economic conference, late this afternoon made a statement intimating that Russia would accept the allied proposal for a commission on Russian affairs to meet at The Hague, under protest.

This phrase "under protest" saves the faces of the Russian delegation and particularly its chief, Mr. Tchicherin, the soviet foreign minister, but at the same time permits the preparations for the next conference a continuation of the Genoa conference to continue.

Russia had announced it would not accept a commission that did not provide for full Russian membership and on this point the Lloyd George plan threatened to collapse.

All eyes are now turned to Washington, while delegates anxiously await news as to whether America will accept the invitation to participate at The Hague.

GENOA, May 15.—"If Russia refuses to meet us at The Hague, we will have nothing more to say to the Russians," Premier Lloyd George announced this afternoon.

LONDON, May 15.—Downing street officials expressed confidence today that the allied states would consent to participate in the allied meeting at The Hague to prevent a mixed commission to study the Russian problem unless the proposal is knocked out by the attitude taken by the Russians themselves at Genoa.

BANQUET HONORS GOOD ROAD PLAN

Two Hundred Attend Affair Held at Dawson Monday

A banquet in celebration of the beginning of construction work on the nine miles of hard-surfaced road in Dawson township was held at Dawson Monday night with more than two hundred visitors from Tulsa and surrounding towns present as guests. The banquet was served by the Ladies Aid society of Dawson.

S. R. Lewis was toastmaster of the occasion. W. Tate Brady spoke on Tulsa county's good road program and said that he hoped the hard-surfaced roads in Dawson township would be repeated in other parts of the county and state. At the present time the hard-surfaced road in that township is the only one of its kind in the state.

It is estimated, the road will cost $250,000.

"Long before Tulsa became even a town," Brady said, "the few residents depended entirely upon mud from the Dawson mines. There was little money in Tulsa in those early days and the payrolls came from Dawson, then a prosperous trading point."

Others who spoke were Fred I. Kitchen who talked on "How I Lined Up the Colored Brothers for the Road Bond Issue," "Dawson Knows and Appreciates Its Friends," by Dr. J. A. Jackman, "Why the Ladies Want Hard-Surfaced Roads," Mrs. George G. Rhymer, "Dawson's Friend, The North Side Improvement Association," L. W. AVERY INVITES TULSA DAIRYMEN TO A GRASS SOCIAL ON HIS FARM

A "grass social" or in the terms of the dairymen, a pasture grass demonstration will be given by Cy Avery at his farm east of Tulsa at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. It was announced yesterday, Avery has invited all dairymen in the county to attend.

The Avery farm has more varieties of pasture grass than any other farm in the county. It is said, Avery's hobby has been grass and for the last two years he has been experimenting in order to find the variety best suited for this section of the country. Among the pastures on his place are alfalfa, timothy, sweet clover, white clover, red clover, par clover, orchard grass, red top, blue grass and native grass. Avery has conducted practical demonstrations and it is said that the demonstrations to be given Saturday will be of valuable aid to local dairymen.

S. R. Lewis was toastmaster of the occasion. W. Tate Brady spoke on Tulsa county's good road program and said that he hoped the hard-surfaced roads in Dawson township would be repeated in other parts of the county and state. At the present time the hard-surfaced road in that township is the only one of its kind in the state.

It is estimated, the road will cost $250,000.

"Long before Tulsa became even a town," Brady said, "the few residents depended entirely upon mud from the Dawson mines. There was little money in Tulsa in those early days and the payrolls came from Dawson, then a prosperous trading point."

Others who spoke were Fred I. Kitchen who talked on "
