

SOCIETY WOMAN'S WORLD AND WORK

LILIAN CRAWFORD PERKINS

"Music is love in search of a word."

The young moon hunts tonight o'er sleeping fields
Where slow streams glide, half hid in silver mist
O'er forests where the first small leaves uncurl
And the whole world dreams beneath the spell of spring.

The young moon hunts o'er heavy, foaming seas,
And walks the golden bridge across the waves
And on, beyond the farthest floating isles—
Into the sky where morning stars shine dim—
—Bertha Ten Eyck James.

Red and yellow carnations and roses emphasized the tones of the Shrine. On Wednesday evening a dance was given in convention hall when the Cleveland, Ohio, patrol gave a silent drill. Other attractive features were the costume dances by little Miss Katherine Anasta and the Chinese dance from "The Doll Shop," given by Miss Margaret Friedman, Katherine Baker and Edna Province. On account of the inclement weather, the all-day picnic at Sand Springs on Saturday was abandoned, but the season in the home of Mrs. Joseph H.
