LOCAL HOTEL WAS VICTIM OF HOLDUP

Lone Gunman Took About $75 from Lobby of Admiral.

THEN POLICE ARRIVED

George White Was Booked After Getting Only a Block With Loot.

Armed with a heavy revolver, a man entered the Admiral hotel, 1230 Admiral, about 10 o'clock last night and commanded about eight persons who were in the lobby to "stick 'em up."

A woman, unseen by the highwayman, slipped through a back door and ran to a telephone. Patrolmen Roy Marcham, H. R. Boyd and "Crazy" John started immediately from the police station and arrived on the scene shortly after the gunman had taken about $75 from the pockets of the people in the lobby and had started up the street.

When accosted by the three patrolmen, the man surrendered and was taken to the city jail where he gave the name of George White. He said that he recently came here from Hominy, where he had been working on a pipe line. He was about 35 years old and when searched was found to have about $75 which he is supposed to have taken from the patrons of the hotel. He also had a formidable looking six-shooter. White was lodged in the city jail pending investigation of the alleged theft.

The Admiral hotel is operated by Joseph Baker.

NEGRO FOUND GUILTY

Sentence of Two Years Returned in District Court Against Man Charged With Larceny.

Charged with the theft of two auto tires on June 12, 1918, Jim Austin, a negro, who prior to the alleged theft was employed by the O. A. Stiner Tire company, was found guilty by the jury before which he was tried in district court yesterday and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. The defendant gave notice of appeal of the case to the Oklahoma criminal court of appeals.

Testimony introduced by the state showed that Austin had terminated his employment with the Stiner company a few days prior to the theft of the two tires valued at $97.80, but returned to the store on June 12 and was around the place for several hours. One of the employes saw him leaving the building with the tires and overtook the defendant several blocks from the tire company store on East First street.

Although his attorney explained to the jury that the negro would show that he purchased the tires from another negro, who might have stolen the property, Austin, on the witness stand denied having any tires in his possession. The jury was out only a few minutes before returning its verdict.

ANDREWS FUNERAL TODAY

Body of Former Tulsa Woman Who Died in Ft. Worth Wednesday.

The funeral services for Mrs. E. E. Andrews, wife of a local oil man, who died in Fort Worth, Texas, Saturday, will be held from the First Methodist Episcopal church Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Ladies of the Aaba court will meet on the second floor of the church building at 2:45 p. m., and attend the services in a body. Interment will be made at Rose Hill cemetery.

The Andrews family lived here until in 1907 when they moved to Fort Worth. Mrs. Andrews is survived by two sons, Howard and Leon Andrews of Fort Worth, two daughters, Mrs. Ruth Green of Yale, and Mrs. Mabel Buchanan of Whittier, Cal.

MRS. WILSON BOUND OVER

Accused of Beating and Robbing Man of $700; Must Face Trial.

Charged with assaulting and robbing an old man, Mrs. Ethel Wilson, 1219 East Hodge street, was committed to jail yesterday at the conclusion of her preliminary hearing before Justice H. J. Gray for trial by district court.

G. M. Goodwin, 12 South Owasso, the complainant, claims Mrs. Wilson with the assistance of an unknown man beat him over the head on the night of December 21 while he was at the Wilson home and then took more than $700 from his pocket. Goodwin says he had obtained whisky at the Wilson home and that after he became intoxicated the assault took place.

LARCENY CHARGE DISMISSED

Man and Wife Held Not Guilty of Stealing Quilts and Pillows.

Unable to show any intention of the defendant to commit grand larceny, the case against Arrizio Cateldo and his wife, Della Cateldo, was dismissed at preliminary hearing yesterday before Justice H. J. Gray, the prisoners proving that they found a quantity of bedding in an abandoned home in Sand Springs on December 1, and that after using diligence in attempting to find the rightful owner, converted the property to their own use.

The information against the defendants, signed by Mrs. O. W. Newell, accuses them of stealing the bedding, but proof showed that the bedding, valued at $35, was left in a house with unlocked doors and that the defendants violated no law in removing the property.

Many Were Given Aid.

The Tulsa county humane society proved indeed "a friend in need" to Tulsa needy during the month ending December 31, 1919. Rents were paid for 11 families, fuel furnished for 15, gas bills paid for six and 42 orders placed for groceries. 210 Persons were given clothing, the pieces furnished amounting to 2,120. One hundred and forty new garments were purchased for children. One hundred and twenty pairs of old shoes were awarded and 25 pairs of new footwear. The calls made in sickness and in juvenile work were many.

Schedule of Baptist Campaign for Tulsa

Wednesday at First Baptist church, 10 a. m., devotional hour, Dr. Bailey; song leader, Mr. W. J. Work; 10:30 a. m., solo, Mr. Work; duet, Messrs. Allbright and Blankenship; reports; quartet, campaign quartet.

At all Baptist churches, 7:30 p. m., evangelistic services, visiting evangelists and singers.

Campaign News Notes.

There have been over 50 additions to the Baptist churches of Tulsa and vicinity since the beginning of the evangelical services.

The dominant note at the union day service Tuesday was the great need of intercessory prayer upon the part of Christian people for the lost. The service was one of deep spiritual power.

