Mrs. E. Forrest Hayden Would Attend as a Delegate. FILES HER CANDIDACY

Another Woman Is Already in Race; Mrs. Carson of Miami, Okla.

Announcement was authorized yesterday of the candidacy of Mrs. E. Forrest Hayden, a prominent civic worker and former suffrage leader, for delegate from the First Oklahoma congressional district to the national democratic convention at San Francisco on June 21. She stated last night that she has been assured the united support of the Tulsa county delegation at the Muskogee convention on Thursday and is in the fight to the last ditch. She is the only candidate from Tulsa county who has so far announced.

The democratic women of the district will ask the convention to name one man and one woman as delegates. Her only opposition on the feminine side of the fence is Mrs. Usher Carson of Miami, and formerly of this city. The Ottawa county delegation is said to be pledged to its favorite daughter.

Mrs. Hayden is conducting a very aggressive campaign, she telephoned yesterday to practically every one of the county delegates and believes that her fences are in perfect order. The female contingent is prepared for a battle royal when her name is presented to the district convention as Tulsa county's candidate.

The Tulsa delegation will leave here at 6 o'clock Thursday morning in a special train over the Katy so as to arrive in Muskogee in ample time for the opening of the convention.

Uncle Eb's Philosophy

"LIFE EZ I KNOWS IT"

BY EBENEZER HEZEKIAH HOLDEN

"THE MAN who is a professor of athletes and tells others how to live a hundred years usually dies at thirty-five of heart failure. I never saw no sense in this physical culture, no-how. The farmer or the carpenter or the blacksmith lives to be ninety, uses his brain considerable, too, and don't think about his stomach or his muscles all the time. I know a hull lot of people that always think about their stomachs. It's them that tell me if I stop eating meat and good wholesome victuals and take up with some new fangled bran-mash sanitary food I'd live to be a hundred in the shade, and the next day I get an invitation from the family to come to the funeral. That party that told me how to take care of my stomach died of catarrh of the stomach. That was all that saved his family, for he was teachin' the whole family to live on bran-mash and cereals, or whatever you call 'em, and the family were slowly wasting away. Men who try to get TOO STRONG, I notice, usually eat too much and die of heart failure. The man who works his brain and his body just enough to keep a balance, usually attends the funeral of the other fellow. There's common sense in all things. Now, when I don't know what's best to do, I just sit down and read my book. That book is worth more than a whole library of novels. It's only cost me fifty cents, and it's called the 'Common Sense Medical Adviser,' and written by that Dr. Pierce, in Buffalo, N. Y., who founded the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute there.

"There ain't no nonsense about him. Say—he wrote me the other day and says—says he—there ain't nothin' the matter with you, Ebenezer—nothin' but old age, and if you go on livin' the same simple life you alias has, you'll live to spank the other feller's grand-children. You see, when I get billions, I just take one of them 'Pleasant Peleto's' of Dr. Pierce; they set me right and save me a whole lot of sickness. I don't get no microbes—for why—kase I jest haven't any weak spots. My organs is all active—I keep 'em so. Once I had a fit of sickness; my stomach was all out of order, and so my blood got pizened. I wrote to Dr. Pierce, and he told me not to eat so much fried pork and bacon and flapjacks, and then I took his vegetable extract and alterative, the 'Golden Medical Discovery.' That's the finest tonic for the stomach I ever heard of; it ain't no cocktail, either, for it aint got a particle of alcohol in it, but is just made from roots and 'erbs—a sort of nature's tonic—and say—it just throws out all those pizen that accumulate in your system, and puts you straight, and makes you as lively as a cricket. All of Doctor Pierce's family remedies are good, 'cause they're made from the formula of a doctor that knows his business.

Now, that was my old woman after 20 years of raisin' children, steamin' over the wash-tub, milkin' the cows, carryin' wood and cookin' for the hands, she somehow got run-down a bit, was lumpy over in the shoulders, back gave out, thin and weak, and that nervous cat couldn't move without her cryin'. What does she do but say it was all owing to her womanly weakness, and that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription would fix her all right, and it did—by bump! She looked 60 afore that, but she jest got strong, put on flesh, and now she's so strong, buxom, bloomin' and healthy I have to go out in the wood-shed, for peace and quiet, to smoke my pipe."

The experience of Uncle Eb is not unusual—any number of people throughout the United States depend on Dr. Pierce's standard home-remedies to keep them well or to overcome their different ills. You can consult Dr. Pierce's Medical Staff by letter, by addressing the Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and get the best possible medical advice absolutely free of charge.

