

AVERAGE SWORN NET PAID
CIRCULATION, MAY
Daily ..... 34,137
Sunday ..... 35,292

TULSA DAILY WORLD

FINAL EDITION

VOL. XV, NO. 271.

TULSA, OKLAHOMA, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 1921

16 PAGES

PRICE 5 CENTS

SENATOR BERATES PROHIBITION LAW

Broussard Flays Liquor Regulations in Fiery Address on Floor

PROPOSE AMENDMENT

Would Permit the Making of Beer, Ale, Porter and Wines in U. S.

WILLIS-CAMPBELL BILL UP

Received From the House and Referred to Judiciary Body; to President Soon

WASHINGTON, June 28.—While prohibition leaders in the senate prepared today to fight the measure, the Willis-Campbell bill, which would permit the making of beer, ale, porter and wines in the United States, was passed by the House and referred to the Judiciary Committee. The bill, which was introduced by Senator Broussard, Democrat of Louisiana, was passed by a vote of 74 to 16.

Senator Broussard attached the eighth amendment as "an act of a minority," declared the Volstead amendment a great factor in the creation of discontent and unrest and characterized the Willis-Campbell bill as "merely the forerunner of the Volstead act, junior (the proposed supplementary enforcement act, which will violate every principle upon which the government was founded).

Reminds Railroads of 3 Promised Subways

As a gentle reminder to the Katy railroad of its promise to build three subways under the railroad tracks in Irving addition for the elimination of grade crossings at important streets, a committee was appointed by the North Side Improvement association Tuesday night.

LYKINS GUILTY OF ASSAULT

Jury Gives Defendant Jail Sentence For Attack on Bixby
Finding Oak Lykins, of Bixby, guilty of assault and battery upon G. W. Bixby, also of that city, December 2, 1920, the jury in district court which heard the case Tuesday fixed as the penalty a fine of $100 and a sentence of 30 days in the county jail. The charge against Lykins was that of assault without justifiable excuse.

Fight Service!

He in front of The World today Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock if you want a "single seat" at the Dempsey-Carpenter fight. The big fight will be broadcast live for sale. One of The World's leased wires connecting with the press box in the Jersey City arena, and will be answered to fans as needed without a moment's delay.

Your Home Paper The World

will be mailed to you regularly while on your vacation; 20c per week. Call Osage 6,000, Circulation Dept.

Poisons Herself Because Life Is Hard for Homely

BALTIMORE, June 28.—Men only look for beauty, they don't care about the real home-maker any longer, declared Virginia Miles, 29 years old, a patient at the Maryland general hospital, who tried to commit suicide Sunday night by swallowing poison. She explained that there was no place in the world for the homely girl.

Refusing to give her lover a name, she admitted that they had both been very happy and expected to get married shortly, until one evening at a dance he met a prettier girl and after that she didn't have a chance.

"Classical features and a conspicuous lack of freckles" are essential features for happiness, Virginia declared, weeping.

LIGHTNING KILLS MAYOR OF PORUM

World War Veteran Hit by Bolt While on Way to Warner

ANOTHER IS STRUCK

Young Man Is Seriously Hurt as Ball of Fire Leaps From Clouds

MUSKOGEE, Okla., June 28.—Mike A. Price, mayor of Porum and veteran of the world war, was struck by lightning and instantly killed at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

With the Porum baseball team, Mayor Price was on his way to Warner for a game scheduled for 4 o'clock this afternoon, when the storm drove them to shelter in the Blackhawk schoolhouse, seven miles north of Porum.

Mr. Price was standing in the door of the building with his hand on the bell rope when the ball of lightning struck him.

Guy Prichard, one of the dozen or more other young men who were standing and seated back of Mr. Price in the school room, was also struck and badly hurt but it is said he will recover.

Other members of the party were momentarily stunned by the shock, but were not injured otherwise.

Mr. Price besides being mayor of Porum, was justice of the peace, editor of the Porum Journal, a farmer and democratic political leader.

Mr. Price was elected mayor of Porum just before he enlisted in the army. He served in the 90th division as a sergeant both at home and overseas.

From his return from war he was re-elected mayor. He was the first commander of the American legion post at Porum.

Mr. Price was married two years ago to a daughter of W. H. Gooley, a banker of Enid, Okla. He was 25 years old.

OIL PRODUCERS ASK AID

Pennsylvania Oil Men Face Big Result of Crude Oil

PITTSBURGH, June 28.—Independent Pennsylvania oil producers facing heavy loss as the result of another 25-cent cut in a barrel by Pennsylvania and West Virginia grades of crude oil today, this afternoon appealed to Senators Penrose and Knox, of Pennsylvania for aid in the way of a tariff on imported crude oils, particularly from the Mexican and South American fields.