Rev. D. R. Wade, pastor of the First Baptist church of Guthrie and for years a member of the Baptist home mission board's evangelistic staff, arrived yesterday in the city and preached last night at the Immanuel church.

Rev. W. T. Conkwright of Sapulpa, Mr. Harry Allbright of Oklahoma City and Mrs. M. A. Dummens and Mrs. H. V. Garnett of Nowata are all in the city attending the revival. Mr. Allbright, who for a while sang tenor in the campaign quartet, will sing at the union meeting at the First church at 10:30 this morning.

MOVIES TO TEACH RETAILERS

Business Methods to be Illustrated By Motion Pictures Here.

Motion pictures as a means of teaching modern business methods is the departure that will be attempted at 8 o'clock at the municipal auditorium on Thursday and Friday nights, under the auspices of the Retail Merchants association.

Several reels will be shown dealing with the troubles of a merchant and showing how they can be eliminated. How to deal with clerks will be explained, as will the values of newspaper advertising. Store organization, window displays, credit systems, selling methods, and kindred subjects all interesting to the man in the retail business will be illustrated by the moving pictures.

FAVOR A SALARY INCREASE

Educational Officials in Session at New York Draft Program.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Material increases in teachers' salaries were urged today in a program formulated by public education officials from nine eastern states as a means of relieving a critical shortage of teachers which has closed hundreds of public schools and threatens to close more.

"The public schools of the nation are facing a critical situation," says the program. "In the states of the Atlantic seaboard hundreds of schools are closed because teachers are not available for them."

Miner Instantly Killed.

Asensin A. Wbarra, 38 years old, was instantly killed at 12 o'clock yesterday at the Hickory mines when he was caught in a belt. His head was split open and his chest badly bruised. The body was removed to the Robert McBirney undertaking parlors of Tulsa. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

SIX HELD MAY BE 'WHITE SLAVERS'

Tulsa Police Capture a Couple Wanted in Denver.

Six alleged white slavers were arrested in Tulsa yesterday and are being held by the police here pending investigation of their travels since they left Denver last fall. May Collins and H. R. Gosser, two of the alleged Mann act violators, are being held for the Denver police on a forgery charge.

Four others held here gave the names of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Dunson and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Ryerson. The couples claim to have left Denver several months ago, traveling through various Kansas towns. The two girls who claim to be the wives of Dunson and Ryerson are sisters, they told detectives. Their maiden name was Hopper and both formerly lived at Hutchinson, Kan. Their husbands are ex-soldiers, discharged from the army last June. The trip through Kansas was made partly by rail, the couples having been together since leaving Denver. The motor car which brought them overland was sold in a Kansas town for $75 they claim.

Papers from the Denver police are en route here for the extradition of the Gosser-Collins couple, who are charged with forgery.

PLEADS GUILTY TO ASSAULT

Frank Burke Fined $50 and Costs in District Court Yesterday.

Frank Burke, accused of assault with intent to kill upon the person of H. M. Wooley on the Bruner farm five miles northwest of Tulsa on December 16, 1918, entered a plea of guilty at the opening of his trial in district court, division No. 2 yesterday, and was fined $50 and costs.

Burke and Wooley had a quarrel and later Burke, according to the story of the complainant, fired several shots from a revolver at Wooley. Burke plead not guilty at his arraignment but yesterday when his case was called for trial decided to change his plea.

TOWN CLUB HOLDS MEETING

"How I Spent the Holidays" Subject of Talks at Semi-Monthly Dinner

A one-minute talk on "How I Spent the Holidays" was given by each member of the Tulsa Town club at the semi-monthly dinner and monthly business meeting in the Kennedy restaurant Monday evening. Most of the members had returned from their vacations.

Following the report on the 31 pairs of stockings which were filled and delivered to the county poor farm Christmas and the many individual gifts distributed, plans for the coming year were discussed. At present the club is "marking time" while awaiting definite information as to the securing of a community service worker.

Kerr to Speak at Rotary.

Alexander H. Kerr of the Kerr Glass company, will be the chief speaker at the regular luncheon meeting of the Rotary club at noon Wednesday at Hotel Tulsa. At what will be the first meeting of the club of the New Year Mr. Kerr will discuss a system that he uses in his business and one that he declares will bring success to any business man.

Sheriff Finds Auto Near Here After An Extended Search

An automobile stolen from John Lamberton in this city September 15 has been found by Sheriff James Woolley after the officer, by telegrams, traced cars similar to the one stolen from the middle west to the east coast. The car was found in possession of a man at Vern station, but no prosecution will follow because the county authorities believe the man to be an innocent purchaser of the stolen property.

After the theft of the car, the property disappeared but one month ago by telegraphing the factory, Woolley learned that a man in Pennsylvania had a Hudson car of this model and the same factory number as the one at Vern station. Woolley further examined the local automobiles and found a number which had not been altered and this corresponded with the number of Lamberton's car.

WOMAN ASKS DAMAGES

Plaintiff Says She Was Permanently Injured When Defendant Caused Her to Leave Sick Bed.

