

GERMAN ARMISTICE IS MILITARY ONLY

Paris Understands Conditions Submitted to Germany Will Be Confined to Army Disposition

COUNCIL STILL IN ACTION

Deliberations Are Closely Guarded and No Intimations of Conditions are Authorized.

By The Associated Press.

PARIS, Nov. 1.—The armistice terms to be submitted to Germany will be confined strictly to military requirements, except that it will be brought out clearly that they are conditioned generally upon President Wilson's principles, with some modifications.

Today's deliberations in connection with the armistice proposition were participated in by Belgian and French representatives, the day's meeting having to do with Germany. When Austrian affairs were discussed yesterday Serbian and Greek representatives were in attendance because of their particular interest in Austrian matters.

By The Associated Press.

VERSAILLES, Nov. 1.—Representatives of the allied nations began their deliberations at the supreme war council shortly after noon today. Gen. Tasker H. Bliss, representative of the United States, was the first to reach the Trianon Palace hotel, arriving at 1:50 p. m. He was followed shortly afterward by French...

WANTED

Lease close to production; will develop.

MINOT & MINOT

614 Mayo Bldg.

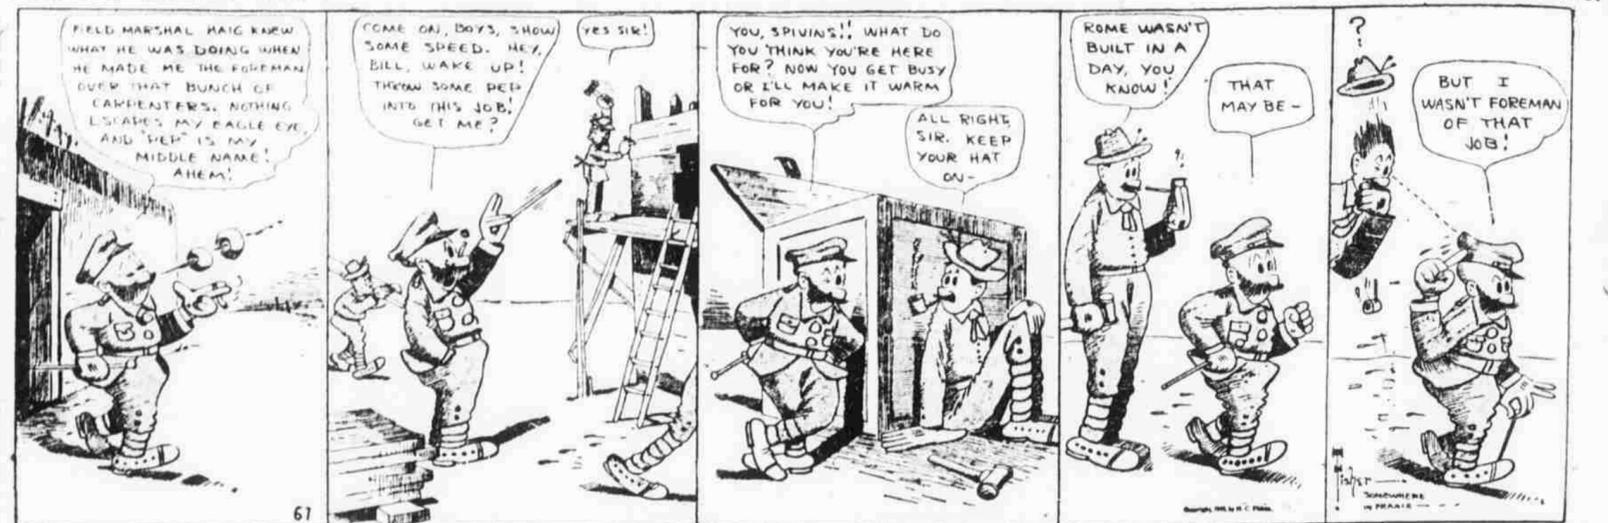

SHOE INFORMATION IS GIVEN BY SERIAL NUMBERS

Official United States bulletins issued to the legal authorities on October 28 carry the news that purchasers will be able to tell the exact grade of a shoe, its price and manufacturer by the serial and class number on the box and in the shoe. In this way, in the event of question, direct information may be obtained.

