Late Summer.
In recent appearance, people tell us how they are getting ready for the coming autumn. The weather is just what is needed to get the people into the mood for the season. The weather is just what is needed to get the people into the mood for the season.

Marilla Bullis is expected to be the first of the new crop of blue eyes. And she is like the others in that she is a beauty. The weather is just what is needed to get the people into the mood for the season.

Today's Events.
Benefit lawn party on grounds of Columbia grounds by women of Altar society, Holy Family church. Miss Florence Trevelyan's dancing party for Miss Madeline Collins. Miss Ora Weaver's bridge party in her home.

Bridge Parties.
A beautiful home wedding was solemnized Thursday evening in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas N. Haskins, 1121 North Cherokee avenue, which united a daughter of the home, Miss Mary Ann Haskins, to Mr. Alfred James Richey, Dr. C. W. Kerr, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated and present were relatives of both bride and groom and 20 of their close friends. The home was made florally beautiful by the employment of floor palms and ferns, with vases of asters in pastel shades in among them. The nuptial rites were held beneath a floral arch of southern amylax with intermingling of asters. The music consisted of Mendelssohn's wedding march, to which the bride party entered. The bride on the arm of her father, who gave her away, then being preceded by Miss Edna Haskins, a sister, who was maid of honor, this trio being met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. William Fraser and the officiating minister. The bride looked lovely in a handsome gown of white crepe de chene combined with lace and fashioned in long lines with semi-full skirt and carried a charming bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Her maid of honor was in a smart afternoon frock of orchid organdie and carried an immense cluster of pink roses. After the ceremony an informal reception was held and later the bride party and relatives of the bride and groom were entertained at dinner in the Kennedy restaurant where the decorations reflected the colors used in the home.

Stemmer-Bumley.
Announcement is made of the marriage on Wednesday evening of Miss Ruth Bumley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Bumley, 209 South Denver avenue and Mr. Richard Stemmer, also of this city. The ceremony was held at the First Methodist church officiated by Rev. J. W. Haskins. Only immediate relatives and friends witnessed the nuptials. The bride has resided here practically all her life and is a graduate of the public schools of Tulsa. Mr. Stemmer is associated in the oil business here with his father, and shares with his bride quite a degree of popularity in the younger circles of society. Mr. Stemmer and his bride will reside here and will soon be located in their new home, where they will be at home to friends.

Travis-McKarsie.
Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Lillian Winn McKarsie to Mr. Russell Travis at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. G. A. Triplett, 1101 Mr. Triplett, 1101 South Galveston avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Travis left the Wichita Falls, Texas, where the groom is associated with all interests there.

Informal Party.
Miss Alice Farns is entertaining a party in her home on Saturday afternoon.

Personal Mention.
Mr. Joseph Schreiner has returned after a six weeks' visit to the Ozarks and points elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Teller and Mrs. Teller are at home again after their relatives in Pennsylvania and Ohio.

Mrs. J. H. Stenhouse has returned from Pittsburgh, Pa., where she was called by the illness and subsequent death of her father.

The HUNT COMPANY

A Great Eight Months Drive On Downward Prices

Tremendous rapid selling began Thursday and great was the enthusiasm for an event like this. The merchandise offered was favorably purchased. Some of our customers were kind enough to tell us they have seen nothing like it before. The seasonable (Fall and Winter) merchandise they want is here when they want it.

Hunt's GREAT EIGHT MONTHS DRIVE on downward prices is of such size, scope and far reaching effect that it would be to your great advantage to shop here at any time, whether it be today or tomorrow, as the prices quoted on our Quality merchandise will be far reaching, in fact every department will participate in this great drive, and continue so, until our removal to our new home, to be located on the corner of Main and Fourth Streets.

An Additional Charge of Ten Per Cent Will Be Added to Your Purchase if Charged

The savings that prevail will continue daily during this great eight months drive on downward prices. Thrifty, economical shoppers will anticipate their Fall and Winter needs and take advantage of the prevailing savings that are offered during this great sales campaign. Again we urge early buying as stocks are most complete now.

Yours for the future—