Without exception the officers chosen by the club are the best that could be suggested for their respective positions," declared Arthur Settle, president; Leslie Rogers, vice president; Joseph Schneider, secretary; Elton Everett, treasurer; and Fay Anderson, assistant treasurer.

Extra measures are being taken by the police department, it is learned, to rid the city of "vags and dopes." A "vag" is any person with no visible means of support, whether he has money or not, it was stated, and a "dope" is a drug addict. Numerous cases of both classes as well as a few "gun toters" or persons carrying concealed weapons, have been brought in by the police. Twenty-seven were up for trial yesterday and a large number are "sojering up."

COLEMAN ASKS TO BE ALLOWED BOND

Alleged Slayer of James Knight Would Be Released From Jail.

Application of bond for the defendant was made in district court yesterday by counsel for Lindsay Coleman, who waived his preliminary hearing Monday before Justice R. C. Maxey on the charge of murder in connection with the death of James Knight in the Brown pharmacy 12 West First street, on the night of January 24.

Counsel for the defendant waived hearing after the state had introduced its testimony, and counsel was denied the right to introduce the testimony of Sandy McMillen, with whom it was claimed Knight quarreled just previous to the shooting. It was the contention of counsel for the defendant that at the time of this quarrel between the witness and Knight the latter also threatened the life of Coleman, and that when Knight returned to Coleman's store the latter shot him to death in self defense. Hearing on the habeas corpus proceedings will come before Judge Redmond St. Cole Monday morning.

HE DENIES PASSING CHECK

Ben McOsher Pleads Not Guilty to Charge of Uttering.

Ben McOsher, alias C. A. Bennett, charged with forging a check for $9.50 in this city November 22, and passing the instrument on the West Tulsa State bank on that day, entered a plea of not guilty at his arraignment yesterday before Justice R. C. Maxey and was committed to jail under bond of $500 for preliminary hearing February 13.

George A. Ashland, the complainant, claims McOsher signed the former's name to the instrument payable to Bennett, and then introduced the check, using the name of Bennett.

TULSA MUST FILE BID BY MARCH 1

A Strong Effort Will Be Made to Secure the Methodist School.

Tulsa's bid for the college to be established "somewhere in Oklahoma" by the M. E. church, south, must be filed before March 1 with R. E. L. Morgan, educational secretary for Oklahoma, according to information received yesterday by Rev. L. S. Barton, pastor of the Boston Avenue M. E. church here. Call for a meeting in Oklahoma City on March 3 of the educational commission to consider bids for the location has just been issued, Doctor Barton, as one of the eight commissioners, will emphatically be "among those present," as he is as anxious as the rest of Tulsa that the school be brought here.

Strong efforts will be made to secure the school for Tulsa. A high grade co-educational institution, which will be worthy of the state and the religious body whose name it will bear, was provided for in the plan adopted by the east and west Oklahoma conferences at their last sessions.

It is the wish of Bishop E. D. Moulton, chairman of the commission, that the location be chosen and work started as soon as possible. Representatives from the east Oklahoma conference on the commission are L. S. Barton, J. R. Abernathy, Orlando Swain and Horace Barnard, R. E. L. Morgan, J. W. Sims, Dr. T. U. Howell and T. M. Robinson, represent the west Oklahoma conference of the M. E. church, south.

Charivari Brings Firemen.

"Someone" pulled the firm alarm about 8:15 o'clock Monday night when a mock serenade near Fifth and Madison took on all the airs of a Forty-niner row. Shortly before dusk an overcast stove, it is believed, started a blaze in the Midland cafe on East Third street. Not much damage resulted, although part of a wall had to be cut down, firemen said, to get to the blaze with their hoses.

Carrying a Ton a Mile for less than a Cent

Freight rates have played a very small part in the rising cost of living.

Other causes—the waste of war, under-production, credit inflation—have added dollars to the cost of the necessities of life, while freight charges have added only cents.

The average charge for hauling a ton of freight a mile is less than a cent.

A suit of clothing that sold for $30 before the war was carried 2,265 miles by rail from Chicago to Los Angeles for 16 1/2 cents.

Now the freight charge is 22 cents and the suit sells for $50.

The cost of the suit has increased 20 do/hrs.

The freight on it has increased only 5 1/2 cents.

Other transportation charges enter into the cost of the finished article—carrying the wool to the mills and the cloth to the tailors—but these other charges amount to but a few cents more.

The $10 pair of shoes that used to sell for $5 goes from the New England factory to the Florida dealer for a freight charge of 5 2/3 cents—only one cent more than the pre-war rate.

Beef pays only two-thirds of a cent a pound freight from Chicago to New York.

American freight rates are the lowest in the world.