The official three price spread authorized by the war industries board for class A, B and C shoes, respectively, $2 to $5.50, $4 to $8.50, and $5 to $12.

Manufacturers were instructed to begin the execution of this ruling October 15 and it will be 60 days from that date before local dealers will be in a position to carry out the board's instruction.

MUTT AND JEFF AS A FOREMAN JEFF HAS A GOOD OPINION OF HIMSELF.

REPUBLICANS PUT UP GOOD MEN IN COUNTY

Ticket Tulsans Will Vote Tuesday Contains Names of Some of Best Business Men in Vicinity.

Republican candidates and party workers find that the idea of dividing up the offices with all parts of the county makes the people have more confidence in their ticket than if they had selected all the candidates from the city of Tulsa.

"It has been the policy of the opposing party to grab all the offices in the past," said Chairman Small of the republican central committee. "The republicans felt that such sections as Collinsville, Sand Springs, Pry township and Tulsa should be represented, and four of the candidates were selected from these sections. Naturally the people in these parts feel that they will have friends around the courthouse if their neighbors get elected—and they are going to support the whole ticket because of this consideration."

Mr. Small and the candidates have made an office canvass over the county and they are enthusiastic over conditions.

John P. Kerrigan, candidate for superior judge, has made a very active campaign, and Mr. Small said that from his check on the situation he would be elected.

John H. Wilkins, candidate for county judge, who has made such a splendid reputation on his handling of snafus and dodger cases in the federal commission court, is an Oklahoma pioneer and so thoroughly liked by the attorneys and citizens that he has no opposition for the office.

O. A. Steiner, the business man candidate for assessor, has made a very active campaign, and feels that he will be elected.

John M. Goldsberry, from Collinsville, and Wm. Choate of Sand Springs are two of the big factors

Attack on Germany From East Through Back Door Predicted

LONDON, Nov. 1.—An allied attack on Germany from the east was foreshadowed by George Nicol James, member of the British war cabinet, in a speech last evening at the American officers' club in London.

The armistice with Turkey might have been signed earlier, said Mr. James, but we held the Turks on a string.

He explained that the allies were committed to a free Arab state with Aleppo as the capital and there was no hurry to get the Turks out of the war until Aleppo was captured. Other places as necessary to the Arabs as Aleppo also must be surrendered.

"The British have been assembling ships at the mouth of the Taurus for some time and Mr. James said he understood the vessels already had started through the straits.

He concluded: "There is nothing to prevent the fleet from going to the Black sea and up the Danube to Germany's back door, and if the Germans are going to defend their territory they must divide their remaining forces between the western front and the back door, at which we shall soon be knocking."

Attack on Germany From East Through Back Door Predicted

LONDON, Nov. 1.—An allied attack on Germany from the east was foreshadowed by George Nicol James, member of the British war cabinet, in a speech last evening at the American officers' club in London.

The armistice with Turkey might have been signed earlier, said Mr. James, but we held the Turks on a string.

He explained that the allies were committed to a free Arab state with Aleppo as the capital and there was no hurry to get the Turks out of the war until Aleppo was captured. Other places as necessary to the Arabs as Aleppo also must be surrendered.

"The British have been assembling ships at the mouth of the Taurus for some time and Mr. James said he understood the vessels already had started through the straits.

He concluded: "There is nothing to prevent the fleet from going to the Black sea and up the Danube to Germany's back door, and if the Germans are going to defend their territory they must divide their remaining forces between the western front and the back door, at which we shall soon be knocking."

Attack on Germany From East Through Back Door Predicted

LONDON, Nov. 1.—An allied attack on Germany from the east was foreshadowed by George Nicol James, member of the British war cabinet, in a speech last evening at the American officers' club in London.

