

NINTH INNING RALLY GIVES TULSA VICTORY OVER OMAHA

SLATTERY'S HIT BREAKS UP GAME

First Baseman Again Comes Through With Hard and Timely Blows.

OILERS AGAIN SHOW PUNCH

Come From Behind in Second Successive Day; Sioux City Here Today.

By LARRY DAILEY
For the second time in as many days the Tulsa oilers, bunting decisively in the final inning, again with an effective punch, won the last game of the series with Omaha yesterday, making it three out of four.

It was one of those exciting games that make the fans go wild and send them home more satisfied than ever. The enough hitting to make it interesting, but not enough to show the game up. Then the splendid finish of the Oilers and the demonstration that they are as dangerous when behind as when in front is as great a feature as the victory itself.

Hill Jackson elected to send Slattery to the mound and the big win was not until the final score. Salisbury won Abbott's second choice and he turned in a creditable game.

Slattery Is the Hero

Again it was the bat of Joe Slattery that brought victory to the Oilers, though the first baseman was also assisted by his mates. It was Slattery's crashing hit that scored the winning tally in the ninth and it was his hit and run the first that beat the locals even with the Omahans with that with him.

Slattery started the scoring in the first inning. Dugan misjudged Gisselason's fly, barely reaching the ball and by the time the left fielder had recovered, Gisselason was on third. Jackson's single brought him in.

The Oilers came back in their half and tied the count. After Wulfli had homered, Slattery beat out a hard hit under to Jackson. Dula was given a life on Mason's error. Slattery going to third, from which he scored on Thomason's well executed sacrifice bunt.

Four Balls Pitched in Fourth

Both clubs were unable to tally thereafter until the eighth, though both succeeded in getting men on frequently.

In the fourth inning, Salisbury reloaded the sides with four pitched balls. Dunesen took up in the eighth, starting off, was sacrificed to third by Duley and scored on Mason's error. Slattery going to third, from which he scored on Thomason's well executed sacrifice bunt.

