

The January Clearance Sale at Vandevers

The Clearing movement that is going on throughout the store affords ample and liberal opportunity to secure many lines of varied merchandise, at prices which will probably not be again possible this year.

Already prices in the market on much of the merchandise, now being offered is as high, sometimes higher than the prices first marked on our price tickets; so that as our prices are reduced from 10 to 50 percent, it is obvious that those who are purchasingat these Clearance Sale prices, are benefiting in a way that will go far to reduce the high cost of living.
