

DAUGHERTY MAY BE IMPEACHED

Attorney-General Accused of "Violating" Constitution

CHARGE TO COMMITTEE

Judiciary Body of Senate to Consider Case; Keller Is Ready With Testimony

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—An attempt to impeach Attorney-General Daugherty was made in the house this afternoon by Representative Oscar E. Keller, republican of Minnesota.

Keller rose to the "question of highest privilege" announcing he desired to bring impeachment proceedings against the attorney-general.

Mondell Blocks Him
Before he could state his charges or explain on what grounds he desired to impeach the attorney-general, his remarks were blocked by Representative Mondell, the republican leader, who demanded a roll call on a point of no quorum. The roll call then started.

As soon as he was permitted to proceed, Keller charged that in obtaining the railroad strike injunction in the federal court at Chicago, Attorney-General Daugherty had "abridged from the freedom of speech, press and peaceful assembly in violation of the constitution" and that he had failed to make prosecutions when evidence was laid before him.

Representative Blanton, democrat of Texas, raised a formal objection, maintaining that Keller's charges were general and not sufficient upon which to base impeachment proceedings.

Blanton Overruled.

Speaker Gillette overruled Blanton's objections and Keller continued with his attack upon the attorney-general.

Keller asked that the house judiciary committee be instructed to investigate his charges of misconduct against Daugherty and to report to the house. He said he was prepared to appear before the committee with proofs to substantiate his charges.

Representative Mondell immediately moved that Keller's charges be referred to the judiciary committee and this was done by a viva voce vote.

Texas Drought Broken.
DALLAS, Texas, Sept. 11.—A drought of several weeks' duration has been broken in parts of north and west Texas. Rain falling from one to two inches fell Sunday over a considerable portion of these districts. Only a very light shower fell in Dallas, however, and unless at least an inch of rain falls in the section supplying Dallas with water within 30 days it will be necessary to use unfiltered water for drinking and other purposes.

Kentucky Lady Tells How She Became Strong and Healthy —Recommends Cardui to Weak Women.

Mount Vernon, Ky.—Mrs. Cynthia Vanhook, formerly of Stanford, but now residing here, says that after her third child was born, she undertook to resume her housework too soon, "and his caused me a great deal of trouble."

"I began to feel weak and all played out—not myself at all," as Mrs. Vanhook describes her condition. "For about six weeks I was just a nervous wreck. I had to have some one do all my housework."

"My doctor told me my impudence had caused shock to the nervous system, and the thing to do was to use a tonic to build up my strength."

"He recommended Cardui. . . Very soon I saw an improvement in my condition. I used three bottles of Cardui and . . . my health was restored."

"I am a strong, healthy woman." This Kentucky lady adds that she "never fails to recommend Cardui to weak and run-down lady friends." Thousands of women praise Cardui to their friends.

This mild, harmless, vegetable tonic medicine has been in successful use for over forty years, in the treatment of many common ailments suffered by women.

CHILD SLOWLY RECOVERING

Son of Collinsville Couple, Struck by Auto, May Survive Accident.
John Holland, Jr., 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Holland of Collinsville, was reported Monday night as slowly recovering at the Oklahoma hospital from injuries received at Collinsville about two weeks ago when he was struck by an automobile while crossing the street. It was announced that, although the child has not regained consciousness since his removal to the hospital, a week ago, the prospects for his recovery are favorable.

The car which struck the child was driven by Charles Stuart of Collinsville and was turning a corner when the child, who was riding a tricycle, started across the street and ran into the front wheel of the car and was thrown to the ground, striking his head on the pavement. When the child failed to regain consciousness he was taken to the hospital where an examination revealed that he was suffering from a blood clot on the brain.

TIERNAN QUILTS, IN POULIN CASE

South Bend Professor to Let Wife Fight It Out
Through Courts

SOUTH BEND, Sept. 11.—Prof. J. S. Tiernan, faculty member of Notre Dame university, today dropped out of the sensational case brought by his wife against Harry Poulin, well-known merchant charged with being the father of a child born to Mrs. Tiernan last November.

