Greb-Tunney Match Set for May 26 Takes Front Place

Winner May Get Crack at Carpenter for World's Title

By ROBERT EDGREN.
The Greb-Tunney match scheduled for May 26 is the next thing to a heavyweight championship bout. The big fellows always draw. Little men put up a fast, clever exhibition of boxing, but the "sock" isn't there. They make a pretty picture, but they lack the big "bang" that lifts the spectators off their seats and makes them feel every punch. There's nothing awe-inspiring in their work.

A Jeffries, a Fitzsimmons, Dempsey, Willard, Langford, any of the big fellows with the wallop, always kept us gasping for breath in sympathy with the fellow taking it.

It may be the case in us that makes us take joy in the spectacle of two ring behemoths crashing together and landing mighty swats—just plain staviem. But if there wasn't a bit of the cave man spirit left in these days of prohibition and all of that sort of jolly old rind, the world would be a dull place to live in.

The winner of the Greb-Tunney battle may attract Carpenter over for another American trip. And Georges against either of them would be a good thing. Carpenter, in his weight class, is a wonderful ring man. Dempsey was too big for him, but against Greb or Tunney the flying Frenchman would put up a scrap worth crossing the country to see.

George Engel, who manages Greb, says that nothing short of an earthquake or a cyclone can keep Harry from winning.

"And after that—within three or four months," says George, you are going to see Greb in the ring with Dempsey. Greb has one idea fixed on his head. It's that he can whip Dempsey over any route from 15 rounds up—or a shorter route if Jack insists on it. He has helped Dempsey train several times, and he knows every move Dempsey makes. Dempsey never has been able to hold Greb off, and he couldn't do it in a fight.

"The way to beat Dempsey," Greb says, "is to keep him on his heels. Don't let him set for a punch. Stay on top of him and never stop hitting, and he can't do a thing."

"If Greb gets on with Dempsey the world is going to see the busiest 15 rounds, if it goes that far, ever pulled off in a ring."

ASSAULTED BY EIGHT MEN

Kansas City Woman Kidnaped and Taken to Lonely Cabin.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 15.—Mrs. Antonette Conley, 27, was in a serious condition today in a hospital while police were searching for eight men who Saturday night brutally assaulted her in a deserted cabin several miles from the city.

The woman's story, told yesterday after she had been found half-conscious near a road by boy scouts, was one of horror. She was black-jacked and dragged into a motor car by the men Saturday night while walking on the street. In an all-night orgy in the cabin she was assaulted by each of the men, beaten and her clothing torn off, she told police the men were foreigners.

Bonded Whisky Barred.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The United States supreme court today held that whisky in bond may not be shipped through American ports from one foreign country to the same foreign country or to another foreign country. The test case was brought by the Anchor line of steamships against the revenue collector of New York.

U. S. Net Star Eliminated.

SANDWICH, Eng., May 15.—Miss Rosemond Sherwood, the only American contestant, was eliminated from the ladies' open golf championship tournament on the Princes course in the opening round today, when Mrs. Fletcher of Wembley, defeated her 3 up and 2 to go.

Charles Ledoux, the fighting Frenchman, refuses to be kept out of the championships. A couple of months ago Ledoux was stopped by Eugene Crique, French featherweight champion of Europe. This looked like the end of a long career.

Ledoux fought Kid Williams for the world's bantam championship long before the war, was a French soldier in active service for four years, and has been fighting in the ring ever since. But you can't keep a good man down. Ledoux is on top again through winning the district bantam weight championship by outpointing Tom Harrison in 15 rounds.

Another European note says that Bombardier Wells has come out of retirement, knocking out Alfred Lloyd, the Australian heavyweight, in 10 rounds. This must have been another cruel blow to Dempsey.

English promoters wanted him to meet three men, Lloyd among them, in one evening. But perhaps the Bombardier has come back just in time to take Lloyd's place. Wells always has been the hard luck kid.

TULSA WINDS UP WITCHES SERIES THIS AFTERNOON

Jumps South to Clash With Oklahoma City Wednesday

Special to The World.
WICHITA, May 15.—Jack LeVell's Oilers took another day's rest when the third game of the Tulsa-Wichita series was postponed because of rain. Tomorrow's stand closes the Oilers' initial invasion of the northern clubs, and the Tulsa club will leave here Tuesday night for Oklahoma City where they clash with Holland's Indians in their final game before returning home.

LeVell said he was expecting one of the hardest battles of the season, when he met the Oklahoma City club as the series will probably determine whether the Oilers are to stay in the first division or again give way to the Capital City team, who they forced down into the second division.

The Oilers will drop down to Tulsa for the opening series of the next home season there with the Oilers Sunday.

Jack LeVell, commander-in-chief of the visiting crew, declared that he was disappointed because the game was rained out, as his team was ready to go like a house afire and his athletes fretted at delay.

Haugland will probably start for Tulsa tomorrow.

Britton Is Signed To Meet Long In O. C. May 26

The proposed bout between Jack Britton, welterweight champion, and Ray Long at Oklahoma City May 26, became a certainty Monday night when Dan Morgan, Britton's manager, affixed his signature to a contract after a long conference with Dan V. Lackey, president of the Drovers Athletic club. Britton was guaranteed $5,000 for the bout, $1,000 more than his guarantee for meeting Morris Lou here tonight.

Mr. Lackey departed for Oklahoma City on an early morning train Tuesday with the signed contract in his pocket. He already had signed Long.
