DUTY IS KRAMER TOPIC

Says Heart Should Be Engine Room of Every Factory, Home, Church; Four Persons Converted.

"The engine room of every factory, home and church should be the human heart, for as goes the heart, so goes the man," said Evangelist James W. Kramer in speaking on "The Constraining Love of Jesus Christ" at the First Baptist church last night.

"The constraining love of Jesus Christ compels his followers to go beyond the cold letter of the law in performing their duty," Doctor Kramer said. "Love should go the second mile and should break the alabaster box. The boy who stood on the burning deck was a magnificent illustration of duty but there was no love in it as it was an empty sacrifice."

Four people came forward yesterday evening. There have been conversions every meeting during the revival series.

Ex-Tulsa Newspaperman Stops for Short Visit

Frank L. Mangan, former city editor of The World and well known newspaper man of Tulsa and Oklahoma, now connected with the Omaha Bee, stopped off in Tulsa Monday and Tuesday while on a special assignment for his paper which carried him to Okmulgee. Mangan denied flatly to friends here that he came back to Tulsa to claim a bride. He returns to Omaha today.

Lining up the Boys like Cattle, the medical doctors methods of giving "Shots in the Arm," were the height of cruelty. Many of the Boys fainted and fell out of line—some suffered convulsions. There was little or no regard for the feelings of the BOYS WHEN THE MEDICAL DOCTORS HAD SUPREME POWER OVER THEM. Now most of the boys ask you to VOTE "YES" TO STATE QUESTION 94 ON NOV. 2nd AND BUST THE MEDICAL TRUST. Adv
