By LARRY DAILEY.

Veteran meets youth tonight when Gene Delmont of Memphis and Jack Lawler of Omaha, box fifteen rounds in the main event of the Acme Athletic club's show at Convention hall. Delmont, a crafty ring general, schooled for eight or nine years in the arena, during which time he has met numerous leading featherweights and lightweights, meets in Lawler a 21-year-old star full of the irrepressible joy of life and tireless endurance and possessor of a natural fighting heart.

These lightweights a month ago boxed a sensational 12-round slashing draw here, and tonight's fight is a return go staged by Jack Callahan, promoter of the Acme Athletic club.

Delmont, who last night expressed satisfaction over their condition. Each knows he faces a tough battle tonight. No predictions of victory were made by either. Delmont, a former champion, is a veteran, it is obvious that they are going to do their best to win.

Possibly no two boxers are better known or more popular among the Tulsa fans than Delmont and Lawler. Public opinion is about evenly divided regarding the winner, with Lawler, because of his youth, a slight favorite.

Bill Morrisette of Sand Springs, who won from Pat Dalton on a foul in the second round of a bout here a few weeks ago, and Eddy Cloon of Highland, middleweight, scheduled to go 10 rounds in the semi-windup. Morrisette looked like a capable scrapper in his brief appearance here. Cloon is unknown in this city.

Kid Cole, Drumright featherweight, will be unable to meet Freddy Johnson of Tulsa in the scheduled six-round preliminary, according to John J. Parnell, manager of Cole. Parnell writes that Cole has been sent to Texas by an oil concern, employees of the Drumright box.

Lightweights. Joe Miller and Young Richards, both of Tulsa, lightweights, have been substituted for the featherweights. Young Dempsey and R. O. McCarthy, clever Sapulpa flyweights, will box a four-round curtain raiser. There will be no decision given in this bout.

The opening bout of tonight's card starts at 8:30 o'clock, sharp. Doors open at 7:30 o'clock.

WILSON DEFEATS CHIP

Middleweight Champion Has Little Difficulty Outpointing Rugged Greek Boxer.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 17.—Johnny Wilson of Boston, middleweight champion, won a newsworthy decision over the Chip of Newcastle, Pa., in their 10-round bout tonight. Wilson gained the decision in eight rounds. Chip outpointed him in the fifth and the closing round was even.

The champion was never in danger. He used a right jab effectively to offset Chip's rushes, and was the aggressor throughout. The weights were announced as Wilson, 162 pounds; Chip, 155 pounds. The crowd was estimated at 8,800.

Set Date for Golf Meet.

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—The women's Western Golf association championship will be held August 22-27 at the Westmontland Golf club, Chicago. It was announced tonight by Mrs. Hathaway Watson, president of the organization. Mrs. Watson also said it had been decided to hold a mid-winter meet next year on some California links.

Martin and Riley Draw.

ENID, Okla., Jan. 17.—Powers Martin, Oklahoma City lightweight, and Bob Riley from the eastern coast, fought 10 rounds here 16:30 draw tonight, according to the newspaper division. Martin won from Riley two weeks ago by default. Both men entered the ring at approximately 150 pounds.

Wills Knocks Out Tate.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 17.—Harry Wills of New Orleans retained the negro heavyweight championship by knocking out Bill Tate of New York in the second round of a scheduled 16-round bout tonight.

With an opening at one side instead of the top, a gasoline tunnel for automobiles and motorboats that can be carried in a small space has been invented in England.

DARRINGER SOLD TO DES MOINES

Indians Sell Shortstop in Interests of Harmony

Special to The World. OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 17.—Rollie Darringer, sure-armed shortstop of the 1920 Indians, has been sold to the Des Moines. Announcement to this effect was received yesterday by Secretary E. J. Humphries of the Oklahoma City baseball club in a letter from President John Holland. It was not altogether unexpected. Friction between Darringer and the Oklahoma City management developed at the time Darringer was made manager instead of Dan Moeller, who had been an applicant. Moeller and Darringer were roommates. Differences appeared to have been patched up, but apparently it was only patchwork, as President Holland's letter expressed regret at having to part with a player who had served so well as Darringer did last season, but he said that in the interest of harmony and in order that Darringer might not be hampered in his management of the team in 1921 it was deemed best to dispose of him.

Freeman Case Won.

The chief's letter also contained heartening news. Two years ago Vice Freeman, a crack right-handed pitcher, accepted terms with Oklahoma City. A contract was sent to him to sign but it came back "undelivered." Then a pitcher by the name of Freeman began to set the league afire, working for Beaumont. Holland claimed him as his man although one of his initials was different. Beaumont insisted Holland was harking up the wrong tree. Convinced that he was on the right trail, Holland persevered. He carried the claim to the board of arbitration at Kansas City a couple of months ago. The board considered his evidence not quite convincing, but gave him a little more time to try to substantiate his claim, with indisputable evidence.

