President Blames Consumers for Carelessness

Co-operation of the housewife, Co-operation of the housewife, the consumer, the distributor the groceryman, the distributor the groceryman, the dairyman, and the health department, all are essential to the production of perfect milk, it was the comenaus of opinion at a meeting of representatives from the city health department, the board of health, and interested dairymen in the city hall yesterday evening. Two hundred and fifty Kiwan-in the city hall yesterday evening. The manner in which the housewife can assist was put by Mrs. Lilah D. Difdsay, preseident of the Tulsa civic league: "I have seen housewives leave milk in the sun on the front porch for half the morning after the dairyman has delivered it." she added. "no wonder it sours, and then bottles are not washed immediately after the milk is taken out and much later, when that Thus bottles got to the dairymen with germs which only intensive sterelization can render fit."

The so-called "neddler" of milk and grocerymen are to blame for much of the unsatisfactory condition in which milk reaches the consumer. It was stated. Often grocery men keep milk for days. The only way in which this difficulty can be overcome is by having the dairy.

Kiwanians Enjoy "Hot Dog" and Budweiser in Sand Springs Outing

"A big time" was the unanimous verdict of Kiwanians and guests who returned last night from a picnic at Sand Springs. That the affair went beyond expectations of the members and friends who attended was proven by the unqualified expressions of all who were fortunate to be new. by the unqualified expressions of all who were fortunate to be present at the outing.

"Hot dog" and roasting ears were served hot along with all other trimmings that go with a picnic. Budweiser and all other drinks permitted under the half per cent clause of the Volstead law were served. Nothing was wanting in the line of "eats and drinks."

Amusements of various kinds were enjoyed. Games were played and other diversions adopted to make the outing so pleasant that the members are already talking of the next one.
