would appeal the case to the supreme court. Whether they will be allowed to operate while the appeal is pending is a question which will be threshed out this morning before Judge Davis.

Some of the jitneys were running last night with the signs removed. No "charge" was made but passengers were allowed to make "donations" for the service.

The ordinance objected to by the jitney operators was passed three weeks ago by the city commission board. It limits the number of passengers carried by a jitney to two more than the registered capacity of the car and fixes a license fee of $75 a year. The jitney owners contend that the passenger limit would be ruinous to their business.

More consideration was given the amount of license than the passenger limit by Judge Clay in his appeal but it is doubtful that the city had the right to charge a license that high but later sustained the city's authority on that point.

Cities Cases. Numerous cases in other states were cited by the city's attorneys to prove that the number of passengers should be limited. In some states the jitneys are forbidden to carry any passengers on the running board.

No arrests will be made by traffic officers until the right of the jitneys to operate under the appeal is determined.

HONOR CONVICTS ARRIVE FOR WORK

Come Without Guards to Reconstruct County Highways.

WITHOUT armed guards thirty trustees of the state penitentiary at McAlester arrived yesterday for work on the county roads. Only two men accompanied the convicts and they did not carry weapons of any kind. The convicts were placed upon their honor when they left the penitentiary.

The prisoners reached Tulsa shortly before 10 o'clock over the M., K. & T. railroad. They visited the business section and at 12:45 o'clock in the afternoon were taken over the A. V. & W. branch of the Frisco to the rock crusher three miles west of the city.

Equipment Here. The equipment for the convict camp, which arrived several days ago, had been transferred to the crusher Wednesday. Teams were pitched and the camp set in order by the convicts upon their arrival yesterday afternoon.

This morning 15 of the convicts will be put to work improving the new Keystone road. One other will be worked at the rock crusher. The two men who accompanied the convicts will reside at the camp. One will act as boss and the other as steward of the commissary department. A third employee of the prison will arrive today to take charge of the camp.

Where That Letter Is. BERLIN (by wireless to Sarville), Nov. 2.—Altogether 24,000 bags of mail from Germany and 16,820 bags destined for Germany were confiscated by the British and French authorities from December, 1915, to the end of September, 1916, says the Overseas News agency. The news agency asserts that only a small part of the seized mail was afterward redelivered to its destination.

WILSON MUST WATCH AND WAIT FOR WHILE

HASNT CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE AS TO WHETHER GERMAN VIOLATED PLEDGES.

Believe Week Will Have Elapsed Before It Is Decided: Election Over Then.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Conclusive evidence as to whether Germany violated her pledges to the United States in the sinking of the British freighter, Maritima with the loss of six American lives, is not expected by the state department before the latter part of next week.

Secretary Lansing, before leaving tonight for his home at Waterbury, N. Y., to stay until after the election Tuesday, said information was coming in slowly to the department, that he would not be leaving Washington if anything final were expected immediately and that at least a week was expected to elapse before full evidence would be at hand.

Secretary Lansing made a statement during the day, explaining that the state department held that Germany's pledges not to sink merchant ships without proper provision for the safety of persons on board, applied to merchantmen armed for defense as well as to unarmed vessels. Clearly without last specific word on armed ships, however, was her memorandum announcing that they would be treated as war vessels and the fact that the Maritima carried a 4.7-inch gun is expected to play a conspicuous part in the evidence that will follow if it is established that she was attacked without warning.

TAMMANY HOLDS WILSON JUBILEE

Stages Old-Fashioned Rally in New York as Campaign Finale.

PRESIDENT SPEAKS

Has Place in His Heart for "Obscure Man" but Not for Wall Street.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—With two great rallies here tonight President Wilson closed his campaign for re-election except for a speech he will deliver to New Jersey friends and neighbors at Shadow Lawn Saturday afternoon. From the time he arrived in this city this morning he was greeted by cheering crowds wherever he appeared.

