Last of Commerce Ships Awarded Oklahoma in Loan Drives.

OAKLAND, CALIF.

Mrs. J. W. Hoover to Smash a Bottle of Creek County Oil on Vessel.

SAPULPA, Dec. 15.—A bottle of petroleum from one of the big producing wells in Creek county will probably be used by Mrs. J. W. Hoover on Saturday at Oakland, when she christens the steamship Sapulpa. She is now en route to Oakland.

This will be the last of the vessels of the United States shipping board given names of Oklahoma towns and cities that did considerable work during the Liberty loan campaign.

Recently the steamship Vinia was launched at San Diego, and the steamship Tulsa was launched some months ago at Newport News, Va., while the steamship Oklahoma City is to be launched at Mobile, Ala.

STATE BRIEFS

MADRID, Dec. 15.—On January 1 a proposition to issue bonds in the amount of $400,000 for enlarging and improving the water supply will be submitted to the voters of Madrid.

LEHIGH, Dec. 15.—As a result of the coal strike, business men of Lehigh have decided to cultivate trade relations with the farmers in preference to the miners who have heretofore been considered the principal source of income.

WILBURTON, Dec. 15.—By example, Dr. T. L. Henry is trying to induce farmers of Latimer county to devote more attention to building up their dairy herds. He has recently enlarged by purchase his herd of pure-bred Jersey cattle.

BEAVER, Dec. 15.—The Ledger Dispatch, the only newspaper in this town, has just suffered a complete loss of its plant by fire. The $7,000 insurance policy lapsed a few days before the fire.

PAWBUKA, Dec. 15.—After deliberating 50 minutes, the jury on Friday night acquitted Sam Turk of the charge of murder in connection with the killing of Charles P. Mayor about a year ago. The court dismissed the case against Enforcement Officer Castle, who was also implicated in the charge.