Professor Tiernan announced that, believing he had rendered all possible aid and that his moral obligations are complete, his presence in the case is no longer necessary or desirable. He will take no part in the proceedings, he stated, other than that of an interested spectator.

Wants No More Publicity.

In announcing his withdrawal, Professor Tiernan made it plain that he was in no sense deserting the case in a crisis but had come to the conclusion that neither he, his family nor his associates were called upon to bear any further burden of undesirable publicity.

"Mrs. Tiernan will press the case to the finish," he said. "I tried for eight months to arrange matters without scandal and without recourse to the courts. I desired to protect my two little girls, my own family and my associates. That was not altogether possible."

"The charge was filed by Mrs. Tiernan when every course failed."

"The case is now in the hands of the prosecutor and the state. I have arranged for a separation under which my two little girls will be placed in a proper home in Chicago after the trial, where I can visit each week. I have provided for that course which is in accordance with good conscience, the law and the protection of my children."

"I have every sympathy with the purposes and the plans of Mrs. Tiernan to prosecute, but I have rendered all the assistance that I can give or could be called upon to give."

Will Reorganize His Life.
"I will reorganize my life in accordance with the conditions thrust into it by this tragical incident."

"The battle is now between Mrs. Tiernan and Poulin, the two who stand upon the same moral level, who are now battling in the courts as a result of their own clandestine relations."

Mrs. Tiernan, not at all dismayed by the action of her husband, is intent upon prosecuting the case. It was expected the hearing would be concluded some time Thursday.

Senate Approves Mail Bill

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—The senate judiciary committee today approved the new bill which would bar all threatening letters from the mails. The measure, aimed at blackmailers and so-called "black-hat" letter writers, would fix a fine of $5,000 and two years' imprisonment as punishment for any violation.

UNABLE TO WALK DOWN TOWN

After Two Months' Treatment Had Perfect Use of Herself

The following from Mrs. Burns, who is one of the best known and most respected ladies of Pryor, Oklahoma, should interest any sufferer from serious chronic disease:

Pryor, Okla.
"I had been suffering for more than three years from a condition that many women are afflicted with. For more than a year I had been unable to walk down town, only a matter of four blocks. There seemed to be nothing left for me but to submit to a most dangerous operation, as I could get no help. Two months ago I began treatment with the Inter-State Doctors. What they have done for me has been truly wonderful. I can go anywhere and everywhere, just as I once did. I feel that I would not be doing my duty to other sufferers unless I told what has been done for me and I write this trusting that it will be the means of helping others back to health."

"MRS. M. BURNS."

The diseases treated by the Inter-State Doctors are all chronic diseases of the blood, nerves, kidneys, liver and stomach, including catarrh, rheumatism, indigestion, constipation, nervousness, loss of nerve force, goitre, gall stones, diseases of women and diseases of men.

Not the least of their success is due to their facilities of examination and correct diagnosis. Thousands of men have been relieved from the embarrassment of some hidden disease. Many hopeless mothers have escaped the surgeon's knife through their methods of treatment.

They are prepared to administer the French 914 to a limited number of patients.

The Tulsa offices are at 218-219 Security building, corner Second and Main street. Consultation and examination is free.

Office hours are: Week days, 9 to 5; evenings, 7 to 9; Sundays 10 to 12 only.—Advertisement.

FOUR STATES TO BE REPRESENTED

Farm End of Business
Congress to Be Big Feature

PROGRAM ANNOUNCED

Speakers Include Men Prominent in All Lines of Business Activity

The fact that meetings of county agents from the states of Oklahoma, Arkansas, Texas and Missouri are being arranged for during the two-day session of the Southwestern Business congress, to be held here October 18 and 19, insures a big attendance for the agricultural group meetings of the congress, according to an announcement made yesterday by William Holden, secretary of the congress. Noon meeting of the agricultural group will be held both days of the congress.

