Eighty Per Cent of Corn Produced by World from U. S.,
Bulletin Announces

There's a rubber manufacturing concern in Cincinnati, that is a member of the proposed National Optimism Club. In all the world it finds something to be thankful for, and is spreading the good cheer to every man, woman and child. After a fellow has finished reading one of its letters he feels as refreshed as if he had inhaled a few long deep breaths of revitalizing mountain air.

A copy of the letter, received by Mayor T. H. Evans, reads as follows: "I am writing to you to tell you that there are some red hot figures about the progressiveness of our country. The statistics of our country are contributing 25 per cent of the agricultural products, 40 per cent of the mineral production and 24 per cent of the manufactured goods. These results are accomplished with but five per cent of the earth's population."

U. S. in Production.

Of the total earth's production, America is contributing 25 per cent of the agricultural products, 40 per cent of the mineral production and 24 per cent of the manufactured goods. These results are accomplished with but five per cent of the earth's population.

Just over in your mind these inspiring statistics.

Corn—50 Per Cent by U. S.

America is producing over 25 per cent of the world's wheat, 35 per cent of the oats, 60 per cent of the cotton, and 80 per cent of the corn.

Of all the farm animals on the earth, we produce 25 per cent of the pigs, 27 per cent of the cattle, 40 per cent of the hogs, while our dairy products amount to 35 per cent of the dairy supply of the world.

We are taking from the earth 50 per cent of the world's production of iron, 54 per cent of the copper and 40 per cent of the petroleum.

No other nation can touch us in volume of manufactured goods.

We are producing 25 per cent of the world's production of wool, 25 per cent of the paper, 27 per cent of the glass, 30 per cent of the shoes and 30 per cent of the steel products.

America is the chief creditor nation of the world.

ing with two vocal selections which were greatly appreciated.

The committee report was then presented by Chairman Veasey and unanimously adopted.

In the preamble the object of the organization of the club was set forth in the following language:

"The primary object of this club is to enlist within its membership all voters of the City of Tulsa, both men and women, regardless of their party affiliations in the past, who disapprove the despotic and autocratic misrule which has characterized the administration of President Wilson throughout, who resent the usurpation of the president's cabinet and those senators and representatives in congress who complacently yield their convictions upon important public questions upon the mere whim of the president, thereby bringing upon themselves the odium of the appeal of 'rubber stamp' legislation, who believe that a return to true representative government and to the limitations of the federal constitution is indispensable to the peace, security and permanency of the republic, and who above every other consideration, prefer the entrance to the United States into the Wilson league of nations and the various entangling alliances in which that visionary and impracticable scheme would involve us, preferring at all times and in every conceivable circumstance to maintain inviolable the sovereignty, national dignity and integrity of our country."

the White Jersey farm for its excellent exhibit of Jersey—29 in all. Great interest is being shown in the boys division. Lewis Cline's some entered six calves, and carried away a goodly portion of the blue ribbons. Other boys did equally as well, and proudly exhibited their ribbons to show that they have been busy during the past year.

L. J. McKure, of Oklahoma City, secretary of the State Hereford Breeders' association, is attending the fair to help stimulate interest in Herefords. He said Tuesday night that owing to the attitude of Tulsa county livestock men, it is probable that state headquarters of the association will be moved to Tulsa shortly, and that a number of sales may be conducted here during the coming season.

Riggs & Son of Muskogee, and Harry Hart of Okmulgee both have entered their choice Herefords at the fair. Three cattle had not been judged last night. In Hart's herd is Beau Perfection, world's champion bull, which won a blue ribbon practically everywhere he has been exhibited under the "big circuit" that Hart makes every year. This animal weighs nearly a ton, and was bred and raised on Hart's field 100 barn near Okmulgee.

Pollyanna, sister mare of W. L. Lewis, took first in the five-gaited saddle horse class. The mare showed to fine advantage before a good-sized gallery, and the award was enthusiastically acclaimed. Another Lewis horse took first in the three-gaited class, while M. Stein won in the driving horse, mare or gelding class.

Results in the three classes follow: First, W. L. Lewis, second, M. Stein, Third, W. L. Lewis.

Three-gaited saddle horse or gelding: First, W. L. Lewis, second, Tom Hart, third, W. L. Lewis. Single-driving horse, mare or gelding: First, M. Stein, second, W. L. Lewis, third, W. L. Lewis.

Wednesday as a special attraction for Tulsa day, an extra class of special local interest will be staged when five-gaited Tulsa-owned horses will be shown by their owners in a gentlemen's amateur class. Equestrianism will count 10 per cent and horse 50 per cent. Tulsa who will show in this special class are M. Stein, E. L. Perry, Harry Gray, C. Hart, George H. Holcomb, general manager of the Tulsa Livestock and Industrial exposition, is judge of the saddle classes.

R. L. Blyden, teacher of South-Hughes vocational training in the Okmulgee schools, is in charge of the Okmulgee exhibit. He has a number of special demonstrations that are of interest to the city man as well as to the tourist. Jack O'Connell, in charge of the Dawson and Logan Lane exhibits, has arranged several red flags over the display which aid in viewing it at night.

The Sand Springs schools are well represented by a booth in the main building in which there is a display of cabinet work, consisting of chairs, tables and other articles of furniture that cannot be detected from factory-made furniture.

One of the interesting and popular booths is that of the Tulsa County Dairyman's association, from which country-made ice-cream, buttermilk is distributed free two hours out of each day. During these two hours it appears that everyone attending the fair is fond of buttermilk. C. W. Radway, dairy specialist of the A. & M. college at Stillwater, is attending the fair and is a close observer of the business in which dairying is making a strong foothold in the county.

Daredevil "Slim" Spain made his parachute jump from an airplane Tuesday afternoon while the hundreds attending the fair crowded their seats, opened their mouths and gazed into the air. "Happy Doo" Holland and Madame Alloranta furnished an interesting trapeze performance. Holland is a vocal soloist and co-operates with Hamble's band which accompanies his songs.

The Compaditas made their hold the Chattanooga platform Tuesday afternoon, with Ernest C. Mooley, lecturer, entertaining the night crowd. Entertainers for Wednesday are the Burdells and Argus the magician.