In four speeches here, three tonight and one at a business men's luncheon in the afternoon, he reiterated his conception of the great issues which confront the United States—the appeal for principles and progress which would help the "obscure" man and women of the land, arraigned the "Wall Street" interests which he said "seek to dominate" and pleaded for equal rights for all men.

Murphy Is Leader. The president's coming gave the Democrats their first opportunity of the campaign in this city for old-fashioned political enthusiasm on a big scale. Torblights and red fire blazed in Fifth avenue as the hosts of Tammany hall headed by Charles F. Murphy advanced upon Madison Square Garden which was besieged by a tremendous crowd before their arrival.

Two hours and a half before Mr. Wilson was due to arrive at the historic garden, police reserves were striving vainly to hold back a surging throng waiting for the doors to open. Holders of reserve seat tickets strove vainly to reach the entrances.

Women Faint. The seating capacity of the garden had been increased to 15,000, but it seemed after the doors were closed and the last inch of room occupied that the size of the throng outside had not been perceptibly diminished. In the crush about the doors many women fainted.

Similar scenes were enacted at Cooper union. At this meeting special provision had been made for young men not of voting age who had marched in the parade with delegations from Tammany and other Democratic organizations. Augustus Thomas presided at the Madison Square Garden meeting. The first speaker was Samuel Seabury, candidate for governor of New York. He was followed by William F. McComb, candidate for United States senator and former Governor Martin H. Glynn. All of them commended the policies of Mr. Wilson which had "brought peace and prosperity."

Ton Dry for Plowing. Special to the World.

AFTON, Okla., Nov. 2.—Ottawa county has been experiencing ideal fall weather for the past week and the wheat crop is looking fine. The roads are also in good condition and road work is being done in Ottawa county now than ever before in the history of the county. Several townships have voted bonds for road work and the other townships and the county itself are all doing some mighty good road work. Though the weather is fine fall weather, yet a rain is needed badly. Several rains have fallen in the past two months, yet the extreme dry weather of last summer so baked and baked the ground that the few rains this fall have never really soaked or wet the ground to any depth. The ground is very dry at present and much too dry for plowing. Considerable ground needs to be plowed and as long as the present dry spells last the farmers cannot plow the ground at all except in a very few places along the creeks and in the bottom.

GREECE FINDS SELF IN THROES OF REVOLUTION

Revolutionists Under Premier Venizelos Repulse Localists.

FORT VAUX AGAIN IN HANDS OF FRENCH

Rumanians Keep Up Pursuit of Austro-Germans in Rothenthurn Pass.

ATHENS, via L. Jon. Nov. 2.—(12:55 p. m.)—King Constantine issued orders this morning to the Royalist troops to prevent the advance of the revolutionist forces at all costs. One hundred and fifty loyal troops had previously evacuated Katerina before six hundred insurgents armed with machine guns, withdrawing to Larissa to join reinforcements. The evacuation of Katerina is confirmed by the general staff.

After months of strife between the adherents of former Premier Venizelos and the staunch adherents of King Constantine over the question of Greece's stand in the war, a revolution of considerable proportions has broken out in the region southwest of Saloniki. Only meager details are at hand, but these show that six hundred insurgents, probably followers of Venizelos, forced 150 Royalist troops to evacuate Katerina, near the gulf of Saloniki, and retreated upon Larissa, forty miles southwest in Thessaly, where they are expected to receive reinforcements. The troops have received orders from the king to prevent at all costs the advance of the revolutionists.

Retake Fort Vaux. On the fighting fronts important success have been obtained by the French in the retaking of Fort Vaux, northeast of Verdun, by the Italians in a further push forward in the Gorizia and Carso sectors through which they are trying to reach Trieste and by the Germans in Volhynia near Wilno, where Russian positions were stormed and captured and 22 officers and 1,500 men were made prisoner.

