

M'PARTLAND TO REFEREE SCRAP

New Yorker to be Third Man in Ring in Leonard and Duffy Title Go.

DUFFY IS DUE HERE TODAY

Lockport Scrapper Will Begin Workouts Today if He Arrives in Time.

By LARRY DAILEY

"Kid" McPartland of New York, former world's featherweight champion, and one of the most widely known referees in the boxing world has been agreed upon as third man in the ring in the Benny Leonard-Jimmy Duffy 15-round battle for the lightweight championship here next Monday night.

McPartland was referee in the Freddy Welsh-Leonard bout at New York May 28, 1917, when Welsh was counted out in the ninth round while still on his feet, thus giving Leonard the title, which he has held since that date.

Several Tulsans have seen Lockport Duffy and all are agreed that he is a tough battler, one who will give the world's champion a battle.

Duffy and Manager Shannon left New York for Tulsa Saturday and are due to arrive here today. Duffy will work out today should he arrive in time.

Leonard is to leave New York tomorrow at midnight and will arrive here Friday morning. If train connections are made at Wichita, Leonard will work in Tulsa Friday and Saturday.

Two former service champions are to meet in the semi-finals of the Sperry basketball tournament here tonight.

KENDALL AND NOTRE DAME TO PLAY HERE

Guarantee Sent Catholic School—Date Doubtful—Kendall Meets Aggies Nov. 22.

Setting of the date remains as the final step in securing a Kendall college Notre Dame football game for Tulsa. Tulsa business men interested in the bringing to Tulsa of the famous western university eleven, which will be the biggest gridiron battle ever staged in the southwest, have signified their desire to back the project should that move be necessary.

It is considered a certainty that Notre Dame will be willing to play the game Saturday, November 29. They are scheduled to meet Moraine college of Des Moines at Des Moines, Iowa, Thanksgiving day, but as this game is only a minor game, they probably consent to the playing of a game here Thanksgiving week.

As was expected, Yals came through with the sort of win that has given New Haven plenty of confidence for Saturday's game with Princeton. It was only a case of bull dog eleven finding itself.

Coaches Schmidt and McInerney are pointing the Kendall squad for its game of a week from Saturday when the orange and black of Kendall meets the orange and black of the Oklahoma Aggies.

ROPER'S COACHING IS VINDICATED SATURDAY

Sensational Play of Princeton in Harvard Game Places Roper Among Great Mentors.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Bill Roper's system of football instruction stands today fully vindicated in the eyes of all gridiron circles. The sensational game which his Tigers played through with lawn in Princeton stadium on Saturday, was such that it places the Longhorn mentor among the greatest coaches of all times.

The fact that Princeton did not triumph over Harvard does not enter into the discussion at all. Roper's team surprised a number of critics by its spectacular offense and stone wall defense. Their feat is no more remarkable when it is taken into consideration that but three of those who sported the orange and black had ever before taken part in a championship match.

MATTSON WINS GOLF TITLE FROM PAINTER

G. A. Mattson, state amateur golf champion, won the first leg on the preceding cup and Tulsa Country club golf championship on the club links Sunday when he defeated Jay Painter 2 up and 2 on 34 holes in a 36-hole match.

Displaying fine team work and accurate shooting the First M. E. defeated the Harrier team Saturday night. Score 62 to 18. Dunlap and Nelson starred for the victors while Campbell played well for the losers.

Lightning pass work and scrappy play marked the Kendall-Christian battle. It was probably the fastest battle of the schedule thus far, and the result was in doubt the major part of the game.