Competition of the cheap Mexican oil has driven Pennsylvania crude steadily downward until the last straw was reached and financial disaster threatens the producers.

The telegram to the senator said "American oil production will be ruined if relief is not quickly afforded."

RAIL VOTE IS UNRELIABLE

Strike Ballot Unknown Yet Says Union Official at Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 28.—Reports of an overwhelming vote for reelection of an average 8 per cent wage reduction recently ordered for railroad shop employees by the United States railroad labor board were branded as misleading and unreliable today by H. M. Jewell, head of the shopmen's organization. Only about two-thirds of the vote has been counted according to Mr. Jewell, who said that a few votes might swing it either way.

"The balloting are coming by every mail and as they begin to complete the tabulation. The result at this time is unknown," Mr. Jewell said.

Unofficial compilation of votes from various locals which announced the results of their balloting was said to have shown approximately 55 per cent against the proposed reduction and 45 per cent in favor of it. There are approximately 600,000 shop employees in the country.

DAWES ASKS FREE HAND FOR BUDGET

Tells President He Is Going to Need 'Lots of Latitude'

TIME IS VERY SHORT

Only Thirty Days Still Left Before Plan Is to Be Operating

CO-OPERATION NECESSARY

Ex-Soldier Declares Cabinet Must Be Willing to Work Together on Program

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Charles G. Dawes, director of the budget, went into the cabinet meeting today and told the president and his advisers that if they want budget operating in the remarkably short space of 30 days, they will have to give him latitude and lots of it.

The efficient operating of a budget will be impossible in 30 days or 20 weeks, General Dawes informed them, unless the different department heads are willing to give him what amounts to a free hand in the pruning of estimates and the calculations of expenditures.

The cabinet had been in session an hour discussing the fiscal affairs of the nation and the new budget when General Dawes was called into the conference. He informed the members of his plans and declared candidly that unless the director of the budget is accorded 100 per cent co-operation and assistance, the task of getting a budget to working smoothly in the time desired by the president, appears well nigh impossible.

The director of the budget must be recognized as the personal representative of the president, according to Dawes idea and for the cause of economy and the common good, cabinet members must be willing to subordinate their personalities and relinquish some most cherished preferences.

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

General Dawes took with him into the cabinet meeting a great sheet of papers and it is understood that he has called upon the cabinet for a complete statement of his plan and desires and concluded with a request for a "vote of confidence."

Tragic, Tense, Is Court Air As Kaber's Father Watches Widow on Trial for Murder

COLUMBIANA, ALABAMA, June 28.—The trial of a woman charged with first degree murder, and today with a "murder" charge, was a scene of tragedy and tension. The state described her as a woman who had planned and executed the cold-blooded slaying of her invalid husband.

"A Thin, Sombre Woman"

A thin, sombre woman, she had appeared almost emotionless and the defendant's chair as "murder" was a scene of tragedy and tension.

Only one man sat in the jury box, a white man, and the first woman, an colored, was called to the jury box, said she believed in capital punishment, and would not hesitate in convicting a woman.

The defense will attempt to challenge her.

Watched Her Constantly

A few feet from her sat a little girl, the daughter of the defendant.

Entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of slaying her husband, the first woman, said she believed in capital punishment, and would not hesitate in convicting a woman.

The defense will attempt to challenge her.

Entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of slaying her husband, the first woman, said she believed in capital punishment, and would not hesitate in convicting a woman.

The defense will attempt to challenge her.

Entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of slaying her husband, the first woman, said she believed in capital punishment, and would not hesitate in convicting a woman.

The defense will attempt to challenge her.

Entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of slaying her husband, the first woman, said she believed in capital punishment, and would not hesitate in convicting a woman.

The defense will attempt to challenge her.

Entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of slaying her husband, the first woman, said she believed in capital punishment, and would not hesitate in convicting a woman.

The defense will attempt to challenge her.

Entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of slaying her husband, the first woman, said she believed in capital punishment, and would not hesitate in convicting a woman.

The defense will attempt to challenge her.

Entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of slaying her husband, the first woman, said she believed in capital punishment, and would not hesitate in convicting a woman.

The defense will attempt to challenge her.

Entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of slaying her husband, the first woman, said she believed in capital punishment, and would not hesitate in convicting a woman.

The defense will attempt to challenge her.

Entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of slaying her husband, the first woman, said she believed in capital punishment, and would not hesitate in convicting a woman.

