

DEMO CANDIDATES ADDRESS LEAGUE

Mrs. Seaman Was the Only Republican in Attendance

About twenty democratic candidates for city offices and Mrs. Evans G. Seaman, republican candidate for city auditor to address herself, appeared before the Tulsa County Democratic Taxpayers League at a meeting in the church room Friday night and in a statement concerning their opposition to the efforts made by the other candidates they said the republican candidates and voters were communing by their absence.

All the candidates acknowledged themselves to be honest and efficient and admitted that they are well qualified to hold public office if elected. Taxes will be cut in less and paymenst will be limited to the minimum. The auditor will have nothing to do with the city for two years for they admit it themselves.

Candidates for mayor who addressed the league were Frank M. Wadsworth, H. E. Inglesham, Julian Hennington, H. F. Kowalewski, Morris J. Gold, secretary of the league, and who failed to be a candidate for mayor, was not even present. Frankly a man of some grasp because the league members did not rally to his support as he had expected. Tax rates to be for Wadsworth while "Bum" is leaning on to the New Town Wagon.

composed of wage earners in other industries, who have already accepted substantial decreases in their earnings, and who cannot continue to do so in present-day prices in order that the workers in the anthracite field may hold their present scale of wages.

"With these facts in mind the general policies committee is authorized to say in reply to your communication to the joint conference of anthracite operators and miners embodying 19 demands to be used as the basis of an agreement to take the place of the one now in effect, which expires March 31.

Back to Roosevelt Principles.

"It should be stated that the anthracite operators are not unwilling to continue contractual relations with the United Mine Workers of America, but on the contrary, are willing to continue the practice of dealing with that organization as representing their employees, provided that the form of contract is in accord with the principles laid down by President Roosevelt in 1902 and the anti-trust committee appointed by President Wilson in 1916, and provided, further, that the jurisdiction of the board of conciliation shall not be questioned, or abdicated.

"The operators are ready to consider and discuss any proposition relating to wages and working conditions submitted by either party.

"When it comes to matters affecting the cost of production, there is another party to be considered, viz: the buyer. Any adjustment which is not satisfactory to the buyer must

Mayor Evans Sets Example

Mayor T. D. Evans was one of the first Tulsans to purchase a pair of Tulsa motor-plate tags for his car from Jack Clegg, in charge of the sale for Jim Clegg, post of the American Legion, and his example has been followed in the past two weeks by a good number of motor-owning Tulsa residents.

The tags have been introduced by most of the civic organizations this week by tire-dealers and are on sale in 11 different establishments. Brevia estimates that the first shipment of 1,000 sets will soon be exhausted at the present rate of sales, that will be 100 sets a day, according to salesmen several days ago.

The Legion wants to put a pair of tags on every car which traverses Tulsa streets and every car which goes out from here to other parts of the nation, with the double purpose of exhibition paper Tulsa pride and spreading the city's name far and wide and of furthering the erection of new clubhouses, the fund for which is the sole one to benefit from the project.

Inevitably it is, for in that event production cannot be distributed and the miners will then lose opportunity for employment.

The miners' contractors will best be pleased to steady work, for the miners' maximum production at the mines, and the widest possible market for the product. To secure this a reasonable cost of production is necessary.

Buyer Hard Pressed.

The dictated price-book of the buyer cannot continue to pay the present prices. Economy is being practiced by the consumer and various substitutes for anthracite are being used. But for the fear on the part of the public of a shutdown April 1, the recent movement of anthracite would have been even less than it was, with the result of short-time employment throughout the region. The economic situation today not only forbids any increase in costs and prices, but compels a reduction.

"Anthracite labor is the only group in this country which has not sustained a decrease in wages, nor has it suffered a material decline in the opportunity of steady work.

"Deflation in the cost of production, 70 per cent of which is represented by mine labor, is imperative. The anthracite operators can see no alternative. Readjustment of the wage rates is the first necessary step to reduce the cost of anthracite to the consumer, and to insure continued stability in the industry.

"It is obvious then that prosperity and steady work in the anthracite fields must cease unless the price of anthracite coal can be reduced to a figure which can be realized by a figure which the consumer can pay.

