

News of Muskogee

$3,000 DONATED
FOR COMING FAIR*Bankers Take a Big Bite
Off of Quota Set for Fall Exposition

The World
Muskogee, June 11.—Muskogee banks started the Oklahoma Free State Fair drive for $3,000 today with a $2,000 subscription. The rest of the money will be raised next week by civic workers. Tulsa Press, newspaper editor and president of the fair association since its organization five years ago, has promised his successor has not yet been named.

Because her husband persistently refused to go to church with her, Mrs. Mary Reynolds, wife of a Tulsa Jeweler, today filed suit for divorce. He also has refused to take her to neighbors' houses and to entertainments, she says. She asks for a month alimony and custody of two children.

The second church robbery of the week was reported today by the Rev. Joseph Van Housen, of the church of Assumption. The burglar took only an electric fan, he said. Earlier in the week they took a hat, carpenter tools and other articles from the First Baptist church.

The body of James F. Smith, first Muskogee boy to fall in France will reach New York this week and will be shipped here for military burial. The American Legion post here, which was named in honor of Smith, will have charge of the services. He was killed at St. Mihiel September 12, 1918 while with the 25th machine gun company of the Ninth division.

R. E. Reynolds, middle-aged business man, isn't an athlete but he knows a good thing when he sees it. He bet three friends that he could run a mile and a half without stopping and then proceeded to do it. He won $25 by pacing three laps around the state fair track, he says, and was ready for three more laps when he finished. The three who dived up were E. A. Wilson, Earl Lovett and Jim H. Smith. They wouldn't take the bet.

Four Muskogee business men left here today for the Associated Advertisers' convention at Atlanta next week. Charles A. Loomis, Joel Bixby, J. E. Brochman, E. C. Hoffman and Jack Brown will represent Muskogee.

Officers at Okla., 10 miles south of here, today notified the sheriff's office here that the body of an unidentified man had been discovered in a box two miles east of Okla. No clues have yet been obtained that might lead to identification and the missing persons have been notified.

Good Advertising Will Aid Tulsa, Says Ad Man

Tulsa will overcome bad advertising with good advertising, delegates to the 15th annual convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World were told at St. Louis Saturday by E. E. White, president of the Tulsa club. White is one of a group of Tulsa men who left Friday night to attend the Atlanta conference. In the party which left on a special train with the St. Louis delegation Saturday night for Atlanta were D. D. Bailey, E. A. Guise, Frank Larson, T. F. McPherson, T. M. Donald, E. E. White and G. Y. Vandever.

Transportation Club to Give a Dinner Monday

Monday night is ladies' night for the Transportation club. Wives and friends of the members will be dinner guests at the dinner which the club will close its year's work, and which will be the last meeting until next fall. The dinner will be held at 6 o'clock at the Methodist Central church at Golden and Denver.

THORNE LEAVES FOR HOME

Tulsa Architect to Visit New Zealand After Nine Years' Absence.
A. T. Thorne, Tulsa architect, and his wife left Saturday afternoon in their car on the first lap of a journey that will take them to Mr. Thorne's old home in New Zealand where his father and brothers and sisters are living. Mr. and Mrs. Thorne will go to Chicago first, then to Portland, Seattle and Vancouver, from which place they will take the boat for New Zealand. They expect to stop off for brief visits at the Fiji Islands and Honolulu.

Thorne came to the United States when he was 19 and for the past three years has lived in Tulsa, during which time he has established an excellent reputation as an architect. He does not expect to return to this country for a year.

SHRINERS HERE SATURDAY

Hundred Candidates Took Degree at Spring Ceremonial.

Approximately 100 candidates took degrees at the spring ceremonial of Alpha Temple in Tulsa yesterday, attended by 1,000 Shriners from the northeastern part of the state. Headquarters were at Convention hall, where luncheon was served at noon, and where the ceremonial took place last evening followed by a dance for members and their friends.

A concert by the Shrine band at Tulsa at 11:30 o'clock Saturday morning formally opened the day's program. Matinee races at Midcontinent park were a part of the day's entertainment and a big parade last evening announced to Tulsa the gathering of Shriners and candidates.

Candy Kitchen Owner Forfeits Bond.
The Crystal, proprietor of the "Candyland" shop at 419 South Main street forfeited his bond of $25 when he failed to appear at his trial before Police Judge F. D. Paschke in municipal court Saturday afternoon. Tony was arrested Friday by City Health Officer R. G. Bure when his shop was found to be in an unsanitary and filthy condition.