Alleging her health has been permanently injured and her left leg amputated as the result of injuries received when she was forcibly ejected, under threats, from her home by the defendants, owners of the property, suit of Mrs. Maggie Jones against S. J. Perkins and Martha Perkins began in district court No. 3, Judge J. L. Coffman presiding, yesterday afternoon. The case will be concluded today.

Mrs. Jones, in her petition, alleges she, with her husband and three children, were tenants of a two-room house on South Owasso avenue. While the plaintiff was recovering from the influenza, and not able to be out of her bed, she claims Mrs. Perkins came to the home, and when Mrs. Jones could not produce $15 due on the house rental, Mrs. Perkins, with threats of physical violence, compelled the plaintiff to rise and attempt to leave the house. Mrs. Jones says she was not acquainted with her legal rights in the matter, and in attempting to carry out the orders of Mrs. Perkins, in her weakened condition she fell from the steps of the house. This fall, she claims, resulted in injuries which later necessitated the amputation of her left leg, for which she asks damages of $50,000.

INSTALL OFFICERS SUNDAY

John Rogers Is President of the Christian Endeavorers.

The roster of the Christian Endeavor society of the First Christian church of Tulsa, which will go to press this week, will contain the names and addresses of officers of the organization and all members, both associate and active, with a designation to indicate to which group each member belongs. The roster is printed annually in pamphlet form.

The Christian Endeavorers, who are 85 strong, have separate social and business meetings each month. Installation of the new officers of the society for the first half of 1920 will take place Sunday evening, January 11, with Dr. Meade Dutt, the pastor, presiding. The officers are John Rogers, re-elected as president; McCarroll, vice president; Edith Dilling, secretary; Ralph Goldsmith, treasurer. Anna Walker, pianist, and Mary Smith, assistant pianist.

ELKS STAGE COMEDY

Scenery and Costumes Arrive While Amateur Actors and Actresses Practice songs and Dances.

"Let's Go Frisco," the big musical comedy to be presented by the Elks of Tulsa is rapidly getting under way, under the personal direction of J. A. Burnsky of Chicago. All of the parts are assigned and regular rehearsals are being held.

All of the scenery and costumes for the productions have arrived from Chicago and local Elks are enthusiastic over the prospect of a very successful presentation. More than 100 local people will appear in the comedy and special chorus numbers as well as many singing and dancing solos will feature the affair.

A 25-minute minstrel act is a new attraction that has been added to "Let's Go Frisco" and work at rehearsals indicates that this part of the show will be especially entertaining. Seats have already been reserved by the cast of Elks that presented the production recently at Bartlesville and delegations of Elks and their friends are expected to attend from surrounding towns.

SEEKING MORE EVIDENCE

Additional Arrests Expected in Ragland Case, Killed Near Konawa.

Special to The World

ADA, Jan. 6.—Sheriff Frank Gratis of Seminole county, and Fred Bowles, deputy at Sasakwa, were in Ada today running down evidence relative to the killing of Tom Ragland, near Konawa on the night of January 1. They left in the afternoon for Konawa where it is generally expected more arrests will be made in a short time. Lorad Hurratt, who is in jail here in connection with the killing talks freely. He says on the night of the killing he was loading hogs at the home of a neighbor. He insists he can prove an alibi.

Two Fires Reported.

Two fires were reported yesterday in Tulsa. Shortly before 9 o'clock last night an alarm from the Robinson arcade attracted a crowd of people and three fire engines, but no blaze could be found when firemen searched the building. A fire yesterday morning damaged the $150,750 plant of the Hinderliter Tool company to the extent of about $4.00. The tool plant is located near the Frisco tracks at Madison street.

Morgan's Daughter May Come to Tulsa On Charity Tour

Miss Anne Morgan, only daughter of the late J. P. Morgan, financier, may appear in Tulsa soon if plans now being formulated are carried out. Mrs. Hussey and Mrs. Sheehan arrived here yesterday from Kansas City to arrange a speaking date for Miss Morgan and are conferring with Mrs. Frank H. Greer and Earl Sinclair regarding the matter.

Miss Morgan has been touring the country since her return from war work over seas and is touring in the interest of a fund for the rebuilding of the devastated cities of France. Her talks are illustrated by motion pictures of the actual conditions in the cities where she served during the struggle.

AID PERSECUTED JEWS

Tulsans Give Large Donations Toward Saving Suffering Hebrews in Europe.

For the purpose of assisting the suffering Jews in Palestine and eastern Europe who are being persecuted and massacred by the thousands and to make possible the preaching of the gospel to the Jews in those countries, the Hebrew Christian Alliance of America has undertaken to raise $1,000,000.

Among the larger donations that are reported to Rev. A. Lichtenstein, field secretary, are the following: Alexander H. Kerr, Kerr Glass company $1,000; S. B. Floeter, Wolverine Oil company $200; A. Lichtenstein $2,000; Anna Painter $2,000; A. H. Buhl, Parisian Cleaners, $500; Mrs. J. C. Kavanaugh $300; Harry L. Toggery Shop $750; George Harrison $200; O. S. Warfield $500; C. S. Fenwick $100; T. W. Summers $100; E. Roger Kemp $100.