The armistice with Turkey might have been signed earlier, said Mr. James, but we held the Turks on a string.

He explained that the allies were committed to a free Arab state with Aleppo as the capital and there was no hurry to get the Turks out of the war until Aleppo was captured. Other places as necessary to the Arabs as Aleppo also must be surrendered.

"The British have been assembling ships at the mouth of the Taurus for some time and Mr. James said he understood the vessels already had started through the straits.

He concluded: "There is nothing to prevent the fleet from going to the Black sea and up the Danube to Germany's back door, and if the Germans are going to defend their territory they must divide their remaining forces between the western front and the back door, at which we shall soon be knocking."

Attack on Germany From East Through Back Door Predicted

LONDON, Nov. 1.—An allied attack on Germany from the east was foreshadowed by George Nicol James, member of the British war cabinet, in a speech last evening at the American officers' club in London.

The armistice with Turkey might have been signed earlier, said Mr. James, but we held the Turks on a string.

He explained that the allies were committed to a free Arab state with Aleppo as the capital and there was no hurry to get the Turks out of the war until Aleppo was captured. Other places as necessary to the Arabs as Aleppo also must be surrendered.

"The British have been assembling ships at the mouth of the Taurus for some time and Mr. James said he understood the vessels already had started through the straits.

He concluded: "There is nothing to prevent the fleet from going to the Black sea and up the Danube to Germany's back door, and if the Germans are going to defend their territory they must divide their remaining forces between the western front and the back door, at which we shall soon be knocking."

Attack on Germany From East Through Back Door Predicted

LONDON, Nov. 1.—An allied attack on Germany from the east was foreshadowed by George Nicol James, member of the British war cabinet, in a speech last evening at the American officers' club in London.

The armistice with Turkey might have been signed earlier, said Mr. James, but we held the Turks on a string.

He explained that the allies were committed to a free Arab state with Aleppo as the capital and there was no hurry to get the Turks out of the war until Aleppo was captured. Other places as necessary to the Arabs as Aleppo also must be surrendered.

"The British have been assembling ships at the mouth of the Taurus for some time and Mr. James said he understood the vessels already had started through the straits.

He concluded: "There is nothing to prevent the fleet from going to the Black sea and up the Danube to Germany's back door, and if the Germans are going to defend their territory they must divide their remaining forces between the western front and the back door, at which we shall soon be knocking."

SHINOLA AMERICA'S HOME SHOE POLISH. SHINOLA IS THE SAME PRICE AS ALWAYS TEN CENTS. Large advertisement for Shinola shoe polish featuring an illustration of a man in a suit and a woman in a dress.

LARGE quantities of SHINOLA are purchased by the Government to be sold to the Soldiers and Sailors. We aim to make SHINOLA cost the men serving their country and the public back of the men, as little as possible. War conditions turn men's heads to profit making. We believe friends and users are more valuable than the profit of the moment. That is why you can buy SHINOLA at the same price as always. BLACK - TAN - WHITE - RED - BROWN. Your Patriotic Duty BUY LIBERTY BONDS.

Drs. McCARTY & NEWLON SPECIALISTS Chronic and Private Diseases of MEN and WOMEN. "To contract a disease is a misfortune—but to neglect it is a crime against one's self." 12 Years in Tulsa 212 1/2 South Main Street.

Advertising No. 7. The Newspaper—The Great Open Market. Compare the simplicity and low cost of offering your goods for sale in the newspapers with the difficulty and expense of doing business on the Chicago Board of Trade, the Kansas City Grain Exchange and other similar markets, where membership is restricted to a chosen few and the expense runs into thousands of dollars.