The Transylvania theater is witnessing a continuation of the advance of the Austro-Germans south of the Rothenthurn pass, while in the Jiu valley the Rumanians are keeping up their pursuit of the Teutons. There is still no news concerning the operations in Dobruja, except the statement that the Russo-Rumanian advance guards are reconnoitering and that Constanza has been shelled from the sea, but without success.

In Macedonia fighting continues in the bend of the Cerna river region with small successes for the Serbs. On the remainder of the front bombardments are in progress.

FAILS IN FIRST TRIP AS AERO MAIL SYSTEM

VICTOR CARLSTROM HOWEVER, BREAKS AMERICAN CROSS-COUNTRY RECORD.

Speeds from Chicago to Erie, Pa., a Distance of 480 Miles in 237 1/2 Minutes.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Victor Carlstrom, flying in the New York Times mail-carrying aeroplane, failed today in his attempt to fly from Chicago to New York without a stop, but broke the American cross-country nonstop record when he flew from Chicago to Erie Pa., a distance of 480 miles in 237 1/2 minutes. Carlstrom also broke the speed record for distance flying, his average time being about 112 miles an hour.

A defective joint in the gasoline feed connection forced the aviator to descend at Erie for repairs and a fresh fuel supply. After resuming flight he found it impossible to reach New York before night and came down at Hammondport, this adding 155 miles to his day's flight, making a total of about 635 miles. He expects to complete his journey tomorrow morning.

VILLA TROOPS TAKE PARRAL, BORDER HEARS

Was Bandit Chief's Objective When He Moved From Santa Ysabel.

NINE AMERICANS WERE IN THE CITY

U. S. Mining Men Feel Fear for Citizens Living in That Place.

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 2.—A message received by Americans here from Chihuahua City today reported that Parral, Chihuahua, had been taken by Villa troops. General George Bell, jr., commander of the El Paso patrol district, stated that he had received no information of the capture of Parral. This town was given as Villa's objective when the bandit moved south from Santa Ysabel.

As far as is known here there are only nine Americans employed at Parral in the Parral district at the present time. These are T. C. Hawkins, A. W. Morris, Leslie Webb and Howard Gray, all of whom are employed by the Alvarado Mining & Milling Co., W. E. Palmer, Dr. J. Flannigan, W. E. Cowell, C. B. Smith and another American whose name is unknown. Four of these men are employed at other mines in the Parral district and Doctor Flannigan is a practicing physician in Parral, according to Americans who formerly lived there.

Parral is 54 miles southwest of Jimenez, Chihuahua, and 116 miles in a straight line south of Chihuahua City.

Carranza consul, Eduardo Soriano Bravo, denied that Parral had been taken. He said General Luis Herrera had a garrison of two thousand men in Parral and said the garrison was well supplied with ammunition, arms and artillery.

American mining men who have interests in Parral are much concerned over the fate of the nine Americans known to be in Parral.

The concern was increased tonight by news from Chihuahua City that the bandits who held up the Mexican Central passenger train Monday evening at Laguna station assaulted Dr. Steven Harfter, a German subject, because they thought he was an American.

At the general offices of the Alvarado Mining & Milling Co. here it was stated that no information had been received with reference to the report that Villa troops had captured Parral. The Alvarado company is one of the largest operating in the Parral district and its officials here are making efforts to obtain information from their representatives there by way of Parral, Chihuahua City and also by way of Eagle Pass, Texas, Terren and Jimenez.

Hears No More. Gen. Francisco Gonzalez, commander of the Carranza forces of the north, stated that he had received no information from Chihuahua City regarding the reported capture of Parral by Villa forces, but admitted that such information might have reached the border in private messages.

These mining men declare the report of Villa's capture of the town verifies the report that the Villa and Carranza command had been in possession of Santa Rosalia as it was announced that he would move on Parral from Santa Rosalia.

Villa is said to have a grudge against Gen. Luis Herrera, the Carranza commander in Parral, and to have declared that when he captured Parral he intended to kill Herrera with his own hands.

The report of Villa's capture of Parral was received here by government agents tonight and forwarded to Washington.