Arrangements for the agricultural phase of the congress are being made by a committee made up of John Kramer, farmer; Cyrus Avery, good roads enthusiast; Judge Martin, J. R. Malone, county agent; D. R. Rees, secretary of the Tulsa County Co-operative association, and Professor Connor of the A. & M. college; Carl Williams, editor of the Oklahoma Farmer-Stockman of Oklahoma City, and president of the American Cotton Growers exchange and the Southern Wheat Growers association; Col. Clarence Osley, former assistant secretary of agriculture of Port Worth, Texas; H. J. Waters, managing editor of the Kansas City Star and an authority on rural credits; and Bradford Knapp, dean of the Agricultural college at the University of Arkansas and an authority on grading and marketing, are to be speakers who will be of outstanding interest to the members of the agricultural group.

Retailers at Work.

Tulsa retailers are at work upon plans for the retailers group meeting which will be held both days of the congress. The bankers of the city are making plans for the bankers' group meetings which will be held both days. The bankers of the city are making plans for the bankers' group, sending invitations to bankers of the four states and tentative plans are for the holding of group meetings at the Country club. Other groups that will have one or more meetings during the sessions of the congress are motor trades, commercial and community organizations, wholesalers, manufacturers, agricultural and livestock.

Stock, oil and gas industry and publishers.

A preliminary program for the congress was announced yesterday by Holden. General sessions are to be held in convention hall from 9 o'clock to 12, and from 2 until 4 o'clock of each day. Group meetings will be held at luncheon and dinner periods. A tour to the oil fields Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock is being arranged for, and a smoker and pot-luck meeting Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock. Special entertainment will be provided for visiting ladies.

Speakers on the program to date will be John Robert L. Owen, Irving Fisher, professor of economics at Yale; John G. Lonsdale, president of the National Bank of Commerce at St. Louis, Mo.; Osley, John P. Frey, editor of the International Molders Journal of Cincinnati; H. H. Rogers of San Antonio and formerly of Tulsa; Carl Williams, John G. Jones, vice president of the Alexander Hamilton Institute, New York; G. J. Moore, president of the O. J. Moore Grocery company, Sioux City, Iowa (wholesale); Waters, Knapp and M. L. Wilkinson, president of Scruggs, Vandervoort & Harvey Dry Goods company, St. Louis (retailer).

tioned at every entrance to the federal building, while the rest of the available force was scattered through the courtroom.

Richberg, in a three-hour argument, attacked the government's bill, declaring the acts involved in the calling and prosecution of the strike were entirely lawful, that the injunction was one the court had no power to grant because it is unconstitutional and violates the Clayton act; and declared that if the bill is stripped of its conspiracy charges all that is left is a bill to enjoin criminal acts by unknown persons who may or may not be members of the union.

The attorney-general, Richberg declared, has no right to use the power of the government to prevent labor from doing any lawful thing to fight the "open shop" movement. He cited the decision of the federal circuit court of appeals here in modifying the drastic provisions of the injunction against the coal miners. Issued a few months ago by Judge A. B. Anderson, at Indianapolis.

Should Go to Other Court.
The government's bill, the defense counsel maintained, seeks to invoke jurisdiction which has been denied the federal courts and seeks to evade the Clayton act by maintaining that the purpose of the alleged conspiracy to interfere with interstate traffic are illegitimate and unlawful.

"If a conspiracy actually exists," he said, the government should seek relief through the proper channels in the criminal courts, and he denied the right of government injunction to deprive the defendants of the constitutional safeguards they would have under such criminal proceedings.

The government's exhibit on the crimes which it charges are due to the strike, and which cover 26 printed pages, indicated the nationwide scope of the outbreaks on which the petition for an injunction is based.

Of murders alone it listed during July and August, in Alabama 1, Arkansas 1, Georgia 1, Illinois 3, Kentucky 1, Missouri 1, Ohio 3, Tennessee 5, Texas 2 and Virginia 2.

Estimate declined to estimate how long it will take to complete the presentation of the government's case, but indications are that the hearing may last two or three days longer.