"We are confident that if in negotiation this absolutely controlling factor is kept continually in mind, we shall be able to reach a conclusion which will promote the welfare of all concerned. And with this adornment alone, reached $956,000 last year, Kahn declared.

"A comparison of our national wealth with the number of soldiers now maintained in the regular army, shows that each soldier is charged with affording protection and national security to $1,755,537 of the $350,000,000 total of our national wealth," Kahn said. "Each of these soldiers is at the present time protecting some 25 square miles of territory of our mainland and dependencies and with giving $16 of our people a guarantee against foreign interference with their constitutional rights in their pursuit of health, happiness and lawful gain. All this at a cost of $3 per capita of population."

GREEN LEADING COLOR FRIDAY

St. Patricks Day Was Quietly Celebrated in Tulsa

Green predominated throughout Tulsa Friday. Green carnations, green shamrocks, miniature clay pipes, set on a background of green all gave vent to a vivid coloration scheme which was visible on the lapsels of maid business men and business office girls as well. At the busier end of the city St. Patrick's Day was the quietest St. Patrick's day that this city has ever experienced.

Had it not been for the predominating green, St. Patrick's day might have come and passed and many Tulsans have done the same. To be sure a few elaborate affairs and celebrations occurred. Friday night the Knights of Columbus at the hall, St. Patrick's ball was given by the Knights of Columbus at convention hall Friday night and gay costumes and decorations held sway throughout.

Several St. Patrick's dances were held Thursday instead of Friday, conspicuous among which was the annual St. Patrick's ball tendered the employees of The World and that held at the Knights of Pythias hall.

Misses and Mrs. Joe Chambers, a gift to the dance by Little Miss Hancock, a reading by Betty Lorraine Harne, a singing by Miss Georgia Allen and Miss C. Forsythe, a flapper dance by Miss Ned Cook and H. R. Nauclan, a playlet by June and Ors, a doublette, songs with Little Miss Noel Farnestock were members on the extraordinary program.

The very unusual entertainment was arranged by the regular entertainment committee consisting of C. T. Scott, chairman; Mildred Morrison, H. C. Peeler, H. H. Johnson, Mrs. J. L. Harne, Gladys Zean and Mrs. J. L. Harne.

Miss Lorraine Harne, Gladys Zean and Mrs. J. L. Harne were members of Tulsa and were members of Tulsa and Friday was the quietest St. Patrick's day that this city has ever experienced.

Four of the indictments were for alleged felony offenses and the other was for a misdemeanor.

The indictments returned follow:

Official misconduct (three counts).

Defacing and injuring voted ballots.

Changing ballots.

Changing elector's vote (misdemeanor).

Conspiracy against the laws of the state of Oklahoma.

On the indictment on the charge of defacing and injuring ballots, it is alleged that 120 ballots voted for

J. W. Harrelle for United States senator who was changed in favor of Scott Ferris.

The superior court grand jury dismissed several weeks ago by Judge H. R. Christopher, had indicted Kersten and Sulling, but all work of that grand jury was declared void following its dismissal. It was upon a general demurrer to the indictment of Kersten and Sulling that Judge Christopher quashed the grand jury because he said he was convinced it had been improperly impaneled.

GET OUT OF THE RUT

We cannot afford to let the government of a live city get into a rut and stay there. There is a difference between progress and extravagance. Nominate a man for Mayor who has a constructive vision and who will make the government of the city render maximum service to the people at a minimum cost. Henke is the man. —He gets results.

Half-Minute Store Talk

Without any desire to boast, we still are proud that we've stood out for quality, since the first day this store opened. We mention it now, because every so-called depression causes a certain number of merchants to substitute price for quality. We're going to have quality goods as long as we're here.

New Suits in tune with the Season

You'll see the very spirit of spring in the bright, cheery new fabrics we've collected for the new season. Just to look at them will make you feel better, more like your real self.

But looking at them is only the first of many things you'll get out of the clothes. Style beyond criticism, quality as usual, workmanship so fine you wonder how it is done, at the low prices we ask.
