

SOCIETY WOMAN'S WORLD AND WORK

LILLIAN CRAWFORD PERKINS

From out some hidden Faraway, They ride, a vision band,
Of dear dead dreams, of thoughts untold
And that none can understand,
And all who hear them pass must rise
And follow them with straining eyes,
To seek where there fair city lies,
The City of Desire!

So on! And on! And ever on!
Over road and rock and hill,
Afar the vision riders flash,
And we must follow still!
Speed on! Speed on! Though few shall find,
Yet none must ever tire
When these pale riders lead the way,
The way of Heart's Desire!

On! On while strain voices call They toll a tireless throng,
The miser with his bag of gold
The poet with his song,
The warrior on his mighty way,
The youth and maid, the grave and gay,
All seeking ever day by day
The City of Desire!

So on! And on! And ever on!
Through all the tale of days, So long as there are dreams to dream,
So long as life has tears, Press on! Press on! Though few
shall find,
Yet none must ever tire
When these pale riders lead the way,
The way to Heart's Desire.

For Mr. and Mrs. Lindner.
On the eve of their departure for Kansas City to reside, Mr. and Mrs.
H. C. Lindner are being given ample expression of appreciation from numerous friends. On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. McGuire were hosts at a picnic given at Mingo on the Gwasno road. Swimming was enjoyed and a fried chicken supper was served afterwards. In the party with hosts and honor guests were Messrs and Mesdames Jura Oldham,
A. K. Dawson, William Griffenstein, P. M. Iverson, G. J. Brackney, Andrew Raffel, J. W. Kelso—Mrs. Brit-tall, Miss Lou Brackney of Chicago and Misses Edith Clair Lindner and guest, Miss Mary Jennings of Oklahoma City. Last evening, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Iverson entertained with a lawn party and supper for Mr. and Mrs. Lindner, Mrs. Andrew Raffel will entertain at an auction brides party in her suite in the McAfee apartments on Thursday afternoon and on Friday afternoon Mrs. William Griffenstein will give an auction party. Plans for next week are interesting. Mrs. Richard Saxe and Mrs. G. J. Brackney being numbered among those who will compliment Mrs. Lindner.

Picnic Party.
An informal event of the week was the picnic given at Sand Springs on Monday, indulged in by quite a number, the inspiration being Miss Riddle's guests, Miss Robertson, and the Misses Nichols of Oklahoma City, also Miss Helen Delaney of Tulsa. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hunt, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. Norville Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Black were the chaperones. Others were Miss Olive Robertson, Misses Elizabeth and Vivian Nichols, Miss Helen Delaney, Misses Juliette Hunt, Peggy Anderson, Marian McClintock, Gertrude Wood, Frances Riddle, Mesdames Cassie Holloway, Franklin Ashby, Paul Moore, Edward Harvey, Robert Hudson Raleigh Clarke, Charles Parker, James Sargent and Woodruff Williams.

Party for Visitor.
Young Miss Edith Clair Lindner entertained Monday evening in her home on North Elwood avenue complimentary to her guest, Miss Mary Jennings of Oklahoma City. The party affair also was in farewell courtesy to the Tulsa friends of the hostess, as she leaves soon with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lindner, for Kansas City to reside, games and dancing were enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served. Present with hostess and honor guest were Misses Helen Andrews, Marjorie Grand, Dorothy Owen, Lavara Haggard, Marjorie Martin, Eleanor Fudy, young Mesdames Ralph Marlan, L. C. Grant, Robert Booth, Marian Ruddell, Henry Wallace, Gladys Iverson, Jack Meyers, Jack Crobie.

Smith-McKenzie.
Tulsa friends will be interested to hear of the marriage in Colorado Springs on Monday evening uniting Miss Margaret McKenzie and Mr.
William N. Smith, both of Tulsa.
Mr. Smith and his bride will visit interesting western points and on their return will occupy the recently acquired home of Mr. Smith in Maple Ridge.

Tulsans in New York.
Cards received from Mrs. Walter L. Cain tell of an interesting sojourn in New York and mentions an informal musical having been given in the apartments of Mrs. Claude L.
Hough, of Tulsa, who with her young son are enjoying the summer in the metropolis. Mrs. Cain says New York professionals furnished the program for the delightful affair.

Miss Hunt Hostess.
Miss Ruby Thompson of Durant, Oklahoma, who now enjoying a visit with friends in Tulsa, Texas, is expected to arrive Friday to visit Miss Juliette Hunt. Miss Hunt is planning to entertain early in the coming week for her visitor. Miss Helen Delaney of Dallas, formerly of Tulsa, who is with friends here now, will also be Miss Hunt's guest next week.

For Miss Leonard.
Members of the Lafallet club enjoyed an informal luncheon in the

Made Like New
Phone Osage 436

Te Cup Ina yesterday in courtesy to Miss Virginia Leonard who, with her parents, left yesterday to spend the summer in Iowa and Wisconsin.
After luncheon, a meeting was held with Miss Jean Hagler in her home.

Picnic and Wicite Roast.
The senior Christian Endeavor society of the College Hill Community church enjoyed a picnic and wicite roast on Monday evening just outside of the city at a beautiful wooded spot. There was a large company present and the occasion was filled with the pleasures afforded on such an outing.

For Visitor.
Miss Ruby Ingram of Oklahoma City arrived yesterday to be the guest of Miss Amelia Broach for several days. Miss Broach will issue invitations today for an informal bride which she will give on Friday afternoon in honor of her visitor.

Informal Dances.
A delightful diversion this summer are the tri-weekly dances being given at Crystal park. Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings are open for these affairs that are offering much real pleasure for the dancing set.

Juvenile Party.
The intermediate department of the First Christian church will have an unusual entertainment on Thursday evening in the social hall of the church when all members are asked to come dressed as small tots.

Church Entertainment.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Pattinson will entertain the elders and wives of the First Presbyterian church with a picnic supper at their country home east of the city on Thursday evening.

Pan-Hellenic Dance.
The prominent affair in social circles for the week will be the monthly Pan-Hellenic dance given Friday night at Crystal park.

Fireproof Ketchum Hotel

It is something of a paradox, but the greater the patronage of the Ketchum Hotel, the more active the endeavors of the management to make it a still more desirable stopping place. Although the food served in the Ketchum Cafe is the best procurable and prepared to please the most critical taste, the charge are consistently moderate. The Ketchum Cafe is now under the management of Mr. C. L. Barkoff, late of the Harvey System, which means service. Our Club Breakfast, Club Luncheons, Ketchum Special Dinners and Ala Carte Service are popular.
