DAY IS MARKED BY QUIET

At 7:30 o'clock this morning three units comprising the national guard contingent in Tulsa will leave for Henryetta, where they have been ordered by Governor Robertson for duty during the strike of coal miners.

OPERATORS WAIT ON GOVERNOR

Special to The World. OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 1.—With full reports at hand from all of the Oklahoma coal mines indicating that all were idle, Governor J. B. A. Robertson late today said that he was considering the issuance of a proclamation asking that able bodied men volunteer their services to work the coal mines in place of the strikers. He would not say just when the call would be made. The volunteers would be given protection by troops.

The governor will confer Monday with representatives of the operators' association relative to issuing a general call for workers. It is believed by the governor and many of the operators that the number of skilled, experienced men left on the work can train green, unskilled workers sufficiently in a short time to whip up production to a point that will at least stave off serious suffering near inconvenience in the state.

A movement of troops towards the McAlester district will start at 6 o'clock Sunday morning when a special train of 300 men of the Third regiment leaves this city. Troops from other state cities also will leave at that hour for Coalgate or Henryetta.

OPERATORS WAIT ON STATE ACTION.

MALDEN, Okla., Nov. 1.—State troops under command of Colonel Barrett will arrive in McAlester Sunday Governor Robertson announced today in a long distance call. He would not say how many troops were to come here. The men will be stationed in this city while the strike lasts in order to be in close touch with the coal fields and railroad main lines from this point extending to the coal mine territory in all directions.

We are under the governor's orders and at his command are holding the mines ready for operation at all times," Dorset Carter, president of the Oklahoma Coal Operators' association, said today. All operations of the state had a consultation here today. Nothing concerning the result of the conference was made public.

With a quietness usually noticed Sunday in the coal mining towns, the strike heralded broad daylight as one that was sure to produce such hitternot unparalleled, was in at midnight last night in McAlester field. Judging from the American miners, especially those who have become American citizens during the strike period, today is something akin to a holiday for them. This was exemplified at Krebs, Harshorn, Gavins and Anderson, principal mining towns around McAlester. The miners, as to future plans or what they think of the situation are quiet, brief and altogether lacking in information.

We are in the hands of the national officers of the United Mine Workers of America, what they say is law with us. It is the reply from local strike leaders.

Twenty Dead Bodies Are Taken From Mine

AMSTERDAM, Ohio, Nov. 1.—Twenty dead bodies have been removed from the Y. & O. mine at Amsterdam. It is believed these include all that were in the mine.

Attorney General Tells Aides to Report All Violations of Court Order—Keep Reds Away, Prevent Profiteering.

UNION MEN OUT; NON-UNIONISTS STAY

Operators Get Reports That Members of Union Walk Out While Others Remain on Job; Test Monday

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Instructions were issued today by Attorney General Palmer to all United States attorneys, to keep closely in touch with the situation in their districts and report promptly any case that may be brought to their attention by either union or non-union miners to the facilities for transporting, producing, supplying, storing or dealing in coal, or to exact excessive prices.

While no official explanation of the order was available, one purpose aimed at was understood to be to prevent radical agitators among the idle coal miners from obtaining a leadership.

It was made public tonight following the return to Washington of C. H. Ames, assistant to Mr. Palmer, who reported for the government the situation in the coal strike issued yesterday at Indianapolis by Judge Anderson. Mr. Ames will assist in the administration of the fuel and food control laws, but would not discuss the government's plans.

Palmer's Orders.

Mr. Palmer's instructions to the district attorneys follow: "Yesterday, at Indianapolis, Judge Anderson, on the application of the United States, issued a temporary restraining order restraining a large number of the United Mine Workers from taking any step of proceeding of any kind whatsoever in furtherance of the bituminous coal strike, which had been previously called. It is of the utmost importance that I should be promptly advised of any concerted action by any two or more persons, either employees, strikers, or others, which amounts to an agreement to limit the facilities for transporting, producing, supplying, storing or dealing in coal, or to restrict the supply or distribution of water, or to exact excessive prices for coal, or to aid or abet in the doing of any such act, you should advise me at once by giving me names and full particulars."