The defense will attempt to challenge her.

Entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of slaying her husband, the first woman, said she believed in capital punishment, and would not hesitate in convicting a woman.

The defense will attempt to challenge her.

Entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of slaying her husband, the first woman, said she believed in capital punishment, and would not hesitate in convicting a woman.

The defense will attempt to challenge her.

Entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of slaying her husband, the first woman, said she believed in capital punishment, and would not hesitate in convicting a woman.

The defense will attempt to challenge her.

Entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of slaying her husband, the first woman, said she believed in capital punishment, and would not hesitate in convicting a woman.

The defense will attempt to challenge her.

Entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of slaying her husband, the first woman, said she believed in capital punishment, and would not hesitate in convicting a woman.

The defense will attempt to challenge her.

Entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of slaying her husband, the first woman, said she believed in capital punishment, and would not hesitate in convicting a woman.

The defense will attempt to challenge her.

DEVALERA DELAYS MAKING DECISION

Irish Leader Makes No Definite Reply to Proposals for Peace

ULSTER FOR MEETING

Conference Approved by the Cabinet Says Note From Premier

SINN FEIN HEADS CONFER

'Parliament' to Decide Whether 'President' Shall Make Trip to London

DUBLIN, June 28.—Eamon de Valera, the Irish republican leader, is not yet ready to give a definite answer to Premier Lloyd George's letter inviting him to a conference for an Irish settlement. He has, however, replied to the premier, however, expressing the warm desire for a lasting peace, but deems unity of Ireland essential to that end.

Believed June 28.—The Irish cabinet, today, accepted Premier Lloyd George's invitation to Sir James Craig, premier of Ulster, to go to London to attend an Irish peace conference.

London, June 28.—Close advisers of Premier Lloyd George today were informally notified by Dublin Sinn Fein leaders at Ballinacorney that a week's delay in the decision that referendum is necessary before Eamon de Valera accepts Premier Lloyd George's invitation to go to London for an Irish peace conference.

It was said that a referendum might be necessary because the Sinn Fein officials believe they must be relieved of their oath to the Irish republic before entering negotiations with England. This oath, which was administered on June 13, pledges all Sinn Fein members to the Irish republic, and to have no dealings with "enemy countries."

De Valera continues to hold consultations with a committee of Sinn Fein leaders, and it is stated he visited Mountjoy prison Monday and talked with Arthur Griffith, president of the Sinn Fein.

British troops are being held in readiness for the opening of the southern parliament in Dublin, which corresponds to the northern parliament in Belfast, which was opened by King George last Wednesday.

All members of the Irish cabinet, which was summoned to meet today, are observing the same fast. Whether or not the Sinn Fein will ask for release of leading republicans who are now in prison is problematical.

It is admitted on all sides that the present situation must be handled with the most delicacy.

A clash between Ulster special policemen and a detachment of military forces occurred near Tullamore, Ireland, Sunday, when the military forces were called upon to help the Ulster special policemen.

The Irish cabinet, today, accepted Premier Lloyd George's invitation to Sir James Craig, premier of Ulster, to go to London to attend an Irish peace conference.

London, June 28.—Close advisers of Premier Lloyd George today were informally notified by Dublin Sinn Fein leaders at Ballinacorney that a week's delay in the decision that referendum is necessary before Eamon de Valera accepts Premier Lloyd George's invitation to go to London for an Irish peace conference.

It was said that a referendum might be necessary because the Sinn Fein officials believe they must be relieved of their oath to the Irish republic before entering negotiations with England. This oath, which was administered on June 13, pledges all Sinn Fein members to the Irish republic, and to have no dealings with "enemy countries."

De Valera continues to hold consultations with a committee of Sinn Fein leaders, and it is stated he visited Mountjoy prison Monday and talked with Arthur Griffith, president of the Sinn Fein.

British troops are being held in readiness for the opening of the southern parliament in Dublin, which corresponds to the northern parliament in Belfast, which was opened by King George last Wednesday.

All members of the Irish cabinet, which was summoned to meet today, are observing the same fast. Whether or not the Sinn Fein will ask for release of leading republicans who are now in prison is problematical.

It is admitted on all sides that the present situation must be handled with the most delicacy.

A clash between Ulster special policemen and a detachment of military forces occurred near Tullamore, Ireland, Sunday, when the military forces were called upon to help the Ulster special policemen.

The Irish cabinet, today, accepted Premier Lloyd George's invitation to Sir James Craig, premier of Ulster, to go to London to attend an Irish peace conference.

