

SOCIETY WOMAN'S WORLD AND WORK

JUNE NIGHT

This is the perfect night of June! The universal harmony subsides in a hush. The mighty spheres that climb the temples and the fall-orbed moon. Lead on the starry chorus. Fantasy and folk in unison and rhythmic sweep. With orchestra, the galaxy keeps time. One grand, triumphant, million-chorus tune. — Frederick Ogden Sylvester.

Today's Events

Central high school commencement exercises in Convention hall. Mothers' club meets in home of Mrs. Charles P. Diamond. Araska Kamona club dance in Hotel Tulsa. Chapter A. K. P. E. O. will give annual luncheon in Hotel Tulsa.

Plans for Dances

The Araska Kamona clubmen who are entertaining with a dance to-night in Hotel Tulsa, are announcing plans for the annual summer dance they always give in celebration of July fourth. The event will be given this year on the morning of the fifth at Electric Park. The orchestra of chachas has been engaged and the guest list is being arranged by an able committee, which plans to have the attendance large and the affair complete in its patriotic tendencies.

Annual Party

The Ateloka club, formerly known as the Needlecraft club, held its last meeting Tuesday afternoon in the Y. W. C. A. After a brief business meeting, the entire party of 20, including special guests, formed a line party for the afternoon matinee at the Opeheim and afterwards enjoyed refreshments at Candyland. Special guests were Mrs. W. F. Britton of Purley, Okla., Miss Blanche Stillman, Miss Carrie Van Dusen of Atlantic City, and Miss Lee Thomas of Los Angeles.

For Mrs. Collier

Mrs. DeVerne Vessel and Mrs. W. E. Knappenberger entertained at an informal luncheon on Wednesday in the Tea Cup Inn in honor of Mrs. W. J. Collier of Ft. Worth, a former Tulsa who is visiting friends in the city just now. After luncheon the party of 14 attended the Opeheim matinee. The guest list was limited to friends of the honoree.

Luncheon for Visitors

Mrs. J. C. Stevens will entertain at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Saturday, honoring a trio of visitors from Oklahoma City, Messdames George B. Ritzke, Mrs. N. B. Calder, a sister of the hostess, and Miss Edna Walker.

Fraternities Picnic

The Rebekah lodge and the members of the Oda Pillows lodge are joining in a picnic at Sand Springs this afternoon and evening.

Personal Mention

Smooth as Velvet

A Penn shave leaves the face feeling fine—due to the extra bevel on the Penn Double-Bevel Blade which causes the razor to glide over the skin instead of digging into it.

If the Penn Adjustable Razor doesn't give you smooth-as-velvet shaves—return it and get your money back.

Penn Adjustable Razor Sets may be purchased from dealers at $5.00, $7.50 and $10.00.