The Newspaper—The Great Open Market. Compare the simplicity and low cost of offering your goods for sale in the newspapers with the difficulty and expense of doing business on the Chicago Board of Trade, the Kansas City Grain Exchange and other similar markets, where membership is restricted to a chosen few and the expense runs into thousands of dollars. In the advertising columns of the newspapers, anybody with an honest product can offer that product for sale to thousands of people any time, any where, at a cost that can be made to fit the smallest or the largest pocket-book. The display columns of the newspapers offer the manufacturer, the distributor, the jobber and the retailer the most flexible and most profitable medium for reaching the masses of the buying public. For the man or woman who wants a job, for the firm that wants help, for real estate of all kinds to sell or lease, for rooms to rent, for business opportunities and for all the thousand and one other things needed daily by the intelligent, reading people of our wonderful country the classified columns of the newspapers offer the shortest road to satisfactory results. It is truly said that the newspaper is the great open market of trade. Prepared by Southwestern Advertising Co., Oklahoma City and Dallas, Texas.

Attack on Germany From East Through Back Door Predicted

LONDON, Nov. 1.—An allied attack on Germany from the east was foreshadowed by George Nicol James, member of the British war cabinet, in a speech last evening at the American officers' club in London.

The armistice with Turkey might have been signed earlier, said Mr. James, but we held the Turks on a string.

He explained that the allies were committed to a free Arab state with Aleppo as the capital and there was no hurry to get the Turks out of the war until Aleppo was captured. Other places as necessary to the Arabs as Aleppo also must be surrendered.

"The British have been assembling ships at the mouth of the Taurus for some time and Mr. James said he understood the vessels already had started through the straits.

He concluded: "There is nothing to prevent the fleet from going to the Black sea and up the Danube to Germany's back door, and if the Germans are going to defend their territory they must divide their remaining forces between the western front and the back door, at which we shall soon be knocking."

Attack on Germany From East Through Back Door Predicted

LONDON, Nov. 1.—An allied attack on Germany from the east was foreshadowed by George Nicol James, member of the British war cabinet, in a speech last evening at the American officers' club in London.

The armistice with Turkey might have been signed earlier, said Mr. James, but we held the Turks on a string.

He explained that the allies were committed to a free Arab state with Aleppo as the capital and there was no hurry to get the Turks out of the war until Aleppo was captured. Other places as necessary to the Arabs as Aleppo also must be surrendered.

"The British have been assembling ships at the mouth of the Taurus for some time and Mr. James said he understood the vessels already had started through the straits.

He concluded: "There is nothing to prevent the fleet from going to the Black sea and up the Danube to Germany's back door, and if the Germans are going to defend their territory they must divide their remaining forces between the western front and the back door, at which we shall soon be knocking."

Attack on Germany From East Through Back Door Predicted

LONDON, Nov. 1.—An allied attack on Germany from the east was foreshadowed by George Nicol James, member of the British war cabinet, in a speech last evening at the American officers' club in London.

The armistice with Turkey might have been signed earlier, said Mr. James, but we held the Turks on a string.

He explained that the allies were committed to a free Arab state with Aleppo as the capital and there was no hurry to get the Turks out of the war until Aleppo was captured. Other places as necessary to the Arabs as Aleppo also must be surrendered.

"The British have been assembling ships at the mouth of the Taurus for some time and Mr. James said he understood the vessels already had started through the straits.

He concluded: "There is nothing to prevent the fleet from going to the Black sea and up the Danube to Germany's back door, and if the Germans are going to defend their territory they must divide their remaining forces between the western front and the back door, at which we shall soon be knocking."

Attack on Germany From East Through Back Door Predicted

LONDON, Nov. 1.—An allied attack on Germany from the east was foreshadowed by George Nicol James, member of the British war cabinet, in a speech last evening at the American officers' club in London.

The armistice with Turkey might have been signed earlier, said Mr. James, but we held the Turks on a string.

He explained that the allies were committed to a free Arab state with Aleppo as the capital and there was no hurry to get the Turks out of the war until Aleppo was captured. Other places as necessary to the Arabs as Aleppo also must be surrendered.

"The British have been assembling ships at the mouth of the Taurus for some time and Mr. James said he understood the vessels already had started through the straits.

