

ALL OVER OKLAHOMA and Neighboring States

Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 26.—George S. Short, attorney general, has proposed a bill to amend the Oklahoma constitution to make an investigation into the purchase of a set of state seal examinations questions from a school teacher at Tulsa, for which at least two persons had been given $100,000.

MURKIN, Sept. 26.—But for the chance of a mortgage securing $100,000 bonds was filed in federal court Monday against the bank holding the mortgage.

REDDO, Sept. 26.—Ray Martin, 16, was severely injured about the face, forehead and chest by a car wheel when he was struck by it in a race between the Wilbur racing team, two miles west of this city. His injuries were not serious.

CHICKADEE, Sept. 26.—Charges were placed against J. A. Jones by his wife, Marie, on the grounds of insanity after he had been arrested by the Tulsa police for beating his 15-year-old daughter. He is said to be a former day laborer and has been in the hospital for a short time last week. He is expected to stay for a few days when his case comes up for hearing.

PADEN, Sept. 26.—A big social event has been arranged to be held at Paden on October 1 by the Baptist church, here. Will R. Padgett, pastor of the church, will be the presiding officer and the meetings will continue as long as the people show interest in the event.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 26.—The board of county commissioners of Oklahoma county has decided that the county part of the gross production tax on the oil production of Oklahoma county for the quarter ending August 31, one-half of the sum given to the school fund of the county and one-half to the state fund.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 26.—Max L. Cunningham was appointed by Governor Robert S. Sweeney to the position of state highway engineer. Cunningham held the post under Governor Williams and served as state engineer of Oklahoma during his term. Cunningham resigned Saturday under pressure from the governor to leave the position. Cunningham is a native of Oklahoma and has been in the state highway commission since 1928.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 26.—Hawley will soon have a brown factory. J. A. Lattin, of Tulsa, who has conducted a factory there for a number of years, will move the plant to this city. The plant will be enlarged, new machinery will be purchased and the daily output will be larger than ever before.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 26.—C. E. Harrington, a youth of 20 years, ran with on writing a check for $100,000 to the Tulsa county jail. Harrington, who is a native of Oklahoma, was arrested by the Tulsa police on the charge of passing a check for $100,000 to the Tulsa county jail. Harrington was arrested on the charge of passing a check for $100,000 to the Tulsa county jail.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 26.—County Surveyor R. L. Quinn has been making some surveys on the line between Tulsa county and Nowata county, expecting to have the line put in good shape before the Tulsa county fair, to be held here next week.

ARDMORE, Sept. 26.—Ardmore products will be put on display at the Ardmore high school on the week of October 2, at which time a series of addresses will be made to the students and the community on the occasion of the opening of the new high school building.

WAGONER, Sept. 26.—A. J. Cook is training a troop of Boy Scouts in this city and will act as scoutmaster. A large number of boys are taking advantage of the opportunity to enroll as members. Miss Grace Boyd is perfecting an organization of campfire girls here also, and will be their leader.

Kansas

CHERRYVALE, Kan., Sept. 26.—Paula Blay, a pioneer resident of this vicinity and a veteran of the Civil war, is dead at his home here. His wife died in January, 1921.

FREDONIA, Kan., Sept. 26.—The Fredonia Window Glass company of this city will start the manufacture of glass on October 1, the officials of the company announced today.

AUGUSTA, Kan., Sept. 26.—A referendum election has been called here for November 7, when voters will vote upon a proposal to issue $10,000 worth of bonds to be used in the construction of a city swimming pool.

PITTSBURG, Kan., Sept. 26.—J. Frank Batholomew, who is an active member of the county and state bars here, has been elected to the position of county clerk for the year 1933. Batholomew is a native of Iowa, and has been practicing law here for several years. He is a member of the bar of both the state and county bars.