Cleveland Does Share

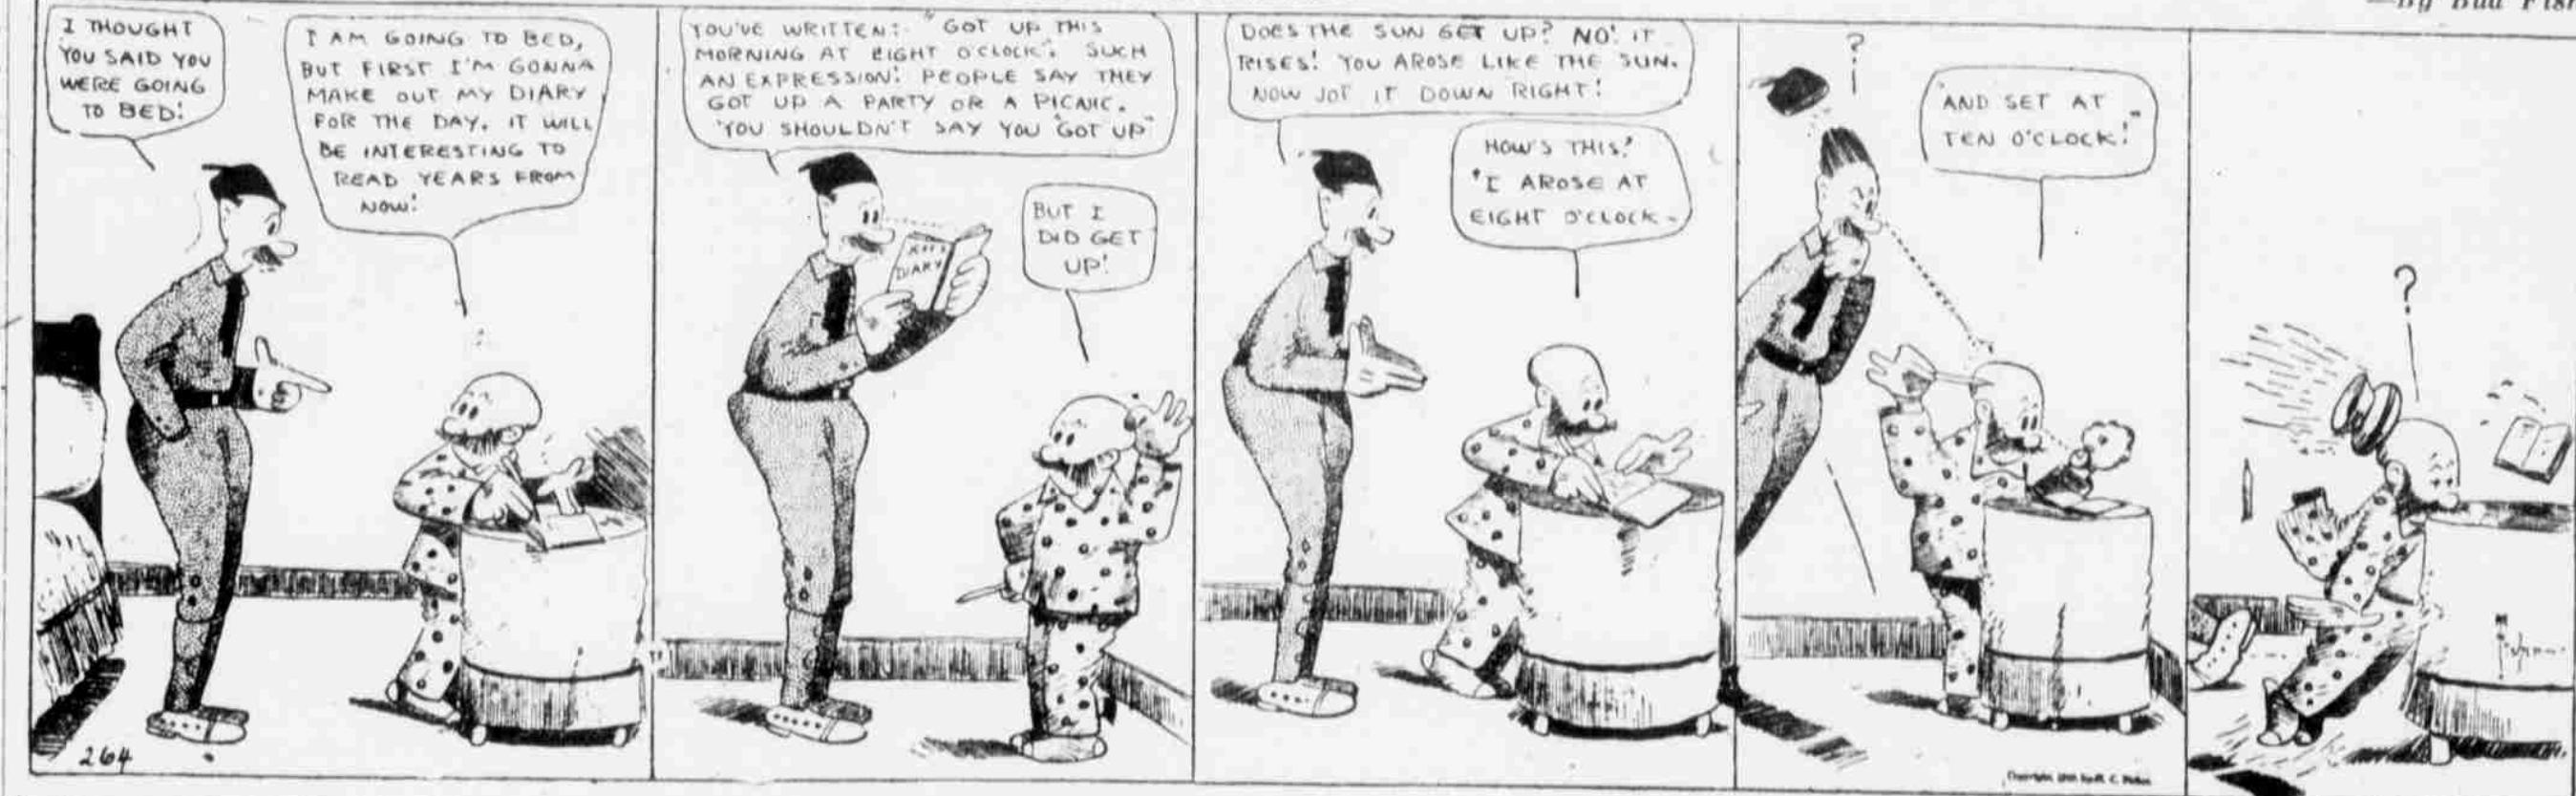

Remembering the Oilers' rally Sunday, the Indians kept their bats in the ninth. Cleveland led with a single to left. Dugan grounded to Wulfli, but Hazeen dropped Goodwin. In the second, after a double to right, the Indians accounted for O'Brien and would have gone for a double had O'Brien's score ended the game.

Bartley and Tearney, pitcher and second baseman, obtained from the Kansas City American association club in a trade for Jess Haines last night and will arrive this morning. Red Shaeffer, pitcher who was also to come to the Indians in the trade is being retained by manager Ganzel of the Blues until Evans, recently purchased from Pitman, arrives.

Tulsa City starts a three-game series here today. Manager Abbott will probably send Hayne to the slab for the Oilers.