MAJESTIC MANAGER RETURNS

Books Several Feature Film Dramas to Be Shown in Near Future.

B. F. Rothstein, manager of the Majestic theater, has returned from a three weeks' tour of New York and other eastern cities, where he secured bookings on many notable film attractions which will be seen at the Majestic this winter.

Among the subjects for early booking are the only three films in which E. H. Sothern, the great American actor, will appear, "The Chattel," "An Enemy to the King" and "A Man of Mystery." Barney Tennard, the original Abe Potash in "Potash and Perimeter," also will appear in a number of film dramas, two of which now are ready, "Phantom Fortune" and "A Prince in a Pawnshop." Theda Bara in a de luxe production by William Fox of "Romeo and Juliet," now playing the Academy of Music in New York, will be offered during the present month.

Mr. Rothstein states that the films have found large favor with theatergoers in the east and magnificent showhouses heretofore devoted to the spoken drama are rapidly being converted into photoplay theaters.

ALL BE DEFENDANT ALTHOUGH HE'S DEAD

All the criminal cases brought against W. Z. Dozier, a former banker of Bixby, were set for hearing on November 15 in the court of Justice Lee Daniel yesterday. Dozier is now dead, but the cases will be heard to determine the validity of certain changes in the bank made during his administration.

Four charges of grand larceny were made against Dozier, with L. E. Neves and J. Brown as the prosecuting witnesses. Two cases of grand larceny were brought against Dozier and W. S. Webster, who is connected with the same bank, upon information sworn to by C. J. White. The charges were filed in July, but have been continued.

WHERE IS THIS PRETTY HEIRESS

Young English Woman Who Left Home Is Somewhere in America and Being Sought.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—One social secretary, somewhere in Chicago, is being sought as an heiress of the English peerage. She is—or was before she became self-supporting—Miss Ethel St. John, daughter of the Hon. Vivian St. John of Liverpool, England. A Liverpool barrister who is attempting to find Miss St. John, hints at a family quarrel and the departure of the spirited girl for America. The Honorable Vivian is dead, and his widow, who is now residing in the local police and it is desired that the daughter be found. She is described as 26 years old, tall, blond with deep, rich blue eyes.

THREE INJURED IN EXPLOSION OF GAS

Accident in Princess Candy Shop Blocks Traffic for Short Time.

HURT TO HOSPITAL

A. Bereolos and Chris Angeles May Bear Scars for Life Now.

THOUSANDS of belated shop clerks and office employes, on their way home at 6 o'clock last night were attracted to the Princess confectionery shop, Third and Main, where an explosion of gas severely burned three persons and partially wrecked the floor of the building, resulting in the calling out of the fire department and ambulances.

In the Oklahoma hospital, A. Bereolos, proprietor of the Princess, Chris Angeles and Mary Wilkes, both employees of the place, are recovering from the burns. The first named two may be marked for life. It was while the doctors and nurses were placing the bandages about his seared face that Bereolos told of the accident and pleaded with the hospital attendants to give their attention to the others.

Candle Did It. "Several days ago," he told the attendants, "I tried to get a plumber to make some gas connections for me. He did not come and it was necessary the connections be made. I purchased some pipe and with Angeles attempted to make the necessary connections. I suppose that the porter, thinking we had completed the job turned on the gas, and when we returned to the job with a candle, the explosion followed.

"I am sorry for Angeles and Miss Mary. I wish they had not been hurt. I want them to have the best attention possible."

In the ward where Angeles lay swathed in the oils and bandages which had been speedily placed over his painful burns, there was no discussion of the accident so that by Bereolos. The youth, who sustained the most painful burns of the throng, took his part of the affair as though it was ordained. He submitted with no outcry to the water used to cleanse the hands which were frightfully burned.

He Expected It. "I knew it would happen," he told the nurses. "I did not know just how it would come, but that there was something in store for me today, I was sure."

