ANDREW and IMOGENE

BY BOB FULKERSON. "I REK by the paper," said Imogene, "that a woman's club is being organized which has for its object the promotion of a bill to compel all married men to wear a thumb ring."

"That's another snag at the men who patronize Atlantic City," said Andrew. "I certainly don't see why," said Imogene. "Married women all wear wedding rings and I see for a reason why men should be ashamed to let the world know they are married."

"Meanest Man in Town" Subject for Minister of Jazz Sunday Night

WOW, somebody better look out for that's the subject of Rev. Harold G. Cooke's sermon next Sunday night.

Tulsa's jangling preacher has not been doing any "sleuth-footing" but he has had his eyes open during the eight months he has been in Tulsa and he has surely got someone's number. He refuses to divulge the name of the notorious character whose deep, dark past he intends to expose at the Tiger Memorial church, near Sunday night, but it is a safe bet that he has the goods on someone.