He concluded: "There is nothing to prevent the fleet from going to the Black sea and up the Danube to Germany's back door, and if the Germans are going to defend their territory they must divide their remaining forces between the western front and the back door, at which we shall soon be knocking."

City Briefs

HON. J. H. HUCKLEBERRY, attorney of Muskogee, was in Tulsa yesterday on business—and politics.

ANOTHER desk for the Red Cross home service was donated yesterday, the Hunt company, making the contribution.

A CAR belonging to Carter Smith was stolen Thursday night, and found yesterday morning by the police. The car, behind its crushed trunk it then bucked against the roof and fell.

A CHANGE in the police department was made yesterday, W. M. Jacobs being transferred from the emergency call department to the traffic. Lawrence Bitten is replacing him at the station.

REPORTS at the board of health department show one case of diphtheria in Tulsa within the past 48 hours. It is a pesthouse case and is being carefully watched.

MRS. H. E. REED and her brother, P. T. Pullen, the latter of Fort Hill, were summoned to Lexington, Ky., their former home, last night, by telephone, for information of the death of their father, P. T. Pullen, Sr.

F. A. GILLESPIE, T. J. Hartman and George S. Davis returned yesterday morning from a business and pleasure trip to the northwest. They had a short hunting trip up into British Columbia—and had only fair luck.

EXAMINATIONS for the position of postmaster at Leonard will be held in Tulsa on November 23, and for positions at El Reno. Further information may be obtained from R. E. McCline, local chairman of the civil service commission.

J. P. KERRIGAN, candidate for superior judge, J. H. Underwood, candidate for county attorney, and Commissioner J. H. Wilkins, candidate for county judge, made a detour of the county yesterday. They are greatly excited over the prospects and state that their chances for election are tippity.

"TRAFFIC had a merry Halloween, according to police headquarters. Every man on the force was busy until midnight, and even Chief Allen was on the job, not finishing up until 2 o'clock Friday morning. Very little damage was done, and the force was commended by the heads of city departments for "handling the worst night of the police year."

NOTIFICATION has been received in Tulsa to the effect that no mail should be received addressed to Finland, as that country is occupied by the Germans. Further statement is made that money orders to citizens in Palestine may not be sent, but arrangements have not been made to provide soldiers with the same accommodation.

ALLEGED WHISKY peddlers were arraigned yesterday before J. H. Wilkins, United States commissioner. One, a negro waiter on a dining car of the St. Louis train, had been arrested after taking four pints of whisky off the train in a bag of soiled table linens. However, he pleaded not guilty and his preliminary was set for Wednesday, November 6. The white man, E. A. Kimberling, waived a preliminary and was bound to the grand jury. The bonds

Attack on Germany From East Through Back Door Predicted

LONDON, Nov. 1.—An allied attack on Germany from the east was foreshadowed by George Nicol James, member of the British war cabinet, in a speech last evening at the American officers' club in London.

The armistice with Turkey might have been signed earlier, said Mr. James, but we held the Turks on a string.

He explained that the allies were committed to a free Arab state with Aleppo as the capital and there was no hurry to get the Turks out of the war until Aleppo was captured. Other places as necessary to the Arabs as Aleppo also must be surrendered.

"The British have been assembling ships at the mouth of the Taurus for some time and Mr. James said he understood the vessels already had started through the straits.

He concluded: "There is nothing to prevent the fleet from going to the Black sea and up the Danube to Germany's back door, and if the Germans are going to defend their territory they must divide their remaining forces between the western front and the back door, at which we shall soon be knocking."

Two new cases among the oil workers on this lease were reported late yesterday evening.

EIGHTY-FIVE DIE IN TRAIN WRECK. CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE. were unable to give a coherent account of their experiences.

When the first car jumped the track it sideswiped the west wall and ran along the ties for nearly 100 feet. The cars behind it crashed through it, then bucked against the roof and fell.