All Over Town— Just Taste its Fruit-full Flavor

Royal Purple is the taste sensation of the season—the beverage of health and hospitality. Not just a grape juice, but luscious Concord grapes in liquid form. Nothing is added—nothing could be added—to improve Nature's own skill in flavoring the plump, sun-ripened grapes. But skillful stemming, pressing, filtering and bottling have retained for you all the fruity flavor in rare perfection and uniformity.

Just taste Royal Purple—and you'll understand. Your taste will tell you why folks are buying Royal Purple by the bottle and by the case from your dealer—so they can have this taste-delighting beverage always handy to serve their friends.

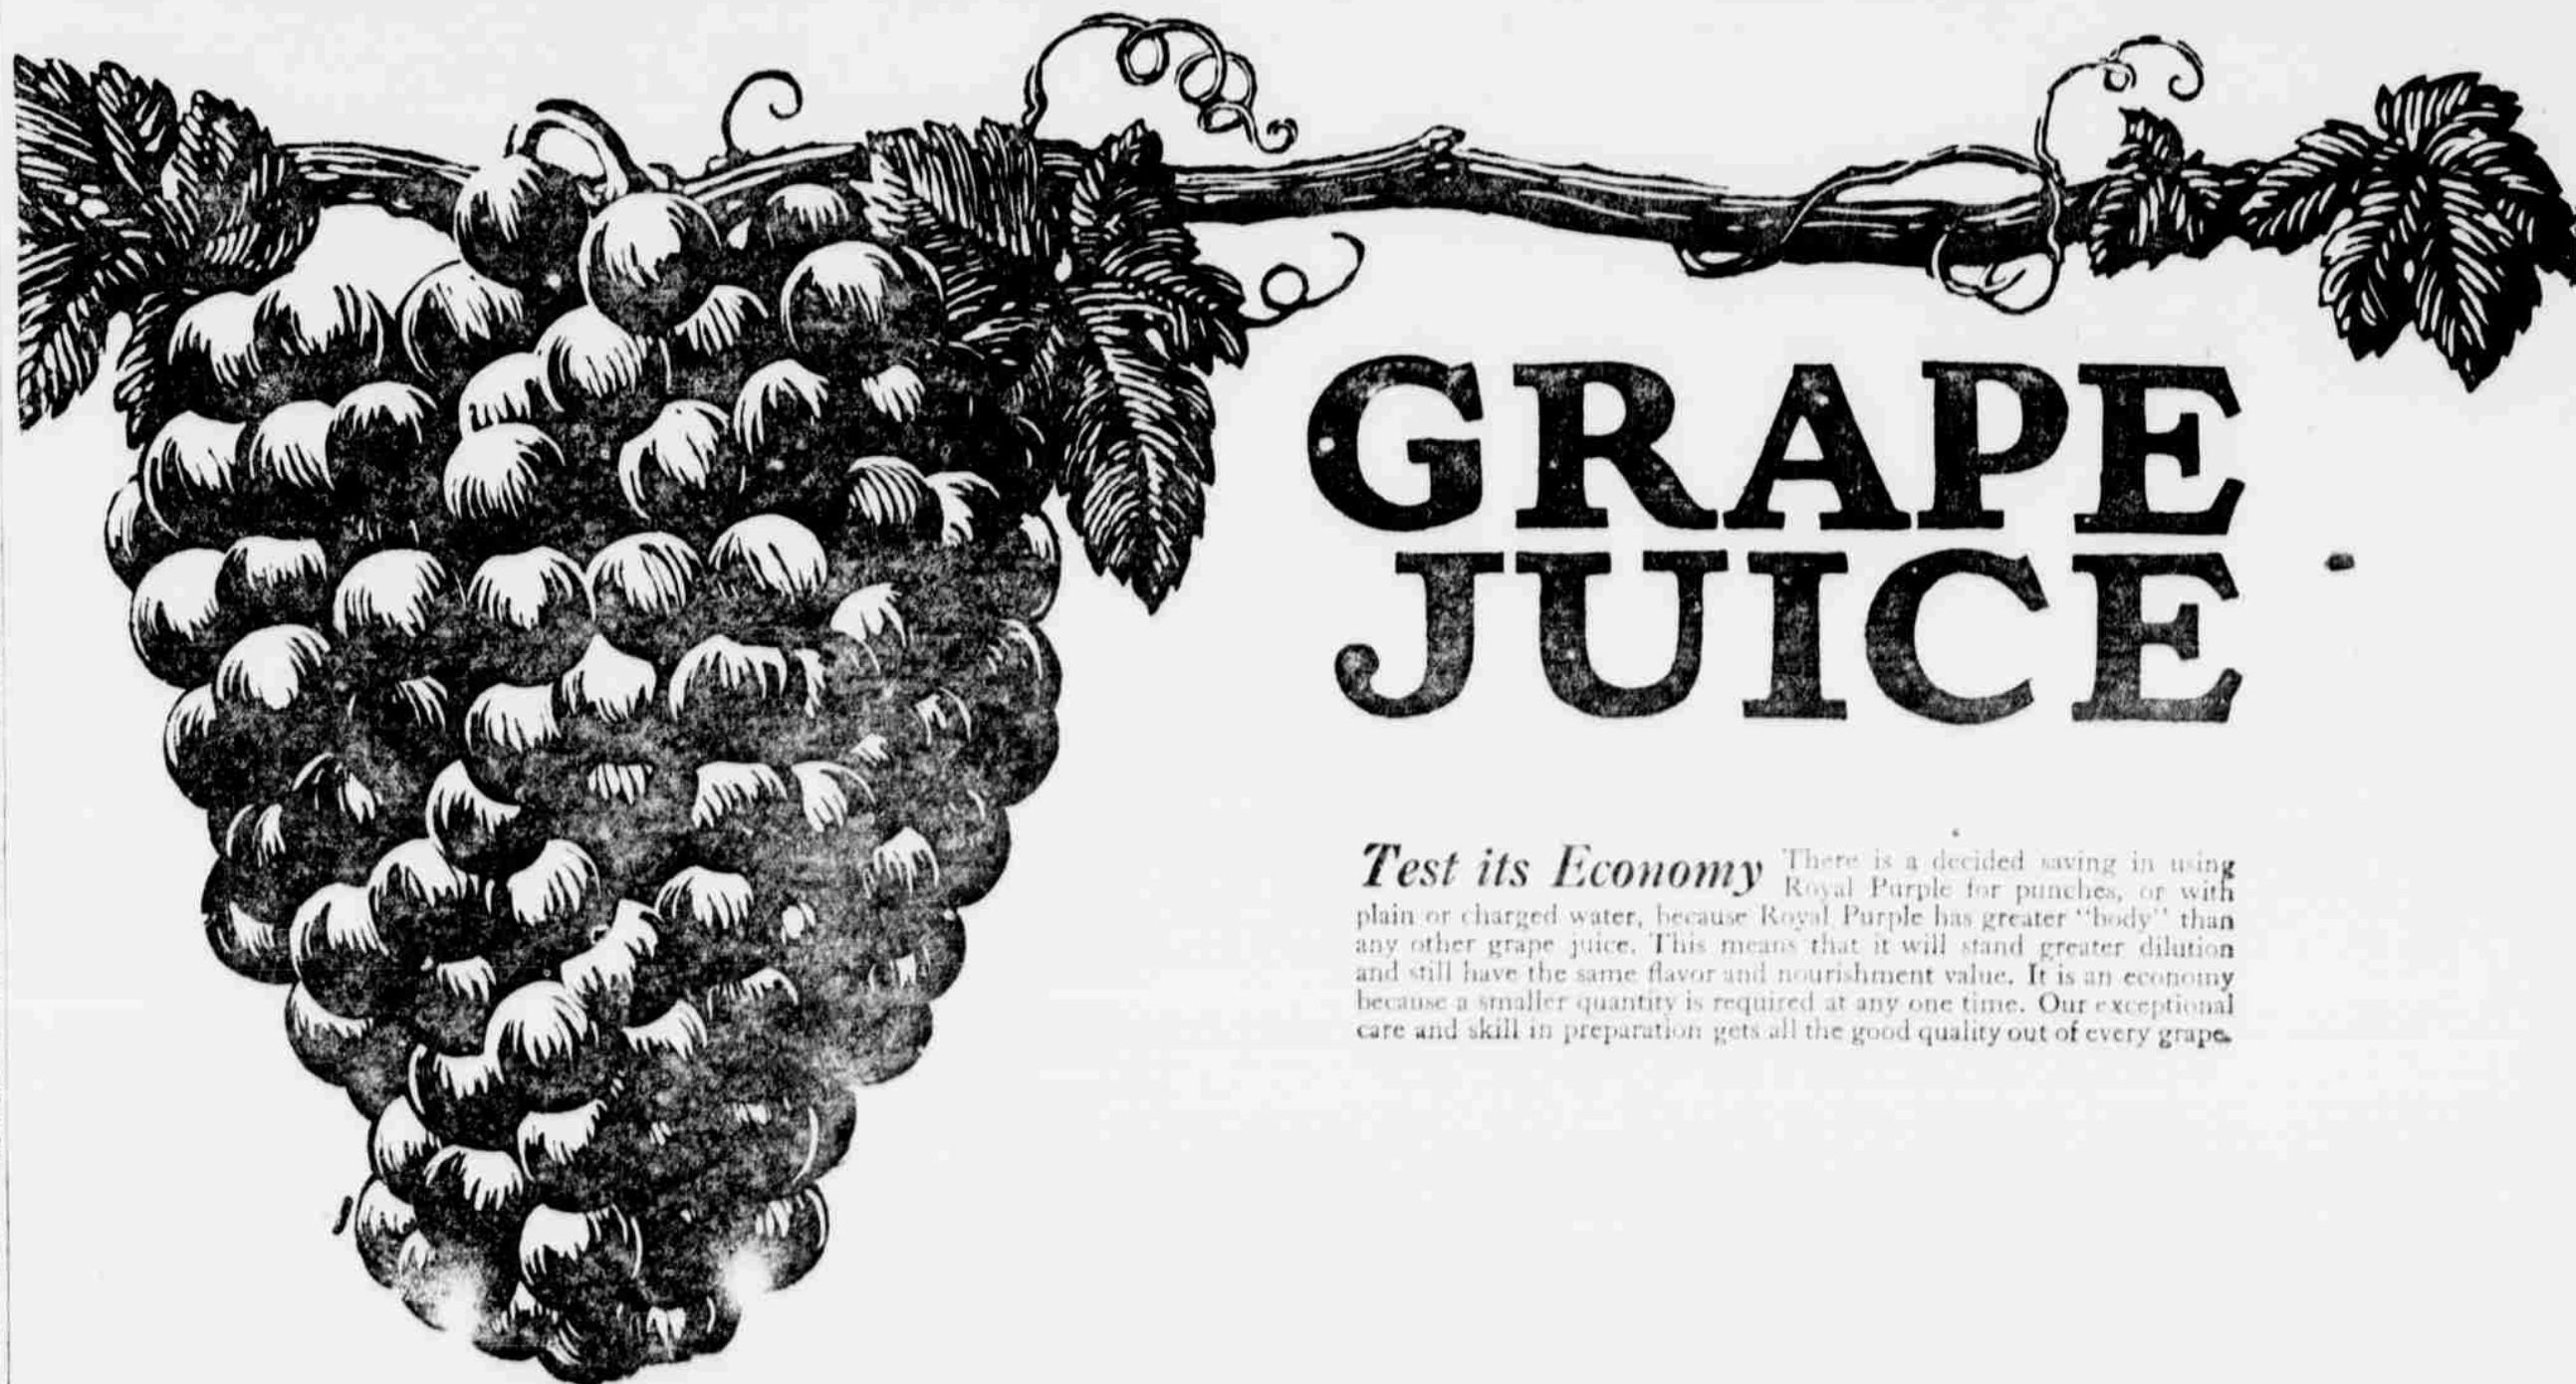

You'll know then why all cafes, soda fountains and leading drinking dispensers throughout the city keep Royal Purple to supply the growing throng of customers who daily ask them for this delicious beverage. All good dealers have Royal Purple—call on any of them today and just taste its fruit-full flavor.

Buy it by the Bottle or Case

You can buy Royal Purple from your grocer by the case or bottle, and at all drug stores, soda fountains and other refreshment places. You get the fruit-full flavor only in Royal Purple; be sure to ask for it by name.

ROYAL PURPLE

Test its Economy There is a decided saving in using Royal Purple for punches, or with plain or charged water, because Royal Purple has greater "body" than any other grape juice. This means that it will stand greater dilution and still have the same flavor and nourishment value. It is an economy because a smaller quantity is required at any one time. Our exceptional care and skill in preparation gets all the good quality out of every grape.