London, June 28.—Close advisers of Premier Lloyd George today were informally notified by Dublin Sinn Fein leaders at Ballinacorney that a week's delay in the decision that referendum is necessary before Eamon de Valera accepts Premier Lloyd George's invitation to go to London for an Irish peace conference.

It was said that a referendum might be necessary because the Sinn Fein officials believe they must be relieved of their oath to the Irish republic before entering negotiations with England. This oath, which was administered on June 13, pledges all Sinn Fein members to the Irish republic, and to have no dealings with "enemy countries."

De Valera continues to hold consultations with a committee of Sinn Fein leaders, and it is stated he visited Mountjoy prison Monday and talked with Arthur Griffith, president of the Sinn Fein.

British troops are being held in readiness for the opening of the southern parliament in Dublin, which corresponds to the northern parliament in Belfast, which was opened by King George last Wednesday.

All members of the Irish cabinet, which was summoned to meet today, are observing the same fast. Whether or not the Sinn Fein will ask for release of leading republicans who are now in prison is problematical.

It is admitted on all sides that the present situation must be handled with the most delicacy.

A clash between Ulster special policemen and a detachment of military forces occurred near Tullamore, Ireland, Sunday, when the military forces were called upon to help the Ulster special policemen.

The Irish cabinet, today, accepted Premier Lloyd George's invitation to Sir James Craig, premier of Ulster, to go to London to attend an Irish peace conference.

London, June 28.—Close advisers of Premier Lloyd George today were informally notified by Dublin Sinn Fein leaders at Ballinacorney that a week's delay in the decision that referendum is necessary before Eamon de Valera accepts Premier Lloyd George's invitation to go to London for an Irish peace conference.

It was said that a referendum might be necessary because the Sinn Fein officials believe they must be relieved of their oath to the Irish republic before entering negotiations with England. This oath, which was administered on June 13, pledges all Sinn Fein members to the Irish republic, and to have no dealings with "enemy countries."

De Valera continues to hold consultations with a committee of Sinn Fein leaders, and it is stated he visited Mountjoy prison Monday and talked with Arthur Griffith, president of the Sinn Fein.

British troops are being held in readiness for the opening of the southern parliament in Dublin, which corresponds to the northern parliament in Belfast, which was opened by King George last Wednesday.

All members of the Irish cabinet, which was summoned to meet today, are observing the same fast. Whether or not the Sinn Fein will ask for release of leading republicans who are now in prison is problematical.

It is admitted on all sides that the present situation must be handled with the most delicacy.

A clash between Ulster special policemen and a detachment of military forces occurred near Tullamore, Ireland, Sunday, when the military forces were called upon to help the Ulster special policemen.

The Irish cabinet, today, accepted Premier Lloyd George's invitation to Sir James Craig, premier of Ulster, to go to London to attend an Irish peace conference.

London, June 28.—Close advisers of Premier Lloyd George today were informally notified by Dublin Sinn Fein leaders at Ballinacorney that a week's delay in the decision that referendum is necessary before Eamon de Valera accepts Premier Lloyd George's invitation to go to London for an Irish peace conference.

Decorated Knee Police Clue in Hunt for Woman

The woman, who was wearing a knee-length dress, was seen in the street, and the police are looking for her.

ULSTER FOR MEETING

Conference Approved by the Cabinet Says Note From Premier

SINN FEIN HEADS CONFER

'Parliament' to Decide Whether 'President' Shall Make Trip to London

DUBLIN, June 28.—Eamon de Valera, the Irish republican leader, is not yet ready to give a definite answer to Premier Lloyd George's letter inviting him to a conference for an Irish settlement. He has, however, replied to the premier, however, expressing the warm desire for a lasting peace, but deems unity of Ireland essential to that end.

Believed June 28.—The Irish cabinet, today, accepted Premier Lloyd George's invitation to Sir James Craig, premier of Ulster, to go to London to attend an Irish peace conference.

London, June 28.—Close advisers of Premier Lloyd George today were informally notified by Dublin Sinn Fein leaders at Ballinacorney that a week's delay in the decision that referendum is necessary before Eamon de Valera accepts Premier Lloyd George's invitation to go to London for an Irish peace conference.

It was said that a referendum might be necessary because the Sinn Fein officials believe they must be relieved of their oath to the Irish republic before entering negotiations with England. This oath, which was administered on June 13, pledges all Sinn Fein members to the Irish republic, and to have no dealings with "enemy countries."

De Valera continues to hold consultations with a committee of Sinn Fein leaders, and it is stated he visited Mountjoy prison Monday and talked with Arthur Griffith, president of the Sinn Fein.