The tragedy marked the first day of a strike called by the company's members to enforce the reinstatement of 29 discharged members of Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers as ordered by the national war labor board.

District Attorney Lewis said all officers of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company and every person connected with the accident had been ordered arrested. He said the company was withholding the name of the motorman.

Mr. Lewis said that the motorman of the leading train was going at high speed when he turned into the curve. The cars behind it crashed through it, then bucked against the roof and fell.

According to survivors, the motorman was unused to the road, as he was compelled to back up at one point after he had taken the wrong switch.

Both trains were jammed with passengers as the strike had resulted in a material reduction in service.

Immediately after the crash the wrecked cars burst into flames. Rescue work was retarded by the cut through the crash occurred as no one could hardly clamber up the steep concrete walls.

The injured and dead were carried up ladders. Charred bodies were placed in burlap bags to shroud them from the gaze of the thousands of persons who gathered moon after the collision.

More than one hundred members of the women's motor corps of America responded with cars to the calls for help.

TURKS GIVING UP UNDER ARMISTICE

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE. and repair facilities at all Turkish ports and armaments.

Eighteenth—The surrender of all ports occupied in Tripolitania and Cyrenaica, including Misurata, to the nearest allied garrison.

Nineteenth—All Germans and Austrians, naval, military or civilian, from Turkish dominions and those in remote districts as soon after that time as may be possible.

Twentieth—Compliance with such orders as may be conveyed for the disposal of equipment, arms and ammunition, including the transport of that portion of the Turkish army which is demobilized under clause 5.

Allies Interests Safeguarded. Twentieth—An allied representative to be attached to the Turkish ministry of supplies in order to safeguard allied interests. This representative to be furnished with all aid necessary for this purpose.

Attack on Germany From East Through Back Door Predicted

LONDON, Nov. 1.—An allied attack on Germany from the east was foreshadowed by George Nicol James, member of the British war cabinet, in a speech last evening at the American officers' club in London.

The armistice with Turkey might have been signed earlier, said Mr. James, but we held the Turks on a string.

He explained that the allies were committed to a free Arab state with Aleppo as the capital and there was no hurry to get the Turks out of the war until Aleppo was captured. Other places as necessary to the Arabs as Aleppo also must be surrendered.

"The British have been assembling ships at the mouth of the Taurus for some time and Mr. James said he understood the vessels already had started through the straits.

He concluded: "There is nothing to prevent the fleet from going to the Black sea and up the Danube to Germany's back door, and if the Germans are going to defend their territory they must divide their remaining forces between the western front and the back door, at which we shall soon be knocking."

Two new cases among the oil workers on this lease were reported late yesterday evening.

EIGHTY-FIVE DIE IN TRAIN WRECK. CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE. were unable to give a coherent account of their experiences.

When the first car jumped the track it sideswiped the west wall and ran along the ties for nearly 100 feet. The cars behind it crashed through it, then bucked against the roof and fell.

The tragedy marked the first day of a strike called by the company's members to enforce the reinstatement of 29 discharged members of Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers as ordered by the national war labor board.

District Attorney Lewis said all officers of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company and every person connected with the accident had been ordered arrested. He said the company was withholding the name of the motorman.

Mr. Lewis said that the motorman of the leading train was going at high speed when he turned into the curve. The cars behind it crashed through it, then bucked against the roof and fell.

According to survivors, the motorman was unused to the road, as he was compelled to back up at one point after he had taken the wrong switch.

Both trains were jammed with passengers as the strike had resulted in a material reduction in service.

Immediately after the crash the wrecked cars burst into flames. Rescue work was retarded by the cut through the crash occurred as no one could hardly clamber up the steep concrete walls.

The injured and dead were carried up ladders. Charred bodies were placed in burlap bags to shroud them from the gaze of the thousands of persons who gathered moon after the collision.

More than one hundred members of the women's motor corps of America responded with cars to the calls for help.

TURKS GIVING UP UNDER ARMISTICE

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE. and repair facilities at all Turkish ports and armaments.