This morning I had a dream of my mother kissing me. That is a bad sign. This is the seventh time I have been in a hospital. I knew that something would happen. My head, it seems like my brains were burned to a crisp."

An ice pack was placed against the bandages which covered his face and head and the opiate soon had claimed him. Later the girl was taken to the hospital and there she received medical attention. Her mother, who is married and the hair of her head had been shingled. She, however, was not in as serious condition as the two men.

WOULD MAKE FLAG SYMBOL OF RIGHT

Says Wilson Has No Monopoly on Peace; Hard to Get Into War Now.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 2.—Charles E. Hughes, speaking here tonight, declared his belief that he would win the electoral votes of Ohio, Indiana and New York. Asserting that he was "looking forward to the responsibilities of administration," he outlined what he regarded as "the essential conditions of national leadership."

Mr. Hughes addressed an audience that had waited nearly three hours to hear him. He was introduced by William Barnes, former Republican state chairman.

The nominee assailed the administration for its alleged failure to aid in the development of American trade abroad by upholding American rights, characterized as "very cruel and unwarrantable" suggestions that a vote for him meant a vote for war and declared that in American relations with foreign nations he was opposed to a "middle of middle."

At Batavia, the first stop of the day, Mr. Hughes asserted he had entire confidence in the result of the election in Indiana and Ohio. In his speech here tonight the nominee depicted political leadership. The meeting here was presided over by William Barnes, former Republican state chairman.

Made Five-Minute Talks. Mr. Hughes spoke at Onondaga, Amsterdam, Schenectady and Troy on his way here. The addresses at Onondaga and Amsterdam were five-minute talks in which the nominee reiterated briefly his anti-Americanism and the chief issues of the day. The speech at Schenectady was before an audience that had awaited his arrival for more than an hour. Many persons were turned away from this meeting unable to get entrance to the hall.

"Our opponents do not seem to like the idea of criticism with respect to international policy," Mr. Hughes said in his Schenectady speech. "But I beg to remind them that an American president is elected for a term of four years and under our institutions at the conclusion of that term the American people express their minds."

"When a matter is so important as the maintenance of American rights, it is highly necessary that American opinion should be expressed, and I have no apology to make in standing before you and in saying that if I am elected president I propose that the American flag shall be a symbol of justice, but it shall be the symbol of CONTINUED ON PAGE TWO

WON'T CALL IT "AMERICAN" NOW

Famous Legion of Airmen Will Have to Hunt Some Other Title, Government Says.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The famous American aviation corps of the French army probably soon will lose officially its distinctive title as a result of protests to the state department that use of the name is not compatible with American neutrality. There will be no formal exchanges on the subject, but the state department will suggest informally to the French foreign office that mention of the "American" corps in official communications places this country in an embarrassing position. There is no doubt here that this point of view will be appreciated in Paris.

When Kiffin Rockwell was killed in September German newspapers printed violent attacks upon the United States, declaring that the presence of Americans in the French army was proof that this country's neutrality was vanishing.

Early in the war at the informal request of Washington, Great Britain had the name "American legion" withdrawn from a Canadian contingent that was being recruited from the United States.

VOTE FOR HUGHES HIS LAST WORDS

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Simon Brundhill of this city, realizing that he was about to die yesterday after an illness of several months, called his family, consisting of his wife and three sons and a daughter, all voters to his bedside.

"I want you all to vote for Hughes," he said. "Hughes must win."

There were his last words. Two hours later he died.

MRS. BIRD S. MCGUIRE. Mrs. Bird S. McGuire of this city Wednesday afternoon made her first appearance on the political stump in the interest of the Republican party when she spoke before the Women's Hughes League and the Advocates of Woman's Suffrage of Kansas City in that place. Her husband, Bird McGuire, himself a well-known politician and former congressman, of this city, knew nothing of his wife's intentions to take the stump in the interest of the party of which her husband had long been a prominent character in the state, and the first intimation that he had of her stump speaking was contained in newspapers of Kansas City, which devoted space for a story and picture of the Tulsa woman.