COFFEYVILLE, Kan., Sept. 26.—Members of Company A, 18th infantry of the 25th division, spent their third annual reunion here today, the anniversary of the beginning of the Mexican campaign. The company was organized in this city as a part of the Third Kansas infantry, but at Camp Funston was united with a Missouri unit forming the 13th infantry.

CHAUWAT, Kan., Sept. 26.—The grocery store and home of Mrs. Fred L. Wilson of this city were burned this week, badly giving Mrs. Wilson time to get her belongings out of the house, the contents of which were totally destroyed.

INDEPENDENCE, Kan., Sept. 26.—"Newspaper" has been officially adopted as the mascot for the city of Independence. The mascot is a small dog, and the city of Independence has adopted it as its official mascot.

OTTAWA, Kan., Sept. 26.—The charges of neglecting recently lodged against Willie D. Wilson, a Kansas deputy state bank commissioner, have been dismissed in district court here. Miss Ethel Layton, a restaurant waitress, made a sworn statement that the charges were a "frame-up."

INDEPENDENCE, Kan., Sept. 26.—Bregg Sawyer of this city, called from New York this week on the steamship "Southern Cross" for Panama City, Panama, from where he goes to Mexico, 200 miles west of Bahia, and will follow in about six months.

CHERRYVALE, Kan., Sept. 26.—A large herd, 30 tons of hay and 150 bushels of oats, representing an estimated value of $2,500, were burned on the farm of the late Mr. J. H. Smith, a resident of this city, on the night of September 25. The fire was caused by a spark from a stove.

Missouri

MAHESHFIELD, Mo., Sept. 26.—Frank Stodder of Chanawana has appointed county farm agent of Webster county.

LAMAR, Mo., Sept. 26.—The decomposed body of Chester Pratt was found on a dump of an abandoned mine south of the Missouri Pacific right-of-way south of Lamar. A farmer and his wife, who were traveling in the car, discovered the body. The man was about 25 years old and was identified as a result of a card being found in his pocket.

CARTHAGE, Mo., Sept. 26.—The 14-ton four mule at Carl Junction, which was destroyed by fire recently, will be rebuilt in the near future, according to an announcement made yesterday. The fire caused a loss of more than $60,000, with $2,000 insurance.

HARTVILLE, Mo., Sept. 26.—Of the 70 cases docketed at the regular September term of the Wright circuit court, only 112 were before the court. Many of the cases were adjourned.

friction of the Federal law was to be tried.

BOURBON, Mo., Sept. 26.—Although he was not a candidate for the place, J. H. Smith was nominated for prosecuting attorney of Bourbon county by one of the voters who were cast for him in the primary. He was not elected for the office.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Sept. 26.—Persons were granted the right to sue for damages of the amount of $100,000, according to a decision of the federal court here. The court held that the plaintiff was entitled to recover the amount of $100,000, which was the amount of the damages suffered by the plaintiff.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Sept. 26.—An accident prohibition enforcement agent of the Springfield territory, including the southern part of the state, will be in the city here today. The agent will be in the city here today to enforce the prohibition laws of the state.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—Wash. Martin, 40, and C. M. Bennett, 35, farmers of the Adams township of this county, were arrested on warrants charging them with the murder of John H. Hall, a local farmer, who was shot and killed in June.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

NEWPORT, Ark., Sept. 26.—A 10-year-old boy of the first section of the city was injured by a car when he was struck by it on the street. The boy was taken to the hospital and his injuries were not serious.

Laughs That Make You Live Longer

MUTT AND JEFF—That Puts the Responsibility on Mutt.

By BUD FISHER

POLLY AND HER PALS—According to Aunt Maggie's Logic She Is Some Warbler.

By CLIFF STERRETT

CASEY THE COP—Giddiup!!

By H. M. TALBURT

BARNEY GOOGLE—The Colonel Exchanges One Suit for Another.

By BILLY DE BECK

THEM DAYS IS GONE FOREVER—"The Sheik."

By AL. POSEN

