

HUGHES CLOSES HIS CAMPAIGN WITH BUSY DAY

Republican Candidate Addresses Five Audiences Along Hudson River.

AGAIN DRIVES HOME REPUBLICAN POINTS

Porting Shot Is That U. S. Must Preserve Honor of American Name.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Charles E. Hughes ended his travels as a presidential candidate here tonight. The nominee spent the day journeying down the Hudson river valley from Albany. He delivered five speeches on the way and after his arrival here addressed three meetings in Brooklyn. In his speech today Mr. Hughes spoke chiefly on the tariff and the maintenance of American rights abroad. He also assailed the administration for "broken promises" with respect to the reduction of the cost of living, the observance of the merit system in making appointments, the maintenance of American rights abroad and economy in the expenses of government.

Conditions which industry in the United States will face at the close of the war were characterized as cause for "serious consideration by every student of our affairs."

Watch for Headache.

"We want to look out that we do not have a headache coming to us in the near future," the nominee told an audience at Newburgh, "because there are quite a number of things that we must carefully consider."

Among the chief of these, Mr. Hughes ranked commercial competition after the close of the European war, "not at all wasted by war, but disciplined, organized as they have never been before."

Can't Pass Laws.

Mr. Hughes said he asked his opponents what they were going to do about safeguarding American industry and they replied that they had a tariff commission. A tariff commission, he said, "is not a very good thing."