Eighteenth—The surrender of all ports occupied in Tripolitania and Cyrenaica, including Misurata, to the nearest allied garrison.

Nineteenth—All Germans and Austrians, naval, military or civilian, from Turkish dominions and those in remote districts as soon after that time as may be possible.

Twentieth—Compliance with such orders as may be conveyed for the disposal of equipment, arms and ammunition, including the transport of that portion of the Turkish army which is demobilized under clause 5.

Allies Interests Safeguarded. Twentieth—An allied representative to be attached to the Turkish ministry of supplies in order to safeguard allied interests. This representative to be furnished with all aid necessary for this purpose.

Attack on Germany From East Through Back Door Predicted

LONDON, Nov. 1.—An allied attack on Germany from the east was foreshadowed by George Nicol James, member of the British war cabinet, in a speech last evening at the American officers' club in London.

The armistice with Turkey might have been signed earlier, said Mr. James, but we held the Turks on a string.

He explained that the allies were committed to a free Arab state with Aleppo as the capital and there was no hurry to get the Turks out of the war until Aleppo was captured. Other places as necessary to the Arabs as Aleppo also must be surrendered.

"The British have been assembling ships at the mouth of the Taurus for some time and Mr. James said he understood the vessels already had started through the straits.

He concluded: "There is nothing to prevent the fleet from going to the Black sea and up the Danube to Germany's back door, and if the Germans are going to defend their territory they must divide their remaining forces between the western front and the back door, at which we shall soon be knocking."

Attack on Germany From East Through Back Door Predicted

LONDON, Nov. 1.—An allied attack on Germany from the east was foreshadowed by George Nicol James, member of the British war cabinet, in a speech last evening at the American officers' club in London.

The armistice with Turkey might have been signed earlier, said Mr. James, but we held the Turks on a string.

He explained that the allies were committed to a free Arab state with Aleppo as the capital and there was no hurry to get the Turks out of the war until Aleppo was captured. Other places as necessary to the Arabs as Aleppo also must be surrendered.

"The British have been assembling ships at the mouth of the Taurus for some time and Mr. James said he understood the vessels already had started through the straits.

He concluded: "There is nothing to prevent the fleet from going to the Black sea and up the Danube to Germany's back door, and if the Germans are going to defend their territory they must divide their remaining forces between the western front and the back door, at which we shall soon be knocking."

Two new cases among the oil workers on this lease were reported late yesterday evening.

EIGHTY-FIVE DIE IN TRAIN WRECK. CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE. were unable to give a coherent account of their experiences.

When the first car jumped the track it sideswiped the west wall and ran along the ties for nearly 100 feet. The cars behind it crashed through it, then bucked against the roof and fell.

The tragedy marked the first day of a strike called by the company's members to enforce the reinstatement of 29 discharged members of Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers as ordered by the national war labor board.

District Attorney Lewis said all officers of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company and every person connected with the accident had been ordered arrested. He said the company was withholding the name of the motorman.

Mr. Lewis said that the motorman of the leading train was going at high speed when he turned into the curve. The cars behind it crashed through it, then bucked against the roof and fell.

According to survivors, the motorman was unused to the road, as he was compelled to back up at one point after he had taken the wrong switch.

Both trains were jammed with passengers as the strike had resulted in a material reduction in service.

Immediately after the crash the wrecked cars burst into flames. Rescue work was retarded by the cut through the crash occurred as no one could hardly clamber up the steep concrete walls.

The injured and dead were carried up ladders. Charred bodies were placed in burlap bags to shroud them from the gaze of the thousands of persons who gathered moon after the collision.

More than one hundred members of the women's motor corps of America responded with cars to the calls for help.

TURKS GIVING UP UNDER ARMISTICE

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE. and repair facilities at all Turkish ports and armaments.

Eighteenth—The surrender of all ports occupied in Tripolitania and Cyrenaica, including Misurata, to the nearest allied garrison.

N