This, it develops, was the secret mission on which Humphries went to Texas last month. There he located Freeman and obtained a confession that he was the man claimed by Oklahoma City. At the Chicago meeting last week Holland again went before the board of arbitration and his claim was recognized. Beaumont, meanwhile, had sold Freeman to the Chicago National league club. In case Freeman is released by the Tulsa Oklahoma City and Beaumont clubs will split the purchase. If he is turned back, he comes to Oklahoma City. Holland says he hopes Johnny Evers will turn him back to the Indians.

New Ones Signed.

In addition to the acquisition of Freeman, Proxy Holland announced that he had signed two more promising young infielders. From Indianapolis he has purchased Kores and he has signed Callahan, a semi-pro star.

Phillips Plays T. U.

End Collegians Meet Tulsa Cagers Here Next Friday and Saturday at Harwell Gym.

Johnny Maulditch's Phillips University cagers next Friday and Saturday nights play the University of Tulsa basketball team at the Harwell gymnasium. Coach Schmidt last week started his Tulsa collegians on their championship hunt with two victories over the Chicago Indians and followed with the orange and black believe last year's state championship victory will be repeated this season. Phillips, grade from Central of Edmond has the Aggies, probably the most formidable team in the state. Despite two losses last week to Central "Maulditch" men will give a good account of themselves and force the University of Tulsa to play their best game.

Minnesota Sportsmen Urge Measure to Preserve Game

ST. PAUL, Jan. 17.—Legislation relative to the conservation of game in Minnesota was recommended at a meeting of the Ramsey County United Sportsmen, affiliated with the Minnesota Game Protective league, held last night at the Ryan hotel.

The laws recommended by the organization include delaying the fishing season from May 1 to May 15; establishing a buck law which would make it illegal to shoot any deer but antlered buck; shortening the deer season from twenty to fifteen days; increasing the number of game refuges; establishing an angling license of $1 for residents of the state over 21; increasing the nonresident fishing license from $1 to $2; increasing the big game license from $1 to $2; shortening the partridge season from six to two weeks; and allowing Minnesota hunters to bring into the state game killed in another state under the laws of that state.

More than 500 persons were in attendance at the meeting, the largest attendance of the season. Motion pictures showing the habits of game in Canada and Yellowstone park were shown and an address "Ethics of game sportsmanship" was given by S. G. Anderson of Hutchinson, Minn.

PHILLIPS LANDS FAMOUS MENTOR

'Tubby' McIntyre 'Made' West Virginia Football Great Record

Special to The World. ENID, Okla., Jan. 17.—W. W. (Tubby) McIntyre, the man who "made" West Virginia football, has been secured to succeed Johnny Maulditch as football coach at Phillips university. Announcement to this effect was made tonight by J. H. Shaw, director of athletics. While McIntyre will not take over the reins until expiration of Maulditch's contract in June, he is expected to arrive in Enid within the next few weeks to become acquainted with his new charges before the close of the school year so that he will be in a position to open up with a definite program next fall.

Record as Coach Remarkable.

During his six years as coach at West Virginia university, McIntyre has made an enviable record. Only other coach has been beaten on his home gridiron. Princeton, Rutgers, Navy and Washington and Jefferson are numbered among his victims. Rodgers, a repeater as all-American fullback and Breck, another all-American man were developed by him while at the Morgantown institution.

His 1919 eleven was one of the wonders of the gridiron year. Spalding's football guide credits the West Virginia-Princeton game with being the best game of the year. West Virginia defeated the Tigers by a score of 25 to 0.

Good Material Available.

Good material will be waiting McIntyre when he arrives.

Steve Owens, who will captain the team in 1921, McIntyre says, is the best tackle he has seen perform since he played with Michigan against Harvard. He weighs 220 pounds. It will be his last year.

Ted Kutz, the other tackle, weighs 190 pounds and was captain of the team last fall. Miami, a big guard, will be playing his fourth year. Miller, the other guard, gives him a fourth line man of power and experience.

At Center he will have available

Jake Lounstrom, a 190-pounder, who came to Phillips from Indiana last fall but was ineligible under the one-year rule.

Star Scholarship Ends.

Lawton, the former Cherokee high school end, ineligible last fall, is expected to be a power. Greene, the other end, was an all Oklahoma selection last year.

For quarterback he will have

Wellman, a good general, a good man at advancing the ball and a good passer.

Anderson, a midsize from Chicago

intercollegiate circles, should make a star of himself in 1921. He can do the century in 16 flat and is a wizard on the gridiron. Butler and Ward, 1920 halfbacks, Shelton and Hutchinson are among the other backfield eligibles.

The Athletics also will play a number of games with the Houston and Beaumont teams. Practice, Mack said, would start about March 5 or 6. The team will start for the south about March 1.

EXTRA SESSION IN APRIL

Congress Probably Will Be Called to Assembly Then.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—The extra session of congress which is to be called by the next administration will probably meet the first week in April. Congressman Fordney, chairman of the house and means committee announced today.

Chairman Fordney said, President-elect Harding had told him he did not desire to call the congress until tariff and revenue legislation is ready. Chairman Fordney informed the president-elect this legislation would be ready in the first week in April. The president-elect did not state he would call the extra session at that time, however, Fordney said